ALTON ARRESTED.

Alleged Get-Rich-Quickster, Who Inserted Delusive Advertisements in the Italian and Yiddish Papers.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—Henry Alton, president of the Columbia Gold Mining Company, was arrested today, charged with violation of section 363 of the Penal Code, which makes it a misdemeanor to neglect to file with the County Clerk the names of the persons composing a company or a partnership.

Police Inspector McCluskey said that the arrest on a technical charge was due to a fear that the notoriety given the case might cause the men concerned to leave the city.

All the books of the company were seized. These records will be gone over carefully, and the company's customers communicated with.

The company has been advertising very largely in Italian and Yiddish newspapers. Among the names used in the advertisements were those of Samuel W. Thompson and Walter R. Eaton, employés of the customhouse. It was announced in Washington last night that Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Armstrong had requested a written report from those officials respecting their alleged connection with the company.

Alton was held in $1000 for examination in court July 1.

"Peace on Earth" Party.

DAVENPORT (Iowa) June 29.—William R. Benkert, chairman of the National Executive Committee of the United Christian party, has issued a call for a national convention of that party for March 1 to 4, 1904, at the World's Fair in St. Louis. The call states that the convention will be held for the purpose of "economic discussion and peace on earth in the name and spirit of Jesus Christ, and to further accomplish this great purpose by recommending or nominating candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States on a world-wide platform on which all Christians and patriots can stand and be finally united, pledged to stand for the Union in His name." The call suggests a woman for Vice-President.

POLITICAL.

NO TARIFF REVISION.

Great West Stands Pat Against It.

Senators Warren and Long and Representative Hemenway Say Protection is Wanted.

People not Willing to Disturb the Calm and Equilibrium Which Now Exist.

Bryanites' Quarrel in Nebraska not Helpful to Republicans Because of Railroads.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Republicans of prominence in different parts of the West—Senator Warren of Wyoming, Senator Long of Kansas and Representative Hemenway of Indiana, who were here today, agree that the protective tariff will be supported enthusiastically by the great West when the platform for the next Republican national convention comes up for consideration.

"We in the Rocky Mountain region are strong tariff men," said Senator Warren, "and do not consider worth making an issue any plan for the revision of the tariff. It may be there are cases in which the tariff is not just what we should like to see it, but we believe about as did 'Tom' Reed when he said: 'It is not what you want, it is what you can get in comparison with what you have got.'

"When we get into tariff revision, it is not what we want that we will get. We think we are better off without any revision. The country generally is prosperous, and the people are doing well. Revision of the tariff would bring with it uncertainty, which would result in untold loss from stoppage of business. Our Rocky Mountain country has few items of tariff in which we are interested directly, but we are looking to the general effect of the tariff rather than to our interest in specific terms. We are for the tariff just as we are for a good navy."

Senator Long of Kansas said that in his opinion no serous consideration of tariff revision would be undertaken by the next Congress.

"I suppose we will grant Cuba the stipulated customs reduction in the treaty with enabling legislation," he said; "but that is all the tariff legislation I anticipate."

Representative Hemenway, who is regarded as likely to succeed Uncle "Joe" Cannon as chairman of the Appropriations Committee in the next House, asserted that he is for a "standpat" doctrine, relative to the tariff question.

"The Republicans in my section wish the tariff let alone," he said. "The customs affairs of the country are working satisfactorily. We have an abundance of money, and the people, in my opinion, are not willing to take any chances of destroying the magnificent result we have accomplished. They have evidently come to the logical conclusion that to touch one item in the tariff bill means that others, and perhaps the whole fabric, is to be disturbed and distorted. Nothing could be more serious to business interests. The whole industrial system of the country would, in that event, be turned topsy-turvy. Chaos, instead of the wonderful calm and equilibrium now existing, would reign, and the result would be disastrous."

SCHEMING IN NEBRASKA.

RAILROADS AGAINST PRESIDENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The World's Omaha special says W. J. Bryan will entertain several politicians of national reputation July 4. It is said the object is to have a conference on the subject of the realignment of the several schools represented in the Kansas City convention. The family quarrel in the Bryanite ranks has demoralized the party in Nebraska, much to the advantage of the Republicans, whose majorities have grown steadily from year to year since the last national convention.

The last Republican State Convention was dominated by the railroad politicians, and although neither railroad could bring about the nomination of its favorite candidate for Governor, yet John H. Mickey was nominated as the result of the compromise, and it is not too much to say that any man not satisfactory to the railroad interests would have been defeated.

Heretofore the railroads have mixed in State politics largely upon the initiative of their line officials, their interest being to protect the property which they represent rather than to pose as political bosses. There are now, however, many evidences that the Harriman system, which is the Union Pacific, and the Burlington system, dominated by J. J. Hill, will try to carry out a political programme in Nebraska in line with the general policy of the merger railroads and monopolistic trusts to deafeat Theodore Roosevelt in the national convention.

John N. Baldwin, general attorney for the Union Pacific, who was prominently mentioned four years ago as Iowa's candidate for the Vice-Presidency, has shown unusual interest in Nebraska politics. His political adherents are giving it out that Leslie M. Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury and former Governor of Iowa, is to have the Iowa State delegation in the Republican National Convention, and, further, that an attempt will be made to secure for him the Nebraska delegation as well.

While many Republicans resent the interference of Baldwin in Nebraska politics, they do not hesitate to say that he and the Burlington's political agents may by joint action defeat the Roosevelt men in the State convention.

The rank and file of the Republicans of Nebraska are solidly for the renomination of President Roosevelt, but the corporations largely control the machinery of the party, and it is possible for them to do in this instance what they have done many times before when they have sought to defeat the will of the voters.

ORIENT.

RUSSIAN CONFERENCE OVER MANCHURIA.

LEADING OFFICIALS TO MEET AT PORT ARTHUR.

Visit of Gen. Kuropatkin to Japan Has Had Soothing Effect on the Mikado's People and War Talk Has Abated in Consequence.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PEKING, June 29.—[By Asiatic Cable.] The Russian Minister, M. Lessar, has been suddenly summoned to a conference with Gen. Kuropatkin, the Russian War Minister; Admiral Alexieff, commander of the Russian fleet in the Pacific; M. Pokotiloff, manager of the Russo-Chinese Bank at Peking, and other officers at Port Arthur, regarding Russia's position in Manchuria. M. Lessar leaves here July 1.

QUIETING THE JAPANESE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—The visit of War Minister Kuropatkin to Japan, has, according to the Japanese newspapers, had a very satisfactory effect on the relations between Russia and Japan, and has paved the way for a rapprochement. The newspapers of Japan, in expressing satisfaction at this state of affairs, alluded to Gen. Kuropatkin as the harbinger of peace and point out that he has been the Mikado's guest at the Shiba Palace, where no foreigners except princes of the royal blood had ever before resided.

PRESIDENT INTERESTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

OYSTER BAY (L. I.) June 29.—While President Roosevelt manifested the deepest interest in the dispatch from Peking placed in his hands by the Associated Press, announcing a conference of Russian officials at Port Arthur on the Manchurian question, he made no comment upon it for publication. It was the first news of the proposed conference he had received, but he is fully alive to its importance. The President is in close touch, by telegraph, with the State Department, and any developments of concern in foreign affairs will be transmitted promptly to him by Secretary Hay.

PAUSE IN NEGOTIATIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 29.—It is indicated today that the Manchurian question may be permitted to rest temporarily, so far as action at this end of the line is concerned, since Secretary Hay has left the city for a two weeks vacation and Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, is about to sail for Europe.

There are indications, too, that the Russian government has found it possible to shape her policy respecting Manchuria so as to be more acceptable to the United States.

Secretary Hay and Count Cassini, within the past week, have conferred on this subject, and it is apparent that there have been some developments which officials do not care to make public at this time.

In the negotiations with China for a commercial treaty, this government has been insistent on the opening of certain ports in Manchuria, and the new turn appears to have given a more hopeful feeling in that direction.

Secretary Hay called at the Russian embassy yesterday morning to say good-by to Count Cassini before leaving the city for Newport. The Secretary during his visit gave personal assurances to the Ambassador of the real regard which both he and the President have for the Ambassador. The call lasted for nearly an hour, and was most friendly throughout.

The Ambassador sails from New York July 7 on the Kaiser Wilhelm II for Paris, where after a week's rest he will go to St. Petersburg to report to His Majesty, the Emperor. He will return to the United States in the autumn.

TERRORS OF CONSCIENCE.

Servian Officers Who Participated in Palace Massacre Said to be Prey of Remorse and Despair.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VIENNA, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Remorse has overtaken some of the Servian officers who participated in the recent royal murders. Rumors of wholesale suicides have reached this city from Belgrade. It is said there is a serious cleavage of opinion in the army, and that many duels are imminent between the leading conspirators and officers of provincial garrisons who condemn the palace massacre. It is thought these reports are exaggerated, but it is certain that a reaction is taking place against the events of June 11, which is trying the souls of the weaker assassins and driving many to despair. The life of Col. Maschin, the leading murderer, is menaced, and he is considering the advisability of leaving Servia for a few months.

King Peter is encouraging festivities and holding levees to banish the reflections which are reported to haunt the public conscience.

MURRAY REFORMING JACKSON.

JACKSON (Ky.) June 29.—As an evidence that Gen. Murray's ironhanded policy in backing up Police Judge Cardwell is working well here, Tom Tharpe, arrested Saturday night for shooting within the town limits, was today fined $20 and costs. Sandy O'Connor and Joe Palmer, who broke up a religious worship two miles from town, were fined $15 and costs each. This is unusual in Jackson. Murray's orders have cowed the lawless, and not a shot was fired on Sunday.

STUDYING BUSINESS.

Foreign Envoys in America Busy.

"Commercial Diplomacy" the Slogan of Diplomatic Corps at the Present Time.

Uncle Sam's Strenuousness in Pushing Trade Arouses the Old World Governments.

Consular Appointments Made Known—Fencing of Public Lands—Return of Root.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, June 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Commercial diplomacy" is the new field in which the diplomatic corps at Washington are striving for supremacy. At other world capitals the line between the diplomatic and the consular service is strictly drawn, but the wave of commercialism which has swept over the United States and invaded Europe demands that a foreign envoy, accredited to Washington be posted on American financial and industrial developments, to protect the interests of his countrymen. That they may get in closer touch with the consulates of their respective governments and themselves study American business methods, and conditions in all sections of the country, several diplomats have been instructed to make inspections of their consulates in the United States and report what changes and additions seem advisable.

Signor Mayor des Planches, the Italian Ambassador, will leave Washington this week for a month's trip through the West as far as San Francisco, and up the coast to Seattle. He expects to stop on his way out at Chicago, Denver, Salt Lake, Helena and other important cities. The Ambassador's trip, as originally mapped out, was curtailed by the necessity of his returning to Washington from the World's Fair dedicatory exercises at St. Louis in April to sign the last of the Venezuelan protocols. Another year, he hopes to spend several months on the same route in further study of the West.

Returning to Washington in October from Weirs, N. H., where he is spending the summer, Baron Von Sternberg, the German Ambassador, will start on an extensive trip of inspection of the Germany consulates in the West, going to Chicago, St. Louis, Denver, San Francisco, Los Angeles and probably Seattle. Since coming to Washington the Ambassador has had occasion to reorganize his entire embassy staff, and in selecting his new secretaries he has done so with a view to the vast amount of commercial work the embassy is called upon to do. As each new secretary has arrived, the Ambassador has sent him off to visit the centers of industry in the East and Middle West before permitting him to take up his duties at the embassy.

While no important changes have been made in either the German or Italian consular services, both ambassadors are determined to make a thorough investigation of conditions in the large cities, and will advise their governments of the character of work their consuls are doing.

Señor Ojeda, the Spanish Minister, will make New York his headquarters for the summer, but will spend most of his time in visits to other large cities to make personal acquaintance with his country's consuls.

M. Jusserand, the French Ambassador, is also staying on this side this summer, to get in touch with American life in all parts of the country, and be able to post his government on commercial as well as diplomatic matters.

MADDEN EXPLAINS HIS LETTER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Postmaster-General Payne was at the department today, but under the orders of his physician he remained only a short time. Accompanied by Mrs. Payne, he will leave here next Friday for the Catskills, to be the guests of Boswell Miller of New York, formerly president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad. Mr. Payne will remain over the Fourth of July, and expects to return to his desk early next week. He had no news to make public today regarding the postal investigation. Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow said today that he could not approximate the date of the completion of the investigation. He is going to Maine to spend part of his vacation fishing, as soon as the investigation is over, but this may not be until late in the summer.

Third Assistant Postmaster-General Madden returned here today from Detroit. He was closeted with Postmaster-General Payne and Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow, with whom he discussed his recently-published letter to the Postmaster-General, calling for an investigation of the contract held by the Manifolding Company of Franklin, Pa.

Mr. Madden explained his letter to the officials. It is understood that he expressed regret at having acted hastily, and repudiated any intention of reflecting on officials of the department in connection with published criticisms of the contract. He had nothing to say for publication.

THREE MORE INDICTMENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The District Attorney this morning said that the grand jury would bring in indictments against August W. Machen and the Groff brothers, in the case of Machen for receiving a bribe and in the case of the Groffs for giving a bribe. These indictments are brought into cover three additional counts and to put the first indictment on the same footing as the second, which latter involved the Lorenzes of Toledo on the charge of conspiracy to defraud.

The indictments were reported at 1:30 o'clock. At the suggestion of Justice Pritchard, presiding over Criminal Court No. 1, the defendants will be arraigned this week.

EVIDENCE AT MILWAUKEE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) June 29.—Evidence bearing upon the postal investigation came to light in the Milwaukee postoffice today. Stored away in one corner of the basement is a big pile of Groff fasteners that were sent to Milwaukee for some unknown reason, and without requisition, about fourteen years ago.

There are two and one-quarter tons of the fasteners in the basement of the Federal building, which will probably never be used, unless they are shipped to Washington. None of them have been used. They came during the early years of the late Postmaster G. W. Porter's term. No one ordered them, so far as it has been possible to ascertain. There was no use for them. There are 1500 sets of fasteners, each set weighing three pounds. The government paid the contract price, $1.25 per set. There is also stored in the basement a lot of galvanized iron mail-boxes that are made in Michigan. They were received above two years ago, without requisition.

RAPID ABSORPTION OF PUBLIC DOMAIN.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE BEHOLDS LANDS DISAPPEARING.

Timber and Stone and Desert Acts Responsible for Gobbling up of Areas that Should Belong to the Homeseeker—Greatest Activity in Oregon, California and Washington.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Tribune's Washington special says:

"The editorial in the Tribune of the 15th inst. on 'Irrigation and Land-grabbing,' stated in its opening sentence that 'The wisdom of President Roosevelt's suggestion in his annual message of last December, that the land laws be amended to preserve the public domain for the use of actual settlers, becomes more and more apparent as we learn the abuses which exist through the failure of Congress to act upon his advice.'

"The absolute truth of this statement is confirmed by the information obtained in an inquiry at the Interior Department, which has to deal with those abuses. The acreage embraced in the desert land entries increased from 17,430,119 acres in 1897 to 32,923,023 acres in 1902. During the same period timber and stone entries increased from 357 in 1897 to 4022 in 1902. The startling character of the information thus disclosed brought a favorable report on the Quarles bill from the Senate Committee on Public Lands, but not until so late a date in the session as to make the passage of the bill impossible.

"Practically none of the land embraced in either classes of entries above mentioned goes to furnish homes for actual settlers, but virtually all finds its way ultimately into the hands of lumber syndicates on the one hand and cattle companies on the other. That rapid absorption of the public domain under the operation of these laws is still going on with increasing, rather than diminishing, speed, is evidenced by the fact that the records of the General Land Office show that during the three quarters ended March 31, 1903, of the current fiscal year, 9889 entries have been made under the Timber and Stone Act, embracing an acreage of 142,901,772 acres, being more than double the entries made and the acreage appropriated during the whole of the last fiscal year under this act, with an entire quarter yet to hear from.

"During the same period the number of desert land entries was 4214, embracing 735,753.66 acres, being nearly 80 per cent. of the entire acreage appropriated during the whole of the last fiscal year. That these laws, the operation of which furnishes such splendid opportunities for a speculator in public lands, will, unless speedily repealed, soon render the President's policy ineffective and remove the last acre of public land beyond the reach of the home-seeker is readily apparent.

"The greatest activity in timber and stone entries exists in the States of Oregon, California and Washington, and acting under the information that large numbers of speculative entries under that act were being made in those States, the Secretary of the Interior, on November 18 last, directed the Commissioner of the General Land Office that, until further ordered by the department, he should suspend action on all entries made under the said act then before his office, or that might thereafter come before it from those States."

FENCING OF PUBLIC LANDS.

SPECIAL AGENT REPORTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Special Agent Hendershot of the General Land Office has made a partial report of his investigation into the fencing of public lands in connection with the Dewey ranch in Northwestern Kansas. The investigation was ordered immediately after the killing of the Berrys by Dewey's cowboys, the tragedy serving to direct attention to the extensive domain enclosed.

Agent Hendershot finds that there are some public lands included in these inclosures, but says it is claimed that there are sufficient gaps in the fences to relieve the owners from the charge of encroachment.

EMPEROR NOT CRITICIZED.

SECRETARY MOODY'S DENIAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Secretary Moody today received telegrams from newspaper editors and others inquiring as to published reports that Emperor William's inspection of the Kearsarge was sharply criticized in the Navy Department and was considered a breach of naval etiquette. In reply, the Secretary sent the following telegram:

"No criticism of the Emperor's inspection of the Kearsarge has been uttered by any responsible person in this department, so far as I can ascertain. I am informed, further, by Admiral Taylor, Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, that the Emperor's inspection is in no way subject to criticism, and can be considered in no light other than courteous attention on the Emperor's part to us. It is a long-established custom for foreign officials to inspect battleships of friendly nations, and is regarded as an honor.

[Signed] "WILLIAM H. MOODY,
Secretary of Navy."

HONORS FOR THE SQUADRON.

ENGLAND AND PORTUGAL NEXT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The State Department has been advised that the governments of England and Portugal are making ready to shower hospitality on the American European squadron. King Edward has arranged to give a grand ball July 8 in honor of President Loubet, and the American naval officers attached to the squadron will be invited to meet the President. On the following day, the King will give the officers a banquet in Buckingham Palace.

The naval end of the reception will make a magnificent marine spectacle, for the vast Channel squadron has been ordered to assemble at Spithead to welcome the America squadron when it comes to Portsmouth from Kiel. It appears that the invitation to the squadron to visit Lisbon was inspired directly by the King of Portugal, so that the reception there will be of the most formal and official character.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Secretary Hay has gone to Newport on a two weeks' visit to his daughter, Mrs. Whitney. Mrs. Hay is about to go to New York to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wadsworth. Books Not Audited.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—From an inquiry recently set on foot by District Commissioner West, it has developed that there has been practically no auditing of the cash books and ledgers in the offices of the Collector, Assessor and the Auditor for the District of Columbia, for a period of five years, although an order to do so was issued several years ago.

Marines Needed at Olongapo.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Rear-Admiral Evans, in a report to the Navy Department, has again called attention to the necessity of maintaining an adequate force of marines at Olongapo in the event of an emergency in China. He regards the internal unrest there with apprehension, and recommends that the force of marines at Olongapo be increased from 1000 to 1500. The Marine Corps is now 500 short of its full quota, and recruiting will be continued on an active scale this summer, in the effort to secure the additional 500 men for dispatch to the Philippines in the autumn.

WESLEY'S BIRTHDAY.

Representatives of Three Branches of Methodist Church Join in Celebrating Two Hundredth Anniversary.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BOSTON (Mass.) June 29.—A two days celebration of the 200th anniversary of the birth of John Wesley by the Methodists of the New England Conference began today. In preparing for the event the conference contemplated to make the matter significant by bringing together representatives of the three branches of the Methodist Church in North America. The efforts of the committee were successful and both Charles H. Fowler, of Buffalo of the North; Bishop Eugene R. Hendrix of Kansas City for the South, and Rev. T. H. Carman from Canada were among the leading speakers.

The general programme of the day included tributes to Wesley from representatives of other denominations at the opening session, and at other meetings addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Carman, Bishop Hendrix, Rev. George Jackson of Edinburgh, Scotland; Rev. W. F. Mallieux, resident bishop of New England, and Bishop Fowler.

ELEVATOR FELL.

With Twenty-three Persons Aboard, Dropped from Fifth Floor to Cellar. All Injured.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PITTSBURGH, June 29.—The breaking of a shaft on the first floor of the H. J. Heinz Company's plant in Allegheny today, released the ropes supporting a long freight elevator on which twenty-three persons were crowded. The cage fell from the fifth floor into the cellar, a distance of forty-five feet, and everyone on the elevator was injured. It is thought at least two will die.

When the accident occurred the elevator evidently was overcrowded. According to Dr. J. S. Phillips, physician at the plant, the antics of two men on the elevator, who were intoxicated, caused the disaster. Dr. Phillips says the two men crowded into the car after being told by the operator to stay off. Once on, they commenced jumping, with the result that the shaft snapped and left the elevator without control.

IRISH LAND BILL.

Making an Easy Passage Through House of Commons — Interesting Amendment Offered by O'Brien.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, June 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The House of Commons today devoted about six hours to the Irish land bill, accepting clauses IV to X with scarcely any alteration. A number of amendments were offered and withdrawn later.

The most interesting amendment was offered by William O'Brien to empower the land commissioners to negotiate with the existing tenants, with a view to securing the return of evicted tenants to their former holdings in case the latter so wished. Chief Irish Secretary Wyndham said he was willing to consider the question seriously at the right stage.

MOUNTAIN SINKS IN.

FRESNO, June 29.—A report was brought to Fresno today of a strange freak of nature that occurred several weeks ago on Los Gatos Creek, in the Coast Range Mountains, sixty-five miles west of this city. Antonia Urrucia, a well-known sheepman, who has a ranch there, states that a large section of a mountain on his place had sunk into the earth, leaving a sheer bluff of at least fifty feet of the rest of the mountain. The creek bank at the same time, he says, was raised eight or nine feet. There is no explanation of the phenomenon.

Urrucia was away several days, and when he returned the section of the mountain had sunk. So far as is known there had been no earthquake in that neighborhood. The mountain is but eight or nine miles south of Fresno Hot Springs, and about thirteen miles from the Coalinga oil region.

Edward Rue yesterday was appointed receiver of the Bass Paint Works at Alburtis, Pa. The liabilities are said to exceed $100,000.

Injunction Against Omaha Boycotters—Union Fishermen Ordered to Strike.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—Officers of the George A. Fuller Construction Company were served with an ultimatum today by the United Board of Building Trades that unless it dismiss all subcontractors engaged in work for them, who are members of the Employers Association and carry out the contracts themselves, their workmen will not be allowed to resume operations tomorrow.

This is in spite of an arbitration agreement signed by the construction company and the unions, which embrace 20,000 men employed by it in the erection of many large buildings in this city.

CHANGE OF FRONT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—At a meeting of the United Board of Building Trades later, a plan of arbitration suggested by Judge McConnell of the Fuller company, it is said, was practically accepted. A few changes of minor importance were made by the board, and these will be submitted to Judge McConnell tomorrow.

WIRE-CUTTING.

DENIAL OF GUILT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The Executive Committee of the Western Conference of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers has issued a statement disclaiming all knowledge of or connection with the telephone wire cutting at San Pablo.

The statement sent out today by the committee to the Coast unions, stated that all the reports being received were that the men on strike were standing everywhere for the adoption of the new wage scale.

WAITERS RESTRAINED.

VICTORY FOR EMPLOYERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OMAHA (Neb.) June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The restraining order against the striking waiters, issued some time ago, was this afternoon converted into a temporary injunction, District Judges Dickinson, Baxter and Day allowing the order, after hearing the case brought by the restaurant keepers. The case was presented to the court principally on affidavits, so far as the evidence was concerned, no additional witnesses being called.

The injunction as finally granted, is a modification in a few unimportant respects of the restraining order. There was no evidence that the strikers had followed men to their homes, and assaulted them; therefore, no injunction was allowed specifically on these points. The waiters are enjoined from maintaining a picket line close to the restaurants, and from threatening or intimidating the employés or the public.

The injunction came as a surprise to the strikers, and is regarded as a distinct victory for the employers. The strikers have got "the worst of it" in the courts, as well as out of them, from the beginning, and are growing discouraged and disheartened. The sympathy of the public has been against them from the outset. The situation in which they find themselves tonight is not an enviable one.

DEWEY CASE.

Sheriff of Cheyenne is First Witness for the Prisoners in the Supreme Court Proceedings.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) June 29.—The first evidence to be submitted to the Supreme Court by Chauncey Dewey, W. J. McBride and Clyde Wilson, charged with the murder of the Berry family, was heard today. Capt. Hamilton, special commissioner of the Supreme Court, is conducting the hearing. Witnesses for the Deweys are here from Western Kansas. They claim they were afraid to testify out there and the case was transferred to Topeka.

Sheriff McCulloch of Cheyenne county was the first witness. McCulloch told about selling the Berry water tank to one of Dewey's cowboys. Birch Berry, McCulloch said, told him (McCulloch) that Dewey might send for the tank. This was to show that the Dewey party had a right on the Berry place.

McCulloch swore that the feeling was strong against the Deweys, and he deemed the presence of the soldiers necessary for the protection of the prisoners from the mob.

On cross-examination McCulloch said that he saw no mob, and that the prisoners were allowed to retain their arms on the trip to Colby, where they met the soldiers.

Asked if he could name a single man who had any desire to hurt the prisoners, he said he could not "by actual observation."

PHOENIX NEWS.

Mexican Girl Fatally Burned—Salt River Valley Users' Association Set Day for Closing Books.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) June 29.—Trinidad Ballesteros a 15-year-old Mexican girl, was fatally burned this evening while cooking the evening meal. Her apron caught fire from the wood stove, she burned her hands trying to put it out, and then ran across the street to neighbors, but the flames were extinguished only when the clothes were burned off her.

The board of governors of the Salt River Valley Users' Association today passed a resolution that the subscription books would be closed July 13 and the case submitted to the Governor. The association is the organization of prospective patrons of the Tonto storage reservoir to be built by the government under the national reclamation act, and guarantees the return of the money to be advanced by the government for the project.

Three-fourths of all the reclaimed land of the valley is signed up and it is believed the greater part of the remaining fourth will come in with a rush now that the date of closing the books is definitely settled.

PORTER BROS. COMPANY.

Chicago End of Business Taken Charge of by E. L. Hasler—Process of Reorganization.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Out of the wreck of the Porter Bros. Company has been evolved a new and independent concern, the E. L. Hasler Company. The new company has taken over only the Chicago business of the delinquent concern. Hasler, whose connection with South Water street has extended over a long time, is the prime mover in the new house, holding $10,000 of the $30,000 paid-up stock, at which it is capitalized. The remainder of the stock is held by Board of Trade men, whose names have not been made public.

Hasler was formerly in the employ of Porter Bros.' Company, and this fact was made the basis of a report that backers of the old concern are behind the new enterprise. This, however, is not true. What Hasler has done in Chicago, other men are doing in other places, where the Porter Bros.' Company had branches, so that the whole business of the house will soon be reorganized as separate concerns, under independent ownership and management.

CROATIAN RIOTS.

Peasants Attack the Troops at Koprients and Are Fired Upon, Several Losing Their Lives.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VIENNA, June 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] One thousand peasants at Koprients, Croatia, where Friday's disturbances took place, on Saturday attacked the troops quartered there. The soldiers fired on the mob, killing five persons and wounding several others. Many persons were arrested and a battalion of infantry has been sent thither. So many arrests have been made at Warasdin, where disturbances also occurred, that the prisons are full and the authorities are using private houses and stables as prisons.

WHITEWASHES THE OFFICIALS.

DENVER, June 29.—A special to the Republican from Santa Fé, N. M., says the report of the committee which has been investigating the charges against the management of the Territorial insane asylum was submitted to the Governor today. It exonerated the officers of the institution from the charges of starving and otherwise cruelly treating the patients, but finds that some of the attendants have been guilty of inflicting unauthorized and unnecessarily severe punishment upon refractory patients.

ARMY OFFICER ACCUSED OF BIGAMY.

INSANITY INDICATED BY STRANGE ACTIONS OF LIEUT. M'CUE.

Absent from Post Without Leave He Marries Viola Simon and Has Card Announcing the Wedding Sent to His Alleged Legitimate Wife.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lieut. William K. McCue disappeared today and his deserted bride of two weeks moured his absence and feared he had committed suicide. The bride was Viola Simon of San Francisco, who married him after a courtship of less than a fortnight. Tonight McCue returned and said he had been at Fort Sheridan. He again denied his first marriage.

Insanity caused by the tropic fevers, which have cost so many American soldiers their reason in the war against the Filipinos, is assigned as the cause of the officer's strange actions. Exposure of his unlawful marriage was brought out by himself when he asked his new father-in-law to send cards announcing the wedding to a woman in Cincinnati, who now claims to be his wife. She has been living there under the name of Ida Westcott, and had corresponded regularly with McCue until 1900.

McCue and his bride arrived here nine days ago. She said today he told her they were going to Fort Porter, N. Y., where his regiment had been assigned to duty.

Today when a message came asking if he were married to Ida Westcott, McCue flourished a pistol and talked of suicide. Then he went out, and did not return for hours.

WHAT MRS. M'CUE SAYS.

CINCINNATI (O.) June 29.—When seen today Mrs. McCue said: "I believe my husband to be insane. His letters have all shown he is unbalanced. Some time ago he wrote me he was examined by a medical board as to his sanity. He did not tell me what the result of that examination was, but I presume he must have been pronounced sane, as he has been assigned to Fort Porter, Buffalo."

Mrs. McCue said she married William McCue four years ago, just as he obtained his bars as first lieutenant. She accompanied him to Cuba, where they spent a year and later, on their return to the United States, they went to Arkansas with the Sixth Infantry, remaining about a year until the Sixth was sent to the Philippines, which prevented her from accompanying him.

ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Lieut. W. K. McCue, First Infantry, who has been absent without leave since June 6, has been located in Chicago. Gen. Chaffee, to whose department McCue was assigned, has been notified and the future disposition of the officer will be in his hands. A telegram has been received from a woman saying she is the wife of McCue and alleging that he has contracted a bigamous marriage.

HEAVY RAINS IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 29.—One of the heaviest rains of the season prevailed here today, and much damage was done to buildings along the water front. Merchants and market men improvised dams to keep the flood out of cellars. Many street car tracks were submerged. In the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn street car traffic for a time was impeded. In one place water was five feet deep. The police were called to protect the few school children that ventured out. Lightning struck Tammany Hall, but the damage to the building was trifling.

MEMORIAL TO BESSEMER.

LONDON, June 29.—An influential meeting took place at the Mansion House today to discuss the erection of a memorial to Sir Henry Bessemer, the English inventor, toward which Andrew Carnegie recently promised to make a substantial subscription. It was resolved that the memorial take the form of completely equipped metallurgical teaching and research works to be erected in London.

HOW THE RUSSIANS HAVE PERSECUTED JEWS.

FORCED INTO CITIES FROM THEIR RURAL HOMES.

Illegal Enforcement of "Temporary Regulations" that Deprived the Unfortunate People of Rights Which Are Now Partially Restored to Them.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The amendment to the temporary regulations of May 5, 1882, permitting Jews to reside and to acquire real estate in 101 additional towns within the pale of Jewish settlement, is thus explained by the Jewish journal Voskhad:

"The temporary regulations which have been in force during the last twenty-one years were hastily issued, and were not brought into conformity with other laws. Their enforcement caused nearly all the Jews living in the rural districts, amounting to about 20 per cent. of the Jewish population in 1882, to be driven into the towns and cities. The pale of the Jewish settlement, previously embracing fifteen provinces, suddenly shrunk to a limited number of towns. The Senate was quickly overwhelmed with appeals against the illegal enforcement of the regulations, and in 1884 was petitioned, though vainly, for their repeal. The number of towns open to Jews has continued constantly to diminish, and the Jews, more and more cooped up, have been hard driven for subsistence. As a result the towns with Jewish population have been officially pronounced breeding places for physical and psychical diseases. The Ministry of the Interior, in view of dangers from this hungry proletariat, has decided to open new places to Jewish settlement. In the list are many former Jewish colonies, which have been within recent years transformed legally into villages and thus withdrawn from the category of permissible places of abode for Jews. In the provinces of Chernigov, Ekaterinoslav and Polyatav the authorities have broken up Jewish colonies which had existed from time immemorial.

"Among many expedients for driving out Jewish settlers under the 'temporary regulations' one of the most successful was to demand written charters from the towns. Those which could not produce a charter were at once pronounced villages. In this way the towns in Polyatav were wiped out of legal existence in 1885, and all the towns of Chernigov suffered the same fate in 1899.

"In other cases old towns decayed or shifted toward newly-built railroads. The Jews, however, were not allowed either in the new towns that grew up in their places, or, in spite of repeated decisions of the Senate, in the new streets of old towns.

"The 'temporary regulations,' it may be briefly stated, forbid Jews to move into cities and towns where they had not been living when the regulations were issued, to remove from one hamlet to another, or to acquire or rent land."

JULY DIVIDENDS.

It is Estimated that Disbursements in New York Will be a Hundred and Thirty-seven Millions.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—The July dividend disbursements at this center will be substantially larger than those at this time a year ago, when the total for leading railroad, industrial and banking corporations was calculated at $125,000,000, but apparently they will not be greatly larger than the total disbursements in January of this year, which were at that time placed at about $122,000,000. Taking the detailed compilations on the two previous occasions, and making allowance for changes in the rate of dividend or in the amount of securities on which dividend or interest are paid, the total of disbursement for the class of companies included in the previous calculations may be estimated with fair accuracy at $137,000,000.

Although there have been hundreds of millions of dollars of new stocks and bonds issued during the past twelve months by railroad and industrial corporations, it happens that nearly all of the large bond issues have interest payable in other months than July, and consequently any such payments are not reflected at the present time.

TRYING TO SAVE KNAPP.

HAMILTON (O.) June 29.—A jury was secured in the Alfred A. Knapp murder trial today, and the opening statements of counsel were made. The attorney for the defense denied that Knapp admits his guilt, which shows that Knapp's confession to the Sheriff and others will be repudiated.

Composition of Reichstag.

BERLIN, June 29.—The two remaining re-ballots on Saturday for members of the Reichstag, resulted in the election of one Richter Radical and one member of the Bavarian Peasants' League. The composition of the new Reichstag is as follows: Clericals, 102; Socialists, 81; Conservatives, 53; Free Conservatives, 19; National Liberals, 51; Richter Radicals, 21; Barth Radicals, 9; South German Radicals, 6; Poles, 16; Alsatians, 9; Anti-Semites, 9; Agrarians and Peasants' League, 7; Hanoverians, 3; Danes, 1; Independent, 11.

Judge Kirkpatrick of Trenton, N. J., yesterday fixed Monday next for hearing the application of William T. Bullitt of Philadelphia to be allowed to interplead in the asphalt receiver suits.

The New York and Chicago Limited, west bound, on the Pennsylvania road, was wrecked near Lucas, O., early yesterday, but no one was injured.

AMMON SENTENCED.

He is to Serve an Indeterminate Term in Penitentiary of Not Less Than Four Years.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—Robert A. Ammon, attorney for William F. Miller of the Franklin syndicate, was today sentenced to an indeterminate term in State prison of not less than four or more than four and a half years. Ammon was convicted of having received stolen money from Miller. The maximum penalty for this offense is five years.

The specific charge on which Ammon was convicted was that he received $30,500 of the money obtained by the Franklin 530 per cent. syndicate. Miller is now serving a ten-year sentence and was the chief witness at the trial. Dist.-Atty. Jerome, it is understood, will take steps to secure a pardon for Miller, who is said to be dying of consumption.

Ammon's attorney moved for a new trial, giving seven reasons for such a motion. He also moved for an arrest of judgment. Both motions were denied by Judge Newburger.

The Sheriff's commitment, on motion of the defendant's counsel, was withheld until tomorrow, to allow an application to a Supreme Court Justice for a certificate of reasonable doubt.

Later Mr. House, Ammon's attorney, applied to Justice Truax of the Supreme Court, for a certificate of reasonable doubt. Justice Truax granted an order returnable July 1.

Dist.-Atty. Jerome is preparing a petition to be sent to the Governor, asking clemency in the case of Miller. The petition will be asked for on the ground that Miller has rendered valuable services to the State in testifying against Ammon, and also that he is very ill.

Steamer Dobrogea Runs Down the Steam Yacht Utowana, With Her Owner, Allison V. Armour, Aboard.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—The American steam yacht Utowana, with Allison V. Armour, her owner, aboard, has arrived here, considerably damaged from a collision in the North Sea, says a Herald dispatch from Kiel. The accident occurred in a fog off Dunkirk. The yacht collided with the steamer Dobrogea, a 3000-ton merchantman. Her bowsprit and flying jib-boom have been carried away, together with a large amount of wire rigging and stays of the first of her three large masts. Her stem is also damaged by the violent tearing out of the powerful bowsprit, the unusual strength of which possibly saved the ship. The lower part of the stem was twisted from the impact. The bowsprit lies hanging from the port side forward, surrounded by masses of twisted steel rigging and stays. Internally the yacht is not damaged.

Double Barreled Shotgun Discharged Into Crowded Trolley Car and Six of the Passengers Severely Wounded.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MEDIA (Pa.) June 29.—Six persons have been shot and severely wounded in a trolley car between Media and Chester. A negro, believed to have been seeking revenge because the conductor of the car recently ejected him, discharged both barrels of a shotgun at the car as it passed a lonely spot in the country.

The car was crowded, and the shot coming from the dark roadside, caused a wild fright among the passengers, most of whom were women. Four of the latter were among the wounded. They received shots about the arms and chest.

The negro fired from a clump of bushes, and in the excitement which ensued made his escape.

THERE'S MYSTERY IN SHAMROCK III.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sir Thomas Lipton entertained a few old friends at luncheon on the Erin this afternoon, and toasts were drunk to the success of the new challenger and her owner, the Irish baronet.

"We have a real wonder in the Shamrock III.," said Sir Thomas, "and Mr. Watson, who designed the Shamrock II., who has been reported erroneously as having a hand in designing my new yacht, said she could not be improved. Something has been discovered in the matter of the design that Mr. Watson says is an innovation in driving a boat to windward; but what it is I myself have been unable to find out. I spoke to Mr. Fife about it. Fife did not explain the innovation to me, but implied that the Shamrock III. was the limit of his abilities. She is far and away the fastest yacht that can be turned out in all Great Britain.

"If I lose, and I cannot believe, from what I have seen of the Shamrock III. that defeat is more than a remote possibility, I will challenge again, if I can get a designer who can evolve a faster yacht than we have here. But whom can I go to? I would give my life to lift that cup, and I intend to do it if it is within the bounds of human possibility.

"I think I have the boat now. I believe your Reliance is considered a wonder over here. It may be possible that Herreshoff has discovered the new factor that Fife has found, and applied in the hull of Shamrock III, but if he has, even his genius can do no more in making the boat travel to windward.

"I have heard on good authority that the Reliance will be the boat selected, but, of course, until the official choice has been made, we cannot make calculations on it. She must be superior to the Columbia from all I have heard on the subject, and I want to see this latest creation of your 'wizard of Bristol.'

"I may challenge again with a schooner if I fail to 'lift' the cup this time; that is, if I can be assured of her being met with a schooner, but of course, I have made no definite plans for such a contingency. Before I left the other side, James Gordon Bennett told me that if I won the cup this time he would be the first to send a challenge to the Royal Ulster Club in an effort to regain it."

GEORGIA LINES DISCUSS RATES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The Central of Georgia and the Atlanta and West Point, Georgia Southern and Florida, and the Georgia and Western and Atlanta railroads have filed answers with the Interstate Commerce Commission to the complaint of the Georgia Peach Growers' Association alleging excessive and discriminating tariffs.

The roads say that the rates to New York and Eastern points are approximately one-third greater per mile than to Ohio River crossings, and say that the peach producers in Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee, Maryland, Delaware and California have to meet the competition of Georgia peaches in both Eastern and Western markets, and the lines between those points have necessarily been compelled to accept exceptionally low rates on this class of traffic in order to enable producers to compete with Georgia producers.

WESTERN PACIFIC'S ARTICLES SENT IN.

[BY THE ASSOCIAT ED PRESS—A.M.]

RENO (Nev.) June 29.—The Western Pacific Construction Company has filed articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State at Carson in the sum of $50,000,000. The State of Nevada received $4000 in fees from the transaction. The amount subscribed to the capital stock is $1,500,000. The object stated is to construct railroads of all descriptions, dams, flumes, mills and to develop mines, erect sawmills and other public enterprises. The principal place of business named is Reno, Nev. The following are named as incorporators: James H. Swift of the Pacific Paving Company; T. N. Harmon, secretray of the Harmon Lumber Company; M. G. Maynard, secretray of the Pacific Paving Company; O. Mc Murray and J. Sadlier. None of the incorporators are known to have affiliations with any railroad.

MARYSVILLE INTERESTED.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MARYSVILLE, June 29.—The operations of the Western Pacific Railway Company in the adjoining counties of Butte and Pluman have been watched with keen interest here. Many rumors have been circulated, one of them being that the proposed route of the new railroad, after leaving Oroville, would intersect the Southern Pacific at or near Biggs, in Butte county, and cross from there to Colusa, leaving Marysville off the line fifteen or twenty miles.

The first purely local move of the new company which has been made public here was the filing today of the incorporation papers in the office of the County Clerk of Yuba county. The papers give information that the capital stock of the company is $50,000,000, divided into 500,000 shares of $100 each, and the amount subscribed is $1,500,000, by the following directors: Henry J. Fortman, J. Daisell Brown, A. C. Rains, F. M. West, James Treadwell, David F. Walker, George A. Batcheider, John Lloyd, C. A. Gray and John Treadwell, $1000 each, and Walter J. Bartnett, $1,490,000.

The proposed route given is the same as heretofore published, extending from San Francisco to Oakland, Stockton, Sacramento, Marysville, Oroville, up the Feather River, through the Sierra Valley to Beckwith Pass and on to Salt Lake City. The length of the main line is given as 810 miles.

GOULD'S MONEY IN IT.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Referring to the incorporation, under the laws of Nevada, of the Western Pacific Construction Company, with a capital stock of $30,000,000, the Bulletin says:

"The purpose of the corporation is to undertake all the construction of the Western Pacific Company, which is projecting the Beckwith Pass transcontinental line to Salt Lake. Today W. J. Barnett, who is attorney for the new road, stated that the construction company was incorporated in Nevada for the reason that Nevada has recently passed corporation laws which are extremely favorable.

"It has been insistently stated that the Gould millions are backing the new road, in order to make transcontinental connection with the Gould lines at Salt Lake, the Denver and Rio Grande being one of the properties. George Gould has been keen to share California traffic with Harriman for some time, and the Western Pacific is believed to be the outcome of this desire.

"Surveyors for the new road are now in camp at various points in California and Nevada, and it is said that the line, after crossing the Beckwith Pass with its 3000-foot elevation, will proceed to a point near Winnemucca in its transit across the Sage Brush State.

"With the newly-incorporated construction company there will be no delay in building a roadbed and laying tracks on the surveys which are proceeding on their way to Salt Lake."

SHORT LINE HITCH.

TRANSFER MAY BE DELAYED.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There is some kind of a hitch in concluding negotiations between the Oregon Short Line and the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake roads; that is, in the negotiations working to the transfer from the former to the latter. The money was to have been paid over in New York one week ago, but, for some unexplained reason, there has been a delay in that important act of the deal. The San Pedro has its time-tables out, and was prepared to commence operations on the newly-purchased portion of the road July 1, but it looks tonight as though that would be impossible now.

General Manager Bancroft is out of the city tonight, and there is no one else that can speak with authority in the matter. Everybody appears to be at sea over the delay. It is hoped that nothing more serious than some minor legal tangle has ensued. The impression that obtains here tonight among the most conservative railroad men is that Harriman is trying to drive some kind of a hard bargain in the final stages of the big transaction for which Senator Clark will not stand. This belief is borne out by the fact that a Short Line representative, who absolutely refused to be quoted direct, stated today that it would not be surprising to him if the transfer was held up for another thirty days.

But important developments are expected during the next twenty-four hours, and the deal may go through as originally contemplated and the formal transfer be made July 1, as provided for in the agreement already signed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.—Official announcement was made by one of the executive officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad today that the latest returns are that the $50,000,000 of new stock had all been taken by the shareholders, and that 90 per cent. of it has been paid up in full.

As the stock was offered at $60 per share, the issue of 1,500,000 shares represents to the company a cash value of $90,000,000, from which must be deducted about $2,500,000 in commissions to the underwriting syndicate. From the proceeds of the new stock issue will also be deducted a temporary loan of $40,000,000, made early in the present year, leaving approximately $37,500,000, as, according to the official statement made today, $31,000,000 of the $90,000,000 has been paid in.

NEW YORK ANNOUNCEMENT.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—It was announced today that $40,000,000 borrowed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company early in the year would be paid off as the notes fell due in the second and third weeks of July.

PITTSBURGH, June 29.—The stockholders of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad met today and increased the capital stock from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000. The action was taken to allow a number of improvements to be made. The directors also met and declared the usual 5 per cent. dividend.

MITCHELL ARRESTED.

He is Friend of Barrington and Police Think He Knows Something of McCann Murder.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) June 29.—Asa B. Mitchell, who claims to be agent for the Spring Water Company, has been arrested on suspicion that he knows something of the McCann murder. Mitchell admitted that he was a personal friend of Barrington, who is under arrest charged with the murder, and that on June 22 he wrote a note to Barrington which read:

"Fred: I am all right; don't send what I asked for."

The note was signed "Jim." This is the note Barrington received and showed to Mrs. McCann to convince her the missing husband was out of trouble.

Sheriff Mencken of St. Louis county, into whose custody Barrington was given after the visit yesterday to the stone quarry, where McCann's body was found, developed two important points. He secured from Barrington the statement that he and McCann were alone in Bonfils on the night of the murder, June 18, when they had trouble and McCann threatened him several times because he interfered between him (McCann) and Mrs. McCann when they had quarrels.

In the second place Sheriff Mencken found out that Barrington spoke German fluently, and with an accent which makes both the Sheriff and others who heard him talk believe that he is a native of Germany and not an Englishman.

CALLS FOR MONEY.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) June 29.—Mrs. Wilhelmina Grace Barrington, who married Barrington in St. Louis some time ago and later brought suit here for divorce, was today granted an order by the local court requiring Barrington to pay $250 into court to pay the costs of the divorce proceedings.

BLOCKED BY CANNON.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An obstacle, likely to prove insurmountable, has suddenly arisen to the enactment of any financial legislation in the Fifty-eighth Congress. This obstacle is the positive declaration of Representative Cannon, next Speaker of the House of Representatives, that neither "rubber" nor an asset currency scheme is needed by the country at large; that financial reform is the demand of Wall street only, and it shall not be considered by the House. Mr. Cannon has not made his declaration lightly, but has repeated it with vehemence on being pressed in a persuasive manner by the leaders of the administration and the Senate. This ultimatum has been made known at the Treasury Department, and its significance is fully appreciated by Secretary Shaw.

Secretary Shaw has heretofore declared that in his opinion some remedial financial legislation was imperative at the next session of Congress. Senator Aldrich, as chairman, and the Republican members of the Senate Committee on Finance have reiterated the same belief, and have already taken steps whereby the measure might be perfected and ready for action immediately on the convening of Congress.

Information from an unimpeachable source is that, after all, these phases of the situation have been laid before Cannon, and his cooperation in the programme has been solicited. He has not only positively refused to cooperate, but has declared that no measure of a financial character shall be allowed to come before the House.

Cannon is president of a national bank at Danville and is familiar with banking and financial affairs in the West. He takes the ground that there is no legitimate demand for more money or for elastic currency, either from the West or the South, but that such a demand only arises from interests represented in Wall street and eastern money centers. For the moment Cannon's declaration has stunned those who are working for reform in monetary laws, and will astound those who have understood that the modified Aldrich bill would be enacted. There has heretofore been no difference of opinion among leading financiers of the country as to the necessity of action by Congress. The President and the members of his administration have emphasized their support of the movement.

There is said to be no question of Mr. Cannon's election as Speaker of the Fifty-eighth Congress. Should the existing rules of the House be continued, enabling Cannon to make good his threat, and a deadlock between the two houses become absolute, it may become necessary to make overtures to Cannon to frame such financial legislation as he may think proper.

To Dismiss Incompetents.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Census Bureau Director North today announced that there would be no extensive dismissals from the present clerical force of the bureau, but that a number of inefficient clerks would be discharged. The present staff will be employed for some time in the tabulation and compilation of the Philippine census.

SPURS TO FORTUNE.

Odd Things that Have Started Some Men Going—The Peculiar Case of the Trolley Motorman.

[New York Sun:] "Some men are spurred to great endeavor by one thing, some by another," said Mr. Gozzleton. "No end of men really owe their success in life to insult or misfortune. A good, hard snubbing has stirred up many a man to a stern resolve to get ahead of the snubber, and many a man in his efforts to retrieve his losses has discovered in himself strength and ability far greater than he had ever dreamed himself possessed of, and gone on to greater success than ever.

"But things much less serious than these things most unlooked for, and trival things, perhaps, may start a man up, as well. I know, for instance, a man, a most prosperous man he is now, in a thriving Western city, who owes his great success in life to being left on a crossing by the moterman of a trolley car.

"He was a man earning fair, living pay, this Western chap, and well enough satisfied with his lot, and if this thing hadn't happened to stir him up I suppose he would be working away for wages still, but when he'd been left behind three days in one week by one particular moterman, who didn't seem to care if anybody liked it or not, but just scooted past and left the people there, why, this young man, to whom the action of the moterman proved a very sharp spur indeed, made up his mind he was going to do something.

"The moterman was a heap bigger than he was, so he couldn't lick him, but what he did make up his mind to do was to buy the railroad, and so get the power to kick this moterman out, figuratively as to the kick, but literally as to the result.

"Nor was this scheme by any means so visionary as it might seem. The stock of this road at that time was selling for nothing, or next to it; the road paid no dividends, and nobody wanted it. There really wasn't a very great amount of money, comparatively speaking, required, and the young man set to work earning it.

"He worked heardер and worked longer than he had ever done before, and his zeal and energy and ability soon got him better and more profitable work to do, so that he began to earn double the money he had been earning; and it wasn't very long before he revelled in the possession of his first hundred shares of the stock of the road whose indifferent moterman had started him up to work for it.

"This moterman, by the way, still on the road, still occasionally gave my friend a chance to wait for the next car, all unknowing, of course, as he shot past him, of what he was doing. And every time that that did happen, of course, the young man's resolve was strengthened, his purpose made firmer than ever.

"And now, omitting the details and coming right down to the facts, in something less than five years he had a majority of the stock of the road, and elected himself its president. That was making pretty quick work of it, you think? Well, I don't know, that's the way fortune comes to people who really work hard enough to deserve it.

"And then, you suppose, he promptly fired the offending moterman? No, he didn't exactly do that; he did put him in the car barn for a while cleaning cars, but before long he let him have his old job back—there was nothing mean or vindictive about the new president—and the moterman didn't run past anybody after that, for he had sense enough to profit by the good, hard jolt he had had in this experience, and in the course of time he went higher on the road, thanks, again, to the man who owed his great good fortune, primarily, to the comparatively trival circumstance of being left behind, by this moterman, on a crossing.

"You say you'd like to know of some thriving Western town like that, where trolley roads could be bought cheap, and where you could go and stand on a crossing and have some moterman run past you and make you so mad you'd go and buy the road, and so forth?

"Well, you might not find any roads just like that around now, in this year 1903, perhaps, but there's just as good other opportunities lying around everywhere, waiting for somebody to grasp them.

"In fact there are, now as ever, more opportunities than seekers; for—to say something of thbse prompted by just plain ambition—many as are those who, by one odd cause and another, great or trifling, are, happy, spurred on to fortune there are many more whom nothing can stir, who are satisfied to plod along just as they are, who will never get out of the same old rut, no matter how hard or in what manner you spur 'em."

SHERIFF WANTS DIAMOND.
[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

VENTURA, June 29.—Harry Diamond is missing and with him has gone a bicycle and the hopes of a confiding public. A blonde widow, young and charming, is said to be mixed up in the disappearance. Diamond is an attractive young chap and during the several months he has put in on a local paper made a good many friends in town. It was noticed of late that he began to spruce up, and then he was seen frequently with the widow. His troublous times date from the meeting with his charmer, apparently, for up to that time his conduct had been all that it should be. A few days ago he purchased a wedding outfit at a store, giving an order on his employer for the payment. Inquiry on the part of the merchant put a stop to the transaction. Then the young man thought that a little jewelry might help out, and he purchased a wedding ring and a watch of a local jeweler. For payment he gave his check for $25. The jeweler inquired at the bank and found no money there to Diamond's credit. Then there was a bit of a hurry and Harry was rounded up and the jewelry forced from him. At this stage Harry went back to his world repentant and ready to be good. He laid his tribulations to the widow, saying someone was trying to force him into a marriage. He did not want to wed, but insisted it was necessary for him to leave town for a time until something or other blew over. The more he thought of his troubles the more desperate he grew, and the badder, for Saturday he went to a bicycle store and purchased on credit a wheel and a sweater, promising to pay for them today. Then he lit out toward Oxnard, where, on Sunday he inquired the way to Los Angeles. The bicycle men got wind of what was going on and put the matter in the hands of the Sheriff, who is armed with a warrant, and after the polished but not overbrilliant Diamond.

They are particularly desirable for making silk shirt waist suits.

Silk Shirt Waist Suits
Prices Greatly Reduced

The busy selling of yesterday has already largely reduced our stock of silk shirt waist suits. As this announcement goes to press we are in doubt as to just how many or what kinds will be entirely sold out. However, you are certain of finding a pleasing style in our stock, and prices have been so greatly marked down as to barely cover the materials. Every suit is beautifully designed in the most recent styles.

SAYS RUSSELL IS PERJURER.

Mother-in-Law Takes Hand in Divorce Suit.

She Swears Out a Complaint Against the Plaintiff.

Smallpox Does not Daunt Scientists—Merchant's Battle With Two Burglars.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN JOSE, June 29.—Mrs. M. A. Spangler today swore to a complaint charging Eugent T. Russell with perjury, in swearing that he had been a resident of California a year, in a complaint for divorce from his wife, Mrs. Laura F. Russell, a daughter of Mrs. Spangler, on Friday last.

Russell is a traveling man, and is not at present in San José. The complaint was sensational from its reference to Clarence Urmy, musician and poet.

SAVED HER LIFE.

MRS. MOLLER'S JUMP.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

OAKLAND, June 29.—Mrs. William Moller, a prominent society woman, narrowly escaped death today. She was being driven in her carriage when the vehicle was run down by an electric car. Mrs. Moller sprang from the carriage just before the crash, and was uninjured. The coachman, Richard Curran, was stunned and bruised. The carriage was wrecked, but the horses were not seriously hurt.

BRAVE MERCHANT.

FOUGHT TWO BURGLARS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CAYUCOS, June 29.—A bold but unsuccessfully attempt to rob the general merchandise store of James Cass & Co. was made last night. In the fight which occurred it is believed that at least one robber was wounded, although he escaped.

After dark a stranger appeared at the residence of Capt. James Cass, president of the mercantile corporation, and stated that Supervisor Emil R. Freeman's binder had broken down; that he was outside and wanted some repairs. Cass was suspicious, but the hour being early, consented to go to the store. First, however, he secured a revolver, which he carried in his hand as he walked to the store with the stranger, a distance of scarcely fifty yards. When they reached the store a second man suddenly appeared. Mr. Cass said: "Hello, Emil; is that you?"

Receiving no reply, he was about to raise his pistol, when the men assaulted him, and they all rolled down the steps to the ground, about five feet, the robbers both being on top of Cass. His arm being free, he pressed the barrel of his pistol against one of the robbers and fired one shot. It is believed that the ball, a 32-caliber, passed entirely through the man's body. The contact was so close that his shirt caught fire, the robber extinguishing the embers with his hand some moments later. One of the men grasped the revolver and wrenched it from Cass's hand, in doing which he lacerated the hand quite severely. The robbers carried the pistol away.

In the scuffle one of the robbers placed his fingers in Cass's mouth as a gag, when Cass bit them very hard. When the man was withdrawing his fingers Cass's lower lip was cut severely and one plate of his artificial teeth drawn out.

CREDITORS' QUANDARY.

CAUGHT IN LEGAL TANGLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The creditors of the Pacific Coast Warehouse Company, which is another name for Eppinger & Co., will tomorrow decide whether they shall go any further in the proceedings in bankruptcy in the United States District Court. The alternative is to bring suits in insolvency in the State courts. A conference of attorneys was held today, but no decision was reached.

The time given to the creditors to file an amended petition in bankruptcy expires tomorrow, and that makes it necessary to either continue the proceedings or to begin in the State courts. The point upon which the question depends is the ability to prove that the Pacific Coast Warehouse Company comes within the terms of the Federal bankruptcy law.

STATE SCHOOL MONEY.

SAN FRANCISCO'S BIG SHARE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—School Census Marshal John Elbert has made a report to Superintendent of Schools Langdon, that there is an increase this year over last in the number of school children between the ages of 5 and 17 years, of 6965.

Approximately, the city receives $8 of State school money for every school census child, so that the increased apportionment of State money for the coming fiscal year will amount to about $80,955. The total number of school-census children is 91,386, and the total, including those under 5 years of age, is 111,190. Of these only 2225 are foreign-born.

MANY IDLE SHIPS.

AWAITING CHARTERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—While the chartering of deep-water ships for carrying the new grain crops has begun, it is progressing slowly, and an unusually large number of vessels of this class are now lying idle in local waters, awaiting charters.

At this time last year the idle tonnage of this class was 13,142 tons. Now it is 81,181 tons, while the amount already chartered—22,099 tons—is practically the same as for the corresponding date of last year, 22,283 tons.

Twenty-six ships, fifteen barks and two steamers are now in the idle fleet. Nearly all of them are British.

STEAMER FROM NOME.

LITTLE TREASURE ABOARD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) June 29.—The steamer Senator arrived in port this morning from Nome, the third vessel out from Bering Sea. The Senator brought $40,000 in gold from the Nome country and several passengers. She arrived at her northern destination June 16, after battling with the ice for more than two weeks, and the ice was so thick in Bering Sea on the way southward that the vessel was delayed fully a day by the floes.

The Lawrence Hotel at Nome, one of the largest hotels in the town, was destroyed by fire just previous to the departure of the Senator, entailing a loss of fully $25,000. Theday previous to the hotel blaze fire was discovered in the big store of the North American Transportation and Trading Company, but was extinguished before much damage had been done.

Several other Nome vessels are expected to arrive in port within the next day or two. The Portland, the first of the larger vessels to sail at the beginning of the season, had reached Nome, and was discharging at the time of the Senator's departure.

JORDAN EXPEDITION

AGAIN STARTS FOR NORTH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORT TOWNSEND (Wash.) June 29.—The United States Fish Commission steamer Albatross, which was recently forced to return from Fort Rupert, Alaska, on her way to the Arctic, owing to the discovery of a case of smallpox in the forecastle, cleared this morning from Diamond Point quarantine station, and will tonight resume her voyage north. The case has been diagnosed as mild varioloid, from which there is but little danger. The patient and a nurse are still at Diamond Point, and both will be forwarded north in a passenger steamer to join the Albatross when recovery is assured.

As neither the officers nor members of the scientific party headed by Dr. David Starr Jordan of Stanford University were ever in contact with the afflicted sailor, they were not subject to fumigation.

APPOINTMENTS MADE.

BANK COMMISSIONERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, June 29.—Gov. Pardee today appointed the following bank commissioners: C. H. Dunsmoore and William H. High of Oakland; Herman Silver and Guy Barham of Los Angeles. Dunsmoore and High will serve four years each, while Silver and Barham will serve two years each. Each commissioner receives a salary of $3600 a year.

Dunsmoore was a bank commissioner from 1890 to 1894, and subsequently served a period of eight years as secretary of the commission. High is a well-known banker of Oakland, and up to his resignation recently was assistant cashier of the Union National Bank, and is a former president of the Oakland Bankers' Association.

Silver is a former superintendent of the United States Mint at Denver, Colo. After coming to California many years ago he became treasurer of the Southern California Railroad, and was a member of the City Council of Los Angeles. Barham is a former police commissioner of Los Angeles.

OSBORNE LOSES HOPE.

BOARD IS FOR DAWSON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, June 29.—The Bee this evening publishes the following account of a secret meeting held in San Francisco, the result of which has not heretofore been published:

"A secret meeting of the trustees of the Home for Feeble Minded Children was held in San Francisco last Friday, and a vote was taken on the choice of superintendent for the ensuing year.

"The president of the board voted for Dr. A. E. Osborne, while Father Lyon, William Thomas and C. E. Haven voted for Dr. Dawson, the incumbent. Rev. Mr. Rader was absent from the meeting. This action is regarded as settling the fate of Dr. Osborne, and he has given up hope of ever returning to the home as superintendent.

DANGER POINT.

COLORADO RIVER REACHES IT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

YUMA (Ariz.) June 29.—The Colorado River has risen to the danger point, the gauge of the government hydrographic office showing 27 feet 10 inches as its maximum stage, within the past three days. Above Yuma but little damage has been reported, and east of the town the levee is yet good for even a greater rise, although the backwater of the Colorado in the channel of the Gila River has attained a width of several miles. Below the city in the Colorado Valley considerable damage has been done in the vicinity of Somerton. At that point several weak sections in the levee have broken out.

The government hydrographer reports that measurements of the volume for the past three days show that 54,000 cubic feet of water is passing to the sea each second. The rise is considerably later in the season than usual, and indicates an unusual snowfall in Colorado and Wyoming.

THE "HERB KING."

CHARGED WITH RAPE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VISALIA, June 29.—Dr. F. N. Martin, who styles himself the "Herb King," is in jail here charged with rape on the person of a young woman who called upon him for professional advice. The doctor is accused of forcing her to yield to his demands. Bail was fixed at $6000.

Martin has been twice on trial for practicing medicine without a license. The jury in both trials disagreed.

All Saloons Must Close.

TACOMA (Wash.) June 29.—Federal District Attorney Boyce of Alaska recently appointed from California, has notified every saloon keeper in Southeastern Alaska that the Federal laws regarding the closing of saloons on Sundays, the selling of liquors to minors and the employment of females about the saloons are hereafter to be absolutely enforced.

Should Have Remained Away.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—E. J. McGriskin, an ex-soldier, who is accused of robbery and forgery, by which he obtained $100 eleven months ago, returned to this city, and was promptly arrested. He is alleged to have stolen a postal money order, to which he forged an indorsement.

Arranging a Compromise.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Judge Sloss today granted a week's delay in the contest for the guardianship of the person and estate of Peter J. Donahue. The attorneys stated that a compromise would probably be effected.

Cause of Wreck Unknown.

SAN RAFAEL, June 29.—The cause of the accident that resulted in the death of Engineer John Williams in the North Shore train wreck at Tocaloma last Wednesday, is still unknown. The Coroner's jury has investigated, and its verdict was today given that "deceased came to his death from injuries received in the overturning of his engine near Tocaloma."

Going to Face Charges.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Col. Robert L. Howze, who has recently been in command of a Porto Rico regiment, arrived here today, en route to the Philippines. Col. Howze is going to the Philippines at his own request, to appear before a court of inquiry, which is to be appointed to investigate certain accusations that have been made against him. No official charges have been preferred against Col. Howze, but he has been accused of causing the death of two Filipino prisoners, who, it is said, he caused to be whipped at the stake so cruelly that they died from their injuries.

Water Company Wins.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—In the United States Circuit Court today Judge Morrow rendered a decision in the suit of the Spring Valley Waterworks against the city and county of San Francisco. The waterworks petitioned the court asking for an injunction against the city and county of San Francisco and the Board of Supervisors to prevent the carrying out of an ordinance fixing the scale of water rates. Judge Morrow, after taking into consideration the evidence which was submitted, granted the temporary injunction.

The chamber passed the first clause of the bill fixing the duty on oxen in the general tariff at f.30 and in the minimum tariff at f.20.

BANK SUBSIDIZED JOURNALISTS.

BERLIN, June 29.—During today's hearing in the trial of the directors of the Pomeranian Bank for fraudulent transactions, involving $400,000, which has kept the Berlin court busy for several weeks past, it developed that the bank advanced to the Society of the Berlin Press $6250, for an indefinite period without security, and without charging the usual interest in order to gain the good will of the journalists. The bank also paid large amounts to individual members of the press, one receiving $2000 a year. The Berlin press is very much agitated over these revelations.

PREPARED FOR POPE'S DEATH.

ROME, June 29.—Although the health of the Pope is much improved, the Italian government, so as to be prepared for any eventuality, has ordered two regiments in the provinces to be kept ready to come to Rome, and reinforce the garrison in the city so that the authorities will have a sufficient force to maintain order and insure the liberty of the conclave, should it be necessary to elect one. If the Cardinals, as after the death of Pius IX, decide to meet at the Vatican, the government will surround the palace with a cordon of troops to prevent any attempt against the freedom of the conclave, and also the removal of valuables from the Vatican during the interregnum, as was customary before 1870.

KING PETER'S TROUBLES.

LONDON, June 29.—The Times correspondent at Belgrade telegraphs that yesterday's sitting, the Skupastina demanded that the new government should present itself to the Chamber, but the government declined to do so on the ground that the ministry was the same as that previously approved by the Skupshtina. The Independent Radicals demand a dissolution, and an immediate general election. The situation, concludes the correspondent, is not clear, and King Peter's troubles have begun.

ELOPED WITH AGED MINISTER.

GUTHRIE (Okla.) June 29.—Rev. O. K. Posey, minister of the Christian church, has eloped with Miss Josie Sheldon, aged 18 years, a member of a prominent family. They were traced to Hollisville, I. T., where they were married, and it is believed they have gone to Canada. Rev. Posey is the father of twelve children.

MRS. EDDY'S FOLLOWERS.

CONCORD (N. H.) June 29.—Christian Scientists to the number of 12,000 assembled here today in response to an invitation from Mrs. Eddy. She spoke to the assembled throng from the balcony of her home, bidding them welcome to Concord, and wishing them a pleasant journey to their homes. As she retired to the house, the visitors sang two hymns composed by Mrs. Eddy, and she appeared at a window and waved her handkerchief in farewell.

TWO MORE MONTHS OF LIFE.

ALBANY (N. Y.) June 29.—Gov. Odell today granted a respite until September 1 to the three Van Wormer brothers, who were sentenced to be electrocuted next week for the murder of their uncle, Peter A. Bollenbeck, at Greenport, Columbia county, in order that he may have more time to consider the appeal for commutation of sentence.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BECOME BUSY.

Free Scholarship Contest Will Begin Tomorrow—Many Rich Prizes at Stake—Excellent Schools for Winners to Attend.

Tomorrow The Times' Scholarship Contest of 1903 will be formally opened. There will be no firing of cannon, flights of rockets or blowing of trumpets to signalize the event. The girls and boys who are going to compete for the prizes will simply proceed to get busy, if they have not already done so.

There are just twenty-six who have given notice of their intention to compete. There probably will be others who will come into the race at the eleventh hour. The more the merrier. It is a free-for-all competition between young folks who are struggling to obtain an education.

Not all of the prospective contestants are personally known to the manager of the contest, but judging by those he has met, and by reports he has heard of the rest, they are a very bright and industrious lot of youngsters, who ought to be encouraged in their ambition and helped to reach their goal, because they are willing to help themselves.

THE LINE-UP.

The line-up as at present constituted is as follows:

BECKINGSALE, Winifred, Box 257, Ontario.
BLACKBURN, Porter, Gardena.
BOWER, Jeanette, No. 105 South Mentor avenue, Pasadena.
BRYAN, Ethel E., No. 489 North Marengo avenue, Pasadena.
BUNNELL, Harry, No. 2005 Magnolia avenue, city.
DARCH, Florence, No. 464 East Thirty-second street, City.
DEHMLOW, Elizabeth, Clearwater.
DEN, Josephine, No. 119B North Olive street, City.
ELLIS, Pearl, Box 326, Whittier.
GORE, Martha M., San Dimas.
GROSS, Amy, No. 770 Wall street, City.
HARNISH, John, No. 1228 West Thirty-ninth street, City.
HIBBARD, Gertrude, Pomona.
LYNN, Inez, Thirty-eighth street and Western avenue.
MARBLE, Blanche, No. 833 South Olive street, City.
MEE, Ethel, No. 122 South Hancock street, City.
PAULL, Cecil, R.F.D., No. 2, Artesia.
PEDELTY, Gertrude, Santa Ana.
PITTS, Georgia A., No. 24 Nordina street, Redlands.
PORTER, Thomas, Box 75, Fullerton.
RANDALL, Bertha M., Norwalk.
SAENZ, M. E., The Palms.
SEDWELL, Richard, Fernando.
ST. CLAIR, Aubrey F., No. 228 South Griffin avenue, City.
WATSON, Vada, No. 925 Birch street, City.
WEBB, George H., Covina.

LATE ADDITIONS.

The names added to the list yesterday were Harry Bunnell of No. 2005 Magnolia avenue, and Miss Gertrude Pedelty of Santa Ana.

Master Bunnell is a bright, energetic lad, who has formed the acquaintance of many of the best families in the city by delivering packages for the big stores. He has proved himself to be a trustworthy, capable business boy, and he wants to get a business education in one of the good business colleges in this city. That is why he has entered the scholarship contest. He has to earn his schooling and he doesn't know a better chance to get a scholarship than the opportunity given him by The Times.

Miss Pedelty of Santa Ana is the only girl from Orange county who has entered the contest thus far, and it is said she bids fair to be as popular a candidate as Miss Rae Price, "The Pride of the Peatlands," who made such a whirlwind campaign in Orange county last year and finished second best in the race, coming within an ace of capturing first honors. Another Orange county candidate is Tom Porter, a Fullerton lad, who is said to have a strong following in the northern part of the county.

Miss Virginia Sherman of Redlands has withdrawn, on account of not being able to devote enough time to the contest to win. This leaves Miss Georgia Pitts alone in possession of the field at Redlands. Doubtless she will get much support that would otherwise have gone to Miss Sherman.

THE PRIZES.

The prizes that the girls and boys who are starting in the scholarship campaign will compete for will include scholarships in the following-named well-known educational institutions of Los Angeles and vicinity, besides others yet to be selected:

Brownsberger Home School of Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting and Business Training.
Los Angeles Business College.
Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Art.
Los Angeles Military Academy.
Los Angeles School of Art and Design.
Long Beach Business College.
Occidental College.
Pomona College.
St. Vincent's College.
Southern California Business College and Graham School of Shorthand.
Throop Polytechnic Institute.
Williams Business College of Pomona.
Woodbury Business College.
Yale School, English and Classical.

There will be at least one scholarship of each of the above schools to be awarded, and arrangements have already been made for a second scholarship in some of them, sufficient to bring the number of scholarships up to twenty to start with, to say nothing of other schools with which negotiations are not yet concluded. The list will be expanded as interest in the contest grows, and competition seems to warrant.

The scholarships will provide six months, or a full school year's tuition in the several institutions, free of cost to the student. The cash value of the scholarships ranges from $50 to $150, and the holders will be entitled to the same benefits and privileges as pupils who pay the corresponding amounts of cash for their tuition.

CASH AWARDS.

In order to make the contest still more attractive, and to give a greater reward to the most successful workers, The Times will supplement the scholarships with cash premiums amounting to no less than $1085. This handsome sum of money will be divided among the "upper ten;" that is, among the ten who make the highest scores during the contest.

The one who makes the highest score of all will have first choice of all the scholarships offered, and receive a bonus of $150 in gold, or may choose the grand capital prize of $250 gold coin, without any scholarship, it being understood, however, that the money is to be used in paying the winner's way through some school or college of his own selection.

The one making the second highest score will have second choice of the prizes; third highest, third choice, and so on to the bottom of the list.

If No. 1 takes the $250 cash, without any scholarship, then No. 2 will get first choice of the scholarships, and receive $150 in cash. If No. 1 takes a scholarship and $150, instead of the all-cash prize of $250, then No. 2 may take the $250, or a scholarship and $125 in cash.

In any event, $150 goes with the first scholarship awarded, $125 with the second, $100 with the third, $100 with the fourth, $90 with the fifth, $80 with the sixth, $70 with the seventh, $60 with the eighth, and $50 with the ninth; these, with the grand capital prize of $250, making ten cash awards in all, and a total of $1085 in gold given to the first ten winners in the contest.

All cannot be among the "upper ten," but all have a chance to be there at the finish. Those who fail to come in for a share of the $1085, are at least sure of winning a good scholarship if they finish anywhere from tenth to twentieth place, and enough scholarships may be added to the list before the contest is ended, to run the list of winners as far down as thirty. Last year some of the tail-enders got the very scholarships they wanted, and could not have been better satisfied in that respect if they had been at the top of the list.

VARIETY AND EXCELLENCE.

The scholarships are of such a variety as to make it possible to please almost every contestant who makes high enough a score, to be entitled to a substantial reward. The schools are all among the best of their several classes, and in most respects cannot be surpassed anywhere for thoroughness in equipment, and methods of instruction.

Most of the institutions named in the scholarship list given above are so well nkown, as not to need any special mention to recommend them to the kind consideration of the contestants and others interested. It is, nevertheless, proposed to set forth their merits from time to time during the progress of the contest. To make an extended notice of all at once in the space daily allotted to the contest would be impossible, so they will be taken up consecutively in alphabetical order, so as not to show any favoritism.

It would be hard to tell where to begin if they were to be taken up in the order of merit, as each has its own peculiar and distinctive merits. Taking them in alphabetical order simplifies matters. Thus the Brownsberger Home School of Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting and Business Training is first to be considered in this series of short talks on schools and scholarships.

"BROWNSBERGER."

The name of this institution tells the story of its mission. It home-like surroundings and appointments well epetitle it to the name of "Home School." The principal, Mrs. Florida Brownsberger, and the associate principal, Miss Berdent Brownsberger, may well feel proud of the institution over which they preside and which they built up from an humble beginning. While its curriculum has heretofore been confined to instruction in bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting and business training, a Classical College Preparatory course has been added to the work of the school. In this department young men and women will be thoroughly equipped for the State University or for life. The head teacher in this department is a graduate of Ann Arbor University, Michigan. Another large class-room has just been completed, and the school owns enough ground to erect all the buildings it may need in the future. The sound of the hammer, plane and saw has hardly ceased for a week at a time since fire a year ago destroyed the main building. During the past year this building has been restored and enlarged, and a commodious bookkeeping hall added. The contract has been let for a large gymnasium, to be equipped in the most approved manner, and a competent gymnast will instruct classes of young men and young women; both will have special hours for instruction and practice.

The enrollment this summer is more than three times what it was a year ago. A scholarship in the Brownsberger School will be a valuable prize. There are already a good many Brownsberger bees buzzing in the bonnets of the contestants.

These short talks on the schools will be continued. Contestants should not fail to read them.

Beginning Wednesday a coupon will be printed in The Times every morning during the continuance of the contest. Each coupon will count one point in favor of the contestant whose name is written upon it when cut out of the paper and handed or sent to the Scholarship Manager.

As heretofore explained, the most points will be allowed for subscriptions to The Times. It is not necessary to repeat the details of the system of credits at this time. Any person desiring to assist any girl or boy to win a scholarship can do so by subscribing for The Times and paying for it in advance. Any old subscriber can help by paying in advance instead of at the end of every month, as customary. Only prepaid subscriptions dating from July 1 will be counted in the scholarship contest.

Subscription blanks and full instructions will be furnished to all contestants on application.

Persons desiring to render voluntary help to some contestant can do so by cutting out the subscription coupon printed below and filling it out as indicated, and forwarding it to The Times-Mirror Company, accompanied by the price of the subscription.

Let everyone do what he can to help some deserving boy or girl to win a scholarship.

OBITUARY.

Cyrus L. Pershing.

POTTSVILLE (Pa.) June 29.—Former Judge Cyrus L. Pershing died today at his residence in this city. He was presiding judge of the Schuylkill County Court during the trial of the members of the notorious Molly Maguires, who were convicted and many executed.

Rev. Nathan G. Parke.

WILKESBARRE (Pa.) June 29.—The Rev. Nathan G. Parke, one of the oldest Presbyterian clergymen in Pennsylvania, is dead at Glen Summit. He had been pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Pittston since 1846. He was born in York county December 16, 1820, and was graduated from Princeton in the class of 1844.

William A. Havemeyer.

CHICAGO, June 29.—William A. Havemeyer, local representative of the American Sugar Refining Company and cousin of H. O. Havemeyer, president of that company, is dead at his home in Riverside, after an illness lasting five months. Mr. Havemeyer was born in New York in 1843, and came to Chicago in 1873. He leaves a widow and four children.

A Nervy Chance.

"Did you ever see a man in a poker game bet every cent he had on three aces? Well, that is what W. S. Carson, superintendent of Missouri Pacific terminals at Kansas City, did last Wednesday. But the stakes were bigger probably than were ever played in a poker game. He bet seven mogul locomotives and his job that the Missouri Pacific bridge wouldn't go out—this in the face of the fact that seventeen bridges across the Kaw had already gone. And he won. Now the Missouri Pacific has the only bridge across the Kaw at that place. When Mr. Carson saw that his company's bridge was likely to go the way the others went he took a desperate chance. He decided to weight the bridge down with mogul locomotives. Seven of them, representing a value of $125,000, were run out on the trembling structure. He knew, as did everybody else, that if the bridge went the engines would go with it, but he took the chance and took it alone, for the city was cut off from communication with the other heads of departments, and there was no one to consult with. Had the bridge and engines gone, his job would have gone, and with it a large share of his reputation as a man of sound judgment. But the plan was a winner, and now his stock is away above par. He is in line for almost anything the company has to give."—[Railway Review.

A "Scab" Warrant.

"Consistency, thou art a jewel," is a remark made by a wise man in the distant past, and its principle has come down through the ages until in the present day it is one of the fundamentals of labor organizations. The strength of unionism depends upon the constant effort to better conditions, and it is gratifying to chronicle the acts of labor unionists who adhere, under any and all circumstances, to their elemental principle. It is recorded that during the progress of a recent strike in this city one of the strikers was guilty of a slight misdemeanor. It was, however, a violation of the law, and offended justice demanded redress. When the awe-inspiring minion of the law approached the striker and read to him the warrant for his apprehension, the laboring man said:

"May I look over that warrant, Mr. Constable?"

It was a small courtesy, and the officer handed the legal paper to his prospective prisoner. After reading it carefully the union man handed it back to the Constable with the remark:

"I regret to say I cannot accept service."

"Indeed," responded the Constable, "may I ask why?"

"Because the warrant does not contain the label of the Typographical Union."

The Constable is doing well under the care of a competent physician.—[Philadelphia Telegraph.

ONE OF THE MANY THOUSAND HOMES WHERE PE-RU-NA IS THE FAMILY MEDICINE.

(Many Women Have Catarrh and Do Not Know It.)

Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.

Mrs. F. Desaulmiers, 341 Dorchester street, Montreal, Canada, writes:

"Peruna is of untold blessing to women. Peruna builds up the entire system and makes you well. I have the greatest faith in it, for I have never yet found it to fail either my family or myself in time of sickness. I have known it to cure cases of chronic catarrh and stomach troubles, of long standing. We do not need a doctor as long as we have Peruna.—Mrs. F. Desaulmiers.

For the most acute cases of dyspepsia and the most chronic and stubborn cases of catarrh of the stomach Peruna is an unfailing cure.

Mr. E. E. Gaston of Milton, Iowa, in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, says:

"My wife has been sick with stomach trouble for almost three years.

"During that time we doctored with three of the best doctors in this part of the country, but they did her no good. She fell off in flesh from 130 pounds to 80 pounds, and was unable to do anything; in fact, was confined to her bed a good part of the time. Everything she ate she would throw up, even water. The last doctor we had examined her and said she had cancer of the stomach, and said he could do her no good except to give her something to relieve the pain, and that he would not advise us to have an operation performed. This coming from one whom I have always had great confidence in, you cannot imagine my feelings and thoughts.

"It was then we decided to quit doctoring and try Peruna, and from the beginning it helped her. She is now able to do all the housework. She is gaining in flesh, and I think will soon be back to her former weight.

"To make a long story short, we owe her life to Peruna, for I am satisfied had we not tried it she would now be in the grave."

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, president of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

BUSINESS.

The local bank clearings yesterday amounted to $841,621.89, as compared with $1,059,713.25 for the corresponding period of last year. Trade is reported only fair. The end of the month and warm weather are held responsible.

The New York stock market closed very active and strong. Reading was leader and advanced 5% on the purchase of enormous blocks. The Pennsylvania subscription operated to the benefit of the money market. Longs sold wheat at Chicago, but prices were kept up well at the close. Corn and oats closed higher except for July oats.

LYNCH LAW.

The following is a report of statements made by James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical Union. It is from a labor-union paper:

"Those well versed in the idea of incorporation and the methods of lawyers and courts well know the menace contained in the suggestion. It would take a trade-union antagonist with money at his command but a short time to wreck a labor organization through judicial procedure. . . . Regardless of the innocence of an incorporated trade union of charges preferred by an antagonist, it would take much money to establish that innocence. It may be said that trade unionists should be willing to contribute liberally for their defense, but it must be remembered that where the dollar is able to contribute one cent the corporation can without strain put up a dollar. We must continue to depend upon public sympathy and public support, and not on courts, the course of which in the past displays corporation and capitalistic sympathy, if not dictation. We should have no hesitancy in upholding our present methods and instead of excusing we should justify them. If we are opposed to trade-union incorporation we should not be afraid to assert that opposition boldly, confident in the belief that our cause is just and that it should not be retarded by legal trickery and judicial subservience. The International Typographical Union has had some rather unpleasant and costly legal experience."

In other words, Mr. Lynch is not willing that the labor unions should be amenable to the law of the land, as are other associations and individuals. Why should the labor unions be forced to continue to depend upon "public sympathy and public support," and not on the courts. The suggestion that the courts of the land are prejudiced or coerced is an insult to the intelligence of the American people.

Mr. Lynch may rely upon it that the organization which he represents, in common with others of the same kind, will have to become amenable to the courts, whether they wish it or not.

THE GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT.

More and more the subject of good roads is engrossing the attention of all classes of people. It is a subject in which all are vitally interested, for the improvement of highways throughout the country will be of general benefit.

As an indication of the progress that is being made in the good roads movement, the action of the recent Republican State Convention in Ohio is of interest. The convention adopted, unanimously, a strong resolution in favor of good roads, incorporating it into the party platform. This is the first time such a stand has been taken by the Republican party in Ohio. It indicates the drift of popular sentiment in favor of the movement. Political action follows, but seldom precedes, public sentiment.

Another indication highly favorable to the good roads movement is the fact that farmers are becoming more generally interested in it, as they are coming to understand that they will be the principal beneficiaries of improved highways. Of particular interest in this connection is a statement recently made by Charles F. Saylor, special agent of the national government for the investigation of the sugar industry. Mr. Saylor, in the prosecution of his work, has traveled extensively through the northern and western States. He says:

"Probably no other subject of interest to the rural population is receiving more attention throughout the nation than that of road improvement. One of the fundamental needs of society is a ready means of communication. The experiment stations of the country are now engaged in experimental work and actual demonstration with a view to stimulating the public mind and promoting the best and cheapest systems of good road building with local material. State Legislatures are enacting better laws, and in some cases the principle of State aid has been adopted. The Federal government has established an Office of Public Road Inquiries in the Department of Agriculture. Literature has been prepared and distributed for the education of the people on this subject.

"There is nothing that will work so effectually for good roads as necessity, the mother of invention. When a beet-sugar factory is established farmers at once discover the necessity of good roads. Agitation begins, public meetings are held, and every public highway becomes the object of solicitous attention. It is found that the farmer requires at least four horses, and must deliver from two and a half to four tons of beets per load if he is to accomplish the best results in the saving of time and expense. Neighbors talk over road improvement and the idea becomes infectious. A public meeting is called, public roads are discussed, and an organization is effected which goes to work for the improvement of the roads. Among the interesting features of my work of promoting the progress of beet-sugar industry, is attendance at these local meetings, at which roads and other subjects pertinent to the needs of these beet-growing districts are considered. Permanent road building is one of the most important matters commonly discussed."

Farmers' meetings of all kinds in various sections of the country, are earnestly discussing the good-roads question. The more this subject is discussed by farmers, the more insistent advocates do they become of State and national aid and coöperation in the improvement of the rural highways.

STATE BANK COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED.

Announcement was made from the State capital, yesterday, that Gov. Pardee has appointed Herman Silver and Guy B. Barham of Los Angeles, and C. H. Dunsmoor and W. H. High of Oakland, as members of the new State Board of Bank Commissioners.

As regards the appointment of Herman Silver, there can be but one opinion. It is a good appointment. Mr. Silver is well qualified for the work before him, and he is sure to fill the position with credit to himself and to the State. Mr. Dunsmoor has been clerk of the board for several years, and is familiar with the work. This, also, is a good appointment. As to the qualifications of Mr. High, The Times is without definite information.

The appointment of Guy B. Barham was made, it is clear, in fulfillment of a political bargain, and not because of any fitness for the position on the part of the appointee. He has no status, in either a social, political, or business sense, to warrant his appointment to the office. He was appointed a member of the former Bank Commission by Gov. Gage solely as a reward for his personal services. He has no claim to recognition on political grounds, for he is not a Republican. It is extremely unfortunate, to say the least, that Gov. Pardee should have seen fit to place in this position of responsibility a man who has no other claim to recognition than that he was a personal satellite of Henry T. Gage, the former Governor. If this appointment was made in compliance with a bargain made by the Governor himself, it is discreditable to him. If it was in pursuance of a bargain made by political managers on his behalf, it is equally discreditable, and the bargain should have been repudiated by the Executive.

Gov. Pardee is pefectly aware of the serious objections to Barham's character, conduct and alliances, and has unqualifiedly admitted as much. With a State full of clean and capable men to select from, he has gone far out of his way to make an offensive appointment—one of the worst he could have made—and has to that extent disappointed thousands of his supporters, who had a right to expect better things from him, after his numerous and profuse protestations, during the campaign, that he meant to select none but good men for office.

Barham's appointment is a blotch.

One of the most extraordinary things about human nature is the manner in which some people lead themselves to believe that they are authorized by their religion to do things that to the average citizen would appear outrageous, not to say horrible. For instance, a recent dispatch from Russia states that in a town in that country a certain society circulated announcements reading as follows: "Brother workers, orthodox or Catholics; Christ has arisen. Let us embrace, kiss, and go and kill the Jews." It is not necessary to comment on this. Poor humanity!

Now that the street-sprinkling contract has been duly disposed of, it is to be hoped that there will be a marked and permanent improvement in that service. There will probably not be much difficulty in securing plenty of competent men to drive the wagons, at $2 per day. As these men will be under the immediate direction and control of the Superintendent of Streets, there appears to be no good reason why the work should not be properly done in all parts of the city.

And still they come. More than 1000 immigrants were landed at Ellis Island on Sunday, mostly from Italy and near-by countries. If the big steamship companies which are bringing hordes of undesirable immigrants to our shores were compelled to return them at their own expense, there would be a great and sudden slump in that kind of immigration.

According to dispatches from St. Petersburg, Russia and Japan have virtually agreed not to go to war over the Manchurian question. The world will breathe easier after this announcement. But how we shall miss those lurid rumors of war between Russia and Japan which have been circulating so regularly for years and years.

Corbett says he is putting in his time developing his hitting powers. In the meantime it might be well for him to practice a few dodges against the possibility of Boilermaker Jeffries having the same old swipe with him that distinguished his former appearances.

Kings have summer palaces to go to when this time of year comes around, but our President simply hikes off to the old roof-tree at Oyster Bay, and sets up executive offices over the village grocery store. And yet we continue to be the greatest nation on earth.

An English officer boasts that his country and ours combined could whip all the rest of the universe. It may be so, but just at this time it is not considered advisable for us to authorize England to bring the matter to a showdown.

The London dispatches say that King Peter's reign is not regarded as being anything but a "stop-gap." It was hardly worth Pete's while to take the job if he's only going to be an old thing like that.

Another candidate for the Servian throne has "hove in sight," in the person of one Eugene Lazarovitch. King Karageorgevitch will do well to see that his bedroom door is securely locked o' nights.

It is being claimed that in making an inspection of the Kearsarge, the Kaiser strained a point in naval ethics. As a general all-around strainer, Wilhelm has few equals and no superiors.

Russia and Japan having patched up their differences, the little yellow man will now continue to sleep with one eye open for bear, as though nothing had happened.

Colorado has also come out for Teddy. The reason some other States haven't come out for him is that they haven't held their conventions yet.

The city's improvement bonds may be considered as good as marketed. Now let work on the improvements begin as soon as practicable.

One session of Congress costs the country a matter of $5,000,000 in money, not to speak of the time it eats up and the profanity it engenders.

The Fourth of July is not due until Saturday, but the faint rumble of its approach can already be heard in the distance.

THE PLAYHOUSES.

BURBANK. For its seventh week's offering the Neill-Morosco company is presenting Paul M. Potter's dramatization of Victor Hugo's great "Notre Dame" at the Burbank Theater.

This is the heaviest piece that this company has presented, and it is staged and put on generally quite creditably, considering the comparatively little time that stock companies have for preparation. The cast calls for thirty-two speaking parts, and besides there are a number of supers and other which further swell the aggregation.

"Notre Dame" is laid, of course, in old Paris, in the year 1482. It deals with the love affairs of a certain gypsy named Esmeralda and a soldier of high birth—Capt. Phoebus de Chateaupers. Capt. Phoebus loves the gypsy girl at first out of mere sport, since he is already betrothed to the daughter of a noble family. His fiancée spies upon him in a secret meeting with Esmeralda, stabs him, and leaves him for dead. He eventually recovers, but the gypsy girl is held for his death, since during convalescence he has been spirited away. By the orders of Claude Frollo, a priest-student in the great cathedral, she is taken within its walls for sanctuary. Here Frollo tries to force his love upon her, but a hunchback servant, Quasimodo, seizes him and throws him over the belfry railing to the pavement, 200 feet below. Afterward, Esmeralda is bound to a stake in a public square, and is burned as a witch, but just as the flames are leaping about her, Phoebus breaks through the circle, and tears her from the torture. She dies in his arms, happy.

There is a good deal of the melodramatic in "Notre Dame," but Lillian Kemble, as Esmeralda, and Thomas Oberle, as Claude Frollo, take their characterizations out of the realm of the melodramatic into the field of substantial legitimate work. Oberle is especially clever in his study of the priest, whose mundane desires burn with an unquenchable fire into his religious soul. Mr. Oberle seems especially adapted to clerical parts, and all those who saw him in "Mrs. Dane's Defense," will doubtless remember his clever work there.

There should have been a great part for Frank McVicars, as the hunchback Quasimodo; but Paul Potter has taken all the kernel out of the role and left nothing but a husk. In Hugo's novel Quasimodo is a tremendous conception.

There is a good deal of the spectacular in "Notre Dame," especially in the second act, a scene in a gypsy courtyard, with half a hundred gaudily-dressed vagabonds singing, carousing and lovemaking in a wild holiday.

ORPHEUM. This week it may be said that the bill is emphatically "Orpheumistic"—good and novel. Last night furnished the usual Monday full-house and the usual hearty enthusiasm. Although most of the numbers were holdovers, the new ones proved above the average.

The cleanest, cleverest bit of work among the new attractions was executed by Schenck Brothers, who call themselves the champion head and hand balancers. Their feats are those of strength and won plaudits well deserved. For difficult balancing on hands and heads of each other, whether on the floor or high in air, these two athletes would be hard to beat.

Saona, the impersonator of great men, is really well worth. His art is finished in detail (the failure of most such impersonators) and the people knew that he knew his business and had put forth every effort to make his presentations historically accurate. His poorest was that of William Jennings Bryan; but, then, the subject was poor. The crowd had so far forgotten the "greatness" of "the boy orator" as to refuse a single clap of applause. Saona's best were all the rest—particularly Grant, Buffalo Bill, Bismarck and the four or five others, including the late lamented McKinley.

The "Four Emperors of Music" are undoubtedly "famous" for their music, which is good and high-class all right enough and met with popular favor, but as for the "comedy" of their mouth stunts—well, the horseplay of the "coon" was good. Their saxophone selections are fine; and they do creditable work on accordions, cornets, mandolins (or cousins to these staid, old instruments.)

Hale and Francis, hoop rollers; Hanlon and Hons, who do horseplay with a huge cow and some "phunny" figgers; Russell and Locke, singers and dancers in "color;" Frank Keenan, in "the Actor and the Count," and Paxton's living art pictures are all kept over from last week.

The orchestral music is especially good.

ANARCHIST LIBRARY.

Columbia College Has Secured Large Collection of Red Literature—It is the Most Complete in the World.

[New York Post:] The story of the successful acquisition at a nominal price of what is believed to be the most complete collection of anarchistic literature in the world was made public today by the library authorities of Columbia University.

Some time ago it came to the attention of Dr. Vladimir G. Sienkhovitch, the university bibliophile, that a French anarchist long resident at London, and of considerable literary ability, had died in the course of the winter, and that his library had passed to administrators who were plainly ignorant of the character or the calling of the man. Dr. Sienkhovitch, however, knew that the dead man had spent the greater part of his life in making an exhaustive collection of all the valuable anarchistic literature extant; he noticed that this collection, which consisted not only of books and pamphlets, but also of posters, periodicals, journals, and broadsides, was turned over by the administrators to the Sothebys, the London book auctioneers, and soon found hidden away in their spring catalogue an item advertising the sale of the entire collection.

This item appeared to have escaped the notice of European librarians, and even those dealers who specialize in the literature of political and social science. Dr. James H. Canfield, appreciating the significance of this "find," at once proceeded to collect funds for the purchase, and was soon able to authorize his deputy to bid £50 on the articles listed. A cable message announced a few days later that the entire collection had been acquired without competition for the ridiculous figure of £20.

The entire collection, in twenty-four large boxes, arrived here in the spring. The work of examination, classification, appraisal, cataloguing, and binding has been going on now for several weeks, but has not yet been completed. Neither the amount nor the pecuniary value of the consignment can as yet be ascertained, but as an indication of the worth of the collection it may be stated that much of this material appears in no existing bibliography, being hitherto unknown; furthermore, its single pamphlets often have been made running into four figures of marks and francs.

Exactly what this mine of information contains can at best be only surmised; graduate students in the School of Political Science will have years of research ahead of them before being able fully to exploit the material at their command. The list includes 252 sets of newspapers and periodicals; nine-tenths of which are absolutely complete; in addition, there are nearly 300 anarchistic pamphlets and books; a collection of 270 leaflet-posters and broadsides, most of which have no duplicates; hundreds of photographs of prominent agitators of all countries; an enormous body of letters, documents, manifestoes, and autograph manuscripts by most of the leading anarchists, from Bakounin, the Russian, down to the present time; and a vast quantity of inflammatory songs and clippings from non-anarchistic publications.

Access could be had to only a small part of the collection, most of it now being in the hands of the binders, but an idea of its scope, magnitude, and importance can be gained from the following specimen items: A death warrant forgery, issuing to the inner circle the assassination of President Sadi Carnot of France six hours before its occurrence; nine manuscript writings by the famous Louise Michel; a warrant issued from a London police court for the apprehension of a desperate foreign incendiary; the school books of Ravachol; announcements of attacks to be directed against nearly all of the crowned heads of Europe, and photographs of Luccheni, who assassinated the Empress of Austria. Another striking exhibit is a batch of scorched papers found on the person of a London anarchist who died while hurling a bomb into a crowded square.

Among the periodicals in the collection are "La Père Peinard," published in Paris by E. Pouget from 1889 to 1896, only two copies being known; "Der Socialist," published in Berlin; "The Alarm," which comes from Chicago; "La Questione Sociale," an Italian paper printed in Paterson, N. J.; "El Porvenir Anarquista," from Barcelona, Spain; "Gazeta Robotnicza," a Polish publication from Chicago; "Volné Listy," a New York anarchistic paper in the Czechish tongue; "Freedom," the great organ of the London agitators; "The Beacon," printed in San Francisco; "La Tempre Nouveau," Prince Kropotkin's paper, and "Caserio," which appears in Buenos Ayres, the capital of the Argentine Republic. Other publications, whose character may be inferred from the felicity of their titles, are "Pensero e Dinamite," "El Despertar," "Le Rothschild," "Freie Gesellschaft," "Ni Dieu ni Maitre," "The Worker's Friend," and "Der Lumpenproletarier." These periodicals are printed in English, German, French, all the Scandinavian languages, new Greek, Italian, Polish, Russian, Slavonic, Czechish, Spanish, Yiddish, and many other dialects and languages.

On the opening of Columbia's one hundred and fiftieth year in the autumn the entire collection will be placed conspicuously on view in the university library. A member of the faculty who has specialized in this field made the following comment on the anarchia:

"The collection has equal interest for students of modern history, of sociology, of penology, and of morbid psychology, and it is unquestionably the most complete of its kind, not only in the United States, but in the world."

Greatest Gold Brick.

The largest and most perfect gold brick to be received at the United States assay office has been deposited at Deadwood, S. D., by the Spearfish Gold Mining and Reduction Company, from the cyanide mill in the limestone belt. It weighs 1175 ounces, and is over 900 fine, being worth approximately $22,000. It is seldom that gold of such fineness is brought to the Deadwood office from plants in the hills, and while the office has received bags weighing about as much, they have not possessed the same value or anywhere near it. The gold is usually associated with silver and copper. The last bar from the Spearfish weighs over 99 pounds, troy weight, is well formed, and the gold is of a particular bright yellow color.

This brick was the result of a fourteen-days' run at the two-hundred-ton cyanide plant of the Spearfish Company on ore that assays from $5 to $7 a ton. At this rate the company is able to clean up over $40,000 a month. The increase in the amount of the clean-up is attributable to greater richness of the ore than formerly, and to the fact that the company is able with experience to get a greater efficiency in the milling facilities.

A gold brick that in fineness is equal to that deposited by the Spearfish Company, has just been brought down by the Deadwood Standard Gold Mining Company. It is worth between $4000 and $5000, but in its perfect proportions and the luster of the metal it is the Spearfish bar reproduced on a small scale. It represents a two-weeks' run at the one-hundred-and-twenty-five-ton-plant, on ore identical in character with the Spearfish ore, the two properties being adjoining.—[Minneapolis Journal.

THE PENITENT.

I come to thee blind, despairing;
I grope where I may not see.
Love, thou worker of miracles,
Open my eyes for me.

I come to thee deaf, unheeding,
Beggard of sound and voice.
Love, thou maker of marvels,
Bid me hear and rejoice.

I come to thee shunned—a leper,
Scorned in the sight of men.
Love, whose pardon is cleansing,
Make thou me clean again.

Love, thou worker of miracles,
Maker of marvels, sweet;
Love, whose pardon is cleansing,
These my tears on thy feet.

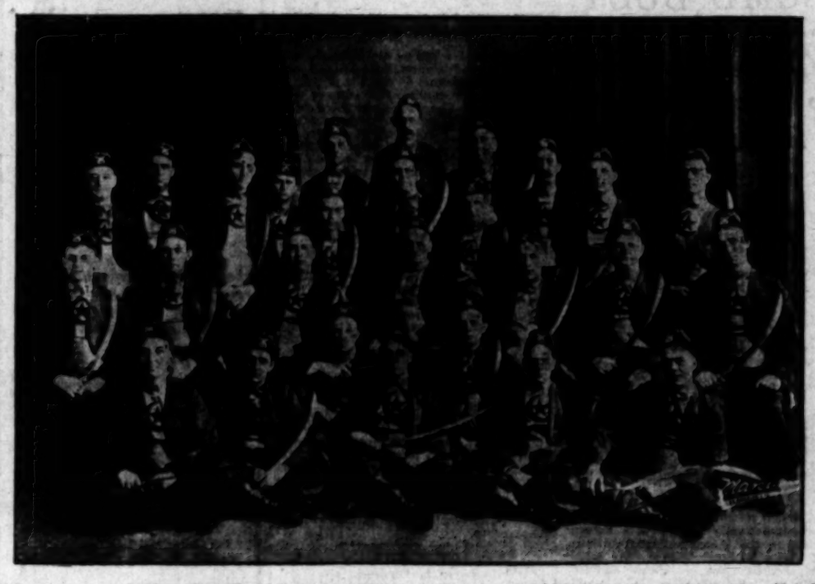
The Fezzed Shriners Drilling at Chutes Park.



Never before in the history of Southern California has a special train left Los Angeles as a unit, and preserved its Angeleño individuality until the convention for which it was destined had been reached. Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock the innovation will be inaugurated, when 100 Shriners will board their beautiful Pullman special at Arcade station, ready for a thirty-day trip to the Imperial Shrine meeting at Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Eight of the very finest Pullmans obtainable, a full vestibule train, with every modern convenience attached, carrying a carload of California's choicest wines and other products for gratuitous distribution in the East for the benefit of the Golden State, not to say a commissary department incomparable, under the charge of Col. Robert Wilkinson, will make the trip. A dynamo baggage car, providing the electricity for lights, and numerous small fans, will be attached immediately behind the big locomotive, and there will be a composite, containing a barber, buffet and library; a diner, an observation car, and three double drawing-room sleepers. All the skill, all the science of twentieth-century railroading have been pressed into service, to give the travelers more than "the comforts of home."

In the party will be Imperial Marshal and Illustrious Potentate Fred A. Hines of Al Malaikah Temple, the full Arab Patrol, delegates to the Imperial Shrine and other Shriners to the number of at least 100.

At noon Wednesday a procession of Shriners will leave Masonic Temple for a triumphal march around town, and to the Arcade station, where an hour later the train will be taken. Formation will street marching to Fifth, to Broadway, to First, to Spring, Fourth, Main, Fifth to the station, the parade will proceed with Illustrious Potentate Fred A. Hines, and the full Arab Patrol of thirty men in the lead. Noble Robert Wankowski in command. The Past Potentates and imperial delegates will follow. A[illegible] band and 200 members of the order will bring up the rear. The patrol will be garbed in its fatigue uniform; the other Shriners will wear the fez, and their business suits.

There will be several side trips taken during the journey. From Los Angeles to Ogden the trip East will be made over the Southern Pacific, going the valley route north. Arrived at Truckee the party will be run to Tahoe and will spend a day there. A special stop at Niagara will be made, and there will be lay-overs in all the big cities, Saratoga being reached July 7.

Among those who will make the trip are the Arab Patrol in full, consisting of the following gentlemen:

Maj. Robert Wankowski, commanding; W. W. Lovett, lieutenant; F. M. Parker, standard bearer; George A. Fitch, J. B. Berner, W. H. Booth, A. W. Murray, A. C. Brode, R. H. Jeffries, W. C. Brode, W. P. Jeffries, Chief Sheik W. H. Harrison, O. C. Muller, S. T. Eldridge, Oscar Lawler, Leo V. Youngworth, H. G. Krohn, O. C. Morgan, G. A. Porter, Jr., G. I. Kyte, W. J. Bleisner, L. J. C. Spruance, A. J. Copp, Jr., W. H. Smith, W. M. Hiatt, A. E. Edwards, H. M. Eichelberger.

Al Malaikah Temple will be represented in the Imperial Council by Noble F. A. Hines, Illustrious Potentate, Noble W. W. Lovett, Assistant Rabban; Nobles Frank X. Pfaffinger and Henry S. Baer. Chief Rabban W. D. Stephens and Noble M. H. Flint were to have gone, but could not get away and their alternates took their places. The following Shriners will be of the party:

Noble F. A. Hines, Potentate; Noble G. F. Herr, Escort; Nobles C. W. Sexton, L. F. Shepherd, E. Dusoe, Bob Wilkinson, R. Fred Vogel, F. C. E. Mattison, W. G. Cochran, L. J. C. Spruance, A. F. Frankenstein, W. H. Harrison, Jules G. Stamm, George A. Fitch and wife, Goldsmith, J. H. Blagge, Capt. W. Scollacott, S. Perrin, I. C. Douglas, W. Llewellyn, A. W. Murray, Oscar C. Morgan, G. F. Kyte, L. V. Youngworth, H. M. Eichelberger, R. H. Jeffries, Maj. Robert Wankowski, G. S. Porter, W. P. Jeffries, W. C. Brode, C. W. Hinchcliffe and wife, J. M. Johnson, Mrs. G. E. Pillsbury, G. W. Sessions, R. Cordell, W. J. Bleisner, C. L. Bagley, W. H. Gerkens, A. G. Slocum, W. W. Lovett, T. T. Loy and wife, G. J. Lang, Frank Pfaffinger, William Hiatt, B. B. Henshey, A. E. Edwards, L. F. Eldridge and wife, R. H. Miller, H. J. Copp, Jr., H. G. Krohn, F. M. Parker and wife, A. B. Hastings, Willis Booth, Oscar C. Mueller, Henry Baer, G. G. Hughes, Thomas Hughes, George W. Haynes, A. Perry and wife, J. S. Fifield and daughter, Ben Virden and wife, Frank Bryson and wife, J. Poundstone, F. Sanborn, F. Hammersworth, Charles Field and niece, C. J. Anderson and wife, Dr. L. More, Miss Blanche Donnell, Miss W. R. Dill, Harry Carr, Mrs. J. W. Drew, Harry Lawler, F. M. Parker, C. W. Christopher, J. B. Berner, A. C. Brode, C. F. Hurd, P. W. Bresee and W. A. Smith.

These men will spend several thousand dollars on their trip, and will afford the city of Los Angeles and Southern California a quantity of advertising that could not be secured in any other way by the expenditure of twice as much money. While in Saratoga they will give a grand reception at the United States Hotel, and the California products that will then be distributed are expected to cause a great deal of comment.

The Arab Patrol of Al Malaikah will drill at Saratoga against all the crack patrols of the East, fifteen or twenty, for a fine prize, to be presented by the Imperial Shrine. The big reception at the United States Hotel will be conducted upon a scale of magnificence that is confidently expected to outshine any other similar event ever undertaken in the East by citizens of California.

Many hard nights of practice have been put in by the patrol at Chutes Park—last night was one of them. Back and forth in the glare of the Chutes electric lights, marching and countermarching, the quiet body of men passed, the Oriental coloring, the Arabian fez, making a picture that imagination might well have labeled Grand Company of Abdul Hamid's janissaries, but for the distinctly American surroundings of a baseball park.

The Arab Patrol has issued invitations for a reception, to be held at Hazard's Pavilion tonight, to which all Shriners and their ladies are invited. No one else will be admitted. The patrol will give two series of evolutions, one in fatigue, the other in fancy dress uniform. There will be vocal and instrumental music, the last by the Shriners' orchestra; also dancing. This will be the Shrine's farewell before the eastern pilgrimage.

"UNWELCOME MRS. HATCH."

Role Taken by Wife of an Unfaithful Waiter.

She Smashes Face of Woman Who Stole Her Husband.

Matrons of the Neighborhood Show Their Colors—Hubby in City Jail.

Avenging herself against the woman who had wronged her, Mrs. F. C. Millhouse, a woman of frail physique and much weakened by harder tasks than she should have been expected to perform, attacked Mrs. Hattie Strong, who lives at No. 105 South Bunker Hill avenue, yesterday afternoon on West First street near Grand avenue, blacked her eyes, tore her clothes and put her in such condition that it may be several days before she will be presentable on the streets.

While the fight was at its height a message was sent to the Police Station and two detectives responded. When they reached the scene it was all over and the Strong woman was suffering from several wounds and bruises. Her assailant was surrounded by matrons from all parts of the neighborhood, and they asserted that the officers should not take Mrs. Millhouse to jail without taking them also, because she was right and they did not propose to see her further persecuted.

It required much diplomacy on the part of Detectives Kelly and Benedict to prevent forcible resistance; but after they assured the other women that they simply desired to take Mrs. Millhouse away so as to allay the excitement the women were appeased and she was taken to the detectives' office. She was not placed under arrest. That was farthest from the intentions of the officers, who openly stated that they sympathized with her. Until Mrs. Strong secures a warrant for her arrest, which is not considered probable, Mrs. Millhouse will not be taken into custody.

The attack was the culmination of domestic troubles of long standing in the Millhouse family. Millhouse is a waiter, and according to his wife's statements, has contributed nothing to the support of his family for months. She has worked over the washtub and ironing board to support him and their children and she asserts she has placed two of their children in the care of others so that they would not bother him.

"I have worked, slaved and even stolen for that man," she said. "He has treated me like a dog. Only a few days ago one of Mrs. Strong's children said to one of my children: 'Your papa does not sleep with your mama any more; he stays at my mama's house.' I knew of his unfaithfulness and accused him of it, and the answer I got was that I did not have any money, but this other woman has coin and therefore he cared more for her than he did for me. It made me almost crazy, and after he was arrested this afternoon on complaint of my sister, I saw Mrs. Strong going to bail him out of jail. I could not control myself and I attacked her and you know the rest."

Mrs. Millhouse had refused to cause the arrest of her husband because she said she still loved him; but her sister, tiring of his alleged abuse of his family, went into the Police Court and swore to a complaint against him for not supporting his family. A warrant was issued and Patrolman Ebert served it, arresting Millhouse in the house of Mrs. Strong. After he was locked up Mrs. Strong started to the Police Station to bail him out. On the way she met Mrs. Millhouse and the scrap followed. Millhouse knows nothing of the trouble between the two women, because he is still in jail. The sister of his wife declares he will stay there if vigorous prosecution will keep him in and she proposes to have him followed up.

ACREAGE PROPERTY IN QUICK DEMAND.

TWO LARGE SALES ARE REPORTED SOUTH OF TOWN.

Prices Aggregate Fifty Thousand and Land Will be Cut up Into Lots—Two Large Sales of City Property, Including an Apartment and Dwelling House.

Strong & Dickinson and associates have purchased of C. D. Denure 100 acres on the Long Beach branch of the Pacific Electric Railroad, about three miles south of the city limits, and just north of the Ramsaur ranch, and extending from Central avenue eastward to Compton avenue, without valuable improvements; consideration named, $18,000. The land was formerly planted in grain, but from its surroundings it is believed to be good alfalfa and berry land. It will be cut up into five and ten-acre lots, and placed upon the market by the firm named.

Another sale of acreage is that shown by the records to have been made by Mrs. Katherine D. Lewis, as administratrix of the estate of Blanton Duncan, deceased, to M. E. Hammond, of part of section 25, in township 3 south, range 14 west, and part of section 30, 2 south, 15 west; consideration named, $30,000. This is part of the Blanton Duncan homestead place, located near Inglewood, about fifteen miles southwest of this city, and comprising about a quarter of the section of land, with substantial improvements.

Ex-Gov. H. H. Markham has purchased of the Barr Realty Company a handsome three-story frame and cement and plaster apartment house, with lot 65x150 feet, on the west side of Coronado street, about 150 feet north of Seventh street; consideration named, $42,000.

Another transfer shown by the records is from A. Rand to Arthur E. Poole of lot 91, Ellis tract; consideration named, $10,000. The lot is 50x180 feet, on the west side of Thompson street, about 433 feet south of Twenty-third street, and is improved with a very substantial two-story frame dwelling.

Bernhart Spoils a Gown.

Edmond Rostan, the dramatist, after his reception among the Immortals of the French Academy, gave a dinner party to a few of his worshipers. Sara Bernhardt sat in the place of honor, attired in a wonderful creation of faintly tinted tulle lace, which had been worn during the ceremony in the afternoon.

At the dessert, when the champagne began to flow, Sara rose, and a hush fell on the company. Taking a goblet of wine in her hand, she raised it to her brow. "Thus do I pour libations after the ancient custom to the divine poet," she cried, and emptied the cup on the crown of her head. She smiled as the wine trickled down her hair and shoulders onto her gossamer robe.

"You dress will be spoiled," the guests exclaimed. "It was intended to be worn but on this day," was Sara's superb reply.

After this it was annoying that the impressiveness of the golden-voiced Sara's action should have been marred, but so it was. M. Rostand's two little sons, aged 6 and 8 years, promptly proceeded to perform religious rites of which the great actress had set an example, and poured libations of champagne diluted with seltzer over their own heads with such enthusiastic lavishness and such disastrous results to their lace collars and jackets that both were soaked with wine and water, and the lads had to be removed and put to bed.—(New York Sun.

About the poorest form of economy possible to practice is the buying of "cheap" brass beds.

Brass... ..beds of exceptional excellence

With us it is a question of merit rather than cheapness. We will handle none that are not perfect in construction and finish. Those having iron foundations with merest touch of brass and poor lacquering are rigidly excluded, no matter how cheaply they are offered to us. Unless you can pay $40, $50, $75, $150 or more for a brass bed it willbe better to buy a good enameled one.

Both kinds are here in varieties unequaled anywhere else in town.

TREATMENT
And Methods of Application
THAT CAN BE DEPENDED ON.

I WAIT FOR MY PAY UNTIL YOU ARE CURED.

Function Decline Termed Weakness by Some

I am positive the treatment I employ in the cure of this derangement is the most rational, direct and absolutely certain whereby functional activity of the parts can be restored to normal. Men suffering from this condition, will find the cause directly traceable to the reproductive system.

Varicocele

Many have treated for this trouble and few have been permanently cured. There's a difference between a partial cure and one that is complete. I cure varicocele in 4 to 6 days, and there is no relapse of the old "weakness" that accompanied the disease. The treatment I offer you is unequaled and the results are absolutely permanent.

Contracted Diseases
Failure to Quickly Cure

There are many reasons why contracted disorders are not cured under the usual plan of treatment. I treat for quick, permanent and lasting results. By my direct method the "exact cause" can be eradicated and a cure effected in less time than is required by some to even subdue the inflammation. My method is the most cleanly that has ever been used, and it is only by such a method that a speedy cure is possible. I often make cures in one week that took almost impossible to accomplish in less than three to four weeks. This is the direct result of the right treatment, correctly applied the right way, which will always bring the desired results.

Stricture

Cured in 10 to 15 days. I have devoted years of hard work on the formation and complete eradication of urethral obstruction. I restore health and tone to the membrane and my "exact cause" treatment removes the necessity of any surgery. Experience with the right treatment will always bring the results.

Not by Mail

Permanent results cannot be had by guessing through the mail. You have tried it and failed. Others have done likewise. Without receiving personal benefit, for which they paid; guesswork is uncertain, unreliable and expensive. When I treat your case it will not be by any such unreliable methods, but by seeing and knowing what to do, and how to do it to obtain the best results.

GOTHIC STRUCTURE FOR CHRIST CHURCH.

VESTRY WILL MEET TO DECIDE ON PLAN AND LOCATION.

The Money is all in Sight and the New Edifice Will Have the Rare Honor of Being "Consecrated" at the First Service.

It has been decided that the new Christ Church will cost about $75,000, will be pure gothic in architecture and that it must seat not less than 1000 people. That is as far as the dominant sentiment in the parish has gone, with reference to the building itself.

The money is all in sight, the building will be completed by next spring, and will be "consecrated" at the first service. That means that every dime of the cost will have been paid before any services are held under its roof.

Long ago Mrs. Bixby, a member of the parish, said she stood ready to give $5000 toward the building of a new church, whenever such a project was undertaken; then there are the Poseys, Herrons, Earls and many others who are not to be outdone. Capt. Hinde of Coronado has set a good pace for outsiders, in his subscription of $3000; so it happens that the money problem is not keeping the vestry of Christ Church lying awake nights to figure out where the cash is coming from.

The finding of a satisfactory location is the most complex problem with which the vestry will have to wrestle. The tacit understanding that the Eighteenth and Figueroa-street site will not be satisfactory remains the same as it is on the extreme south line of the parish, and if another site can be secured at a reasonable figure, neither the one mentioned nor the old one at Pico and Flower will be used for the new building. The latter is centrally located within the limits of the parish, but the annoyance occasioned by the street cars rounding the corner at that point has created serious objection.

There will be a meeting of the vestry today or tomorrow, at which the lot question will be discussed and plans for the church submitted. Among the architects who will submit plans are L. B. Valk, Theodore Eisen, Train & Williams, and probably others.

Microbes in War.

Although certain orientals are a pretty bad lot, and are known in dispatches of old, not as Bulgarian people, but Bulgarian atrocities, we doubt if they have the means, the scientific knowledge, the forethought, or the cowardice to cultivate plague bacilli and infect the cities of Europe whose officials are inimical to the revolution. Revengeful, brutal and fanatical these fellows may be, yet the courage they have shown in fight is the courage of the barbarian—a brute courage, not the malignity of the sneak. If plague does appear in the zone of Bulgarian activity it need not be of necessity attributed to the revolutionists; it can safely be ascribed to the people who die with it, and who take it because they do not live wholesomely and do not wash. Plague, like cholera and other symotic diseases, has its origin in filth, and the cleaner the safer. We have heard little of the ravages of the great contagions since cities introduced sewers and citizens became addicted to laundries and bath tubs became usual appurtenances of homes, hospitals and hotels. The terror that spread through the country when it was reported that smallpox, cholera or any other disease of a communicable character had appeared in one of the centers of population, is now so slight that nobody loses sleep because of it. If the world is no happier than it used to be it is not because it is not safer.

Devices for killing have greatly multiplied within the last dozen years. We have harder-hitting guns, longer-reaching rifles, smokeless powder, explosive bullets, shells of deep penetration, bombs filled with cremicals of terrific energy, and other bombs charged with lethal vapors, boats that come up under warships and plant torpedoes that will tear the ships to pieces, and it cannot be claimed for some of these inventions that they encourage fair and open fighting. The submarine boat skulls like a microbe, the smokeless cartridge kills and does not mark the place from which it was fired; the lyddite shell suffocates more surely than the stink pots of the Chinese pirates; yet of all these contraptions none stand in fear except the soldiers and sailors, who are required to face the cruel conditions of open war.

Fighting with bacilli is the fighting of a sneak, because he attacks not soldiers, but peaceful citizens, the old, the children and the women; he reduces populations and paralyzes industries; he throws thousands upon charity; he causes suffering through illness. War tolerates only such destruction as is necessary to effect its purpose. The war of civilized nations is never waged against the home stayers and the helpless. During our war of the rebellion it was reported here in the North that an attempt had been made to introduce yellow fever in the metropolis. The means were to be quite simple. A southerner was to walk into the Fifth Avenue Hotel carrying a quantity of infected bedding, and he was to take off the clean sheets and pillow cases in various bedrooms and put on dirty ones instead. People wou'd sleep on the unclean linen, catch the fever, and die. It is so usual for strangers to take possession of our hotels and make up the beds that this story had wide credence. We know today that any one can sleep in the bed of a yellow-fever patient and wear his clothing and be exposed to not the slightest risk. It is the mosquito that carries yellow fever—not the clothing.—[Brooklyn Eagle.

Humors of the Flood.

A cow succeeded in reaching the big Melan bridge at Topeka on Friday night. She wandered back and forth disconsolately and occasionally gave voice to a mournful bellow. On Saturday the heart of a young lawyer was touched by the spectacle of such distress. He got a boat and a bale of hay and started to the relief of the animal. On striking the current in one of the streets he was promptly upset and nearly drowned. Not discouraged, he got another bale of hay and another boat and for the second time heroically essayed the passage. This time he succeeded. He carried the bale well up on the bridge, cut the wires, spread out the hay and drove the cow up to it. She gave one sniff and contemptuously walked away. She had been just twelve hours off grass and her paunch was still full. Under the circumstances she might have become induced to eat hay in about a week. The young lawyer now knows more about the wants and the habits of cattle.

The Rev. Mr. Wyman of Topeka was energetic in aiding the flood sufferers. His part was to convey them in a carriage from the bank of the river to the auditorium, where relief quarters had been established. In the course of a day or two his clothing became muddy and sorry looking. On one of his trips he entered the auditorium and approached a fashionable lady of the town who was presiding over the distribution of clothing. She eyed him a little suspiciously and he said apologetically, "I guess you do not know me, Mrs. ——." "Oh, yes I do," responded the good woman severely. "I have outfitted you twice already and I want you to get right out of here."—[Kansas City Journal.

Do You Enjoy What You Eat?

You can eat whatever and whenever you like if you take Kodol. By the use of this remedy disordered digestion and diseased stomachs are so completely restored to health, and the full performance of their functions naturally, that such foods as would tie one into a double-bow-knot are eaten without even a "rumbling" and with a positive pleasure and enjoyment. And what is more—these foods are assimilated and transformed into the kind of nutriment that is appropriated by the blood and tissues.

Kodol is the only digestant or combination of digestants that will digest all classes of food. In addition to this fact, it contains, in assimilative form, the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all disorders arising therefrom.

MINES AND MINING.

WANT CREDITABLE SHOWING OF MINERALS.

COUNTY'S ST. LOUIS FAIR COMMISSION STARTS THE BALL.

Method of Collecting Exhibit to be Decided Upon Thursday—Rates to Mining Congress at Deadwood—Reorganization of Mining District.

Southern California must and will be creditably represented at St. Louis, was the sentiment at the meeting of the Los Angeles County World's Fair Commission held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. This commission, which is composed of A. B. Cass, chairman; G. H. Stewart, N. B. Blackstone, H. S. McKee, J. R. Newberry, W. C. Patterson and J. S. Slauson, listened to the report of State Commissioner Frank Wiggins, who recently returned from St. Louis, and grew enthusiastic in behalf of the coming exhibit.

The commission is anxious that every branch of Southern California's resources be fully represented, and the especial attention be paid to the mineral wealth of this section. It was the sense of the commission that the State Mining Bureau, which is to take charge of the collection of minerals, appoint a representative to gather the mineral, building stones, petroleums and other materials embraced under the head of mining.

Commissioner Wiggins will leave tomorrow evening to attend a meeting of the commission to be held in San Francisco Thursday. At this meeting the method of collecting the mineral exhibit and other features of this display will be decided upon.

On his return, Mr. Wiggins will organize a Southern California World's Fair Commission, which will be composed of representatives of all the southern counties. Yesterday Frank Cuttel of Riverside county, C. E. Rose of Orange and Mr. Edwards of San Bernardino called upon Mr. Wiggins and reported that the work of gathering exhibits for the fair had already been started. They also reported that the interest in the coming fair is more general than ever before.

MINING CONGRESS RATES.

Los Angeles will probably be well represented at the next meeting of the American Mining Congress which convenes at Deadwood, N. D., in September. It is hoped that a delegation of at least twelve will be sent to represent this end of the State.

Secretary Wiggins of the Chamber of Commerce received word yesterday that a special rate of $62, good for sixty days, has been offered by the railroad companies.

WONDERFUL GUSHER NEAR SANTA MARIA.

IT SPOUTS FORTY BARRELS OF OIL A MINUTE.

Final Company Strikes it Rich Near the Careaga Rancho, and Petroleum Shoots Fifty Feet Above the Derrick from Near Hole.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.S.]

SANTA BARBARA, June 29.—Well No. 3 of the Pinal Oil Company, on the Careaga Rancho, in the northern part of the county, came in this morning. It is one of the most remarkable wells yet discovered on the Pacific Coast, the first flow being at the rate of forty barrels a minute, according to the estimates of experts on the ground.

The oil shot fifty feet above the top of the derrick. The depth of the well is about 2000 feet. The drillers have been at work on the well several weeks and expected it to come in for several days past. This afternoon they pumped sand from the well, and a few minutes after drilling was resumed the gusher came in.

A large number of stockholders in the Pinal company and oil experts are present from various parts of the State. The gusher is a short distance from two wells recently brought in by the Pinal company, and near the wells of the Western Union Company, near Santa Maria, the first to be developed in the northern part of Santa Barbara county.

WANT CREDITABLE SHOWING OF MINERALS.

COUNTY'S ST. LOUIS FAIR COMMISSION STARTS THE BALL.

Method of Collecting Exhibit to be Decided Upon Thursday—Rates to Mining Congress at Deadwood—Reorganization of Mining District.

Southern California must and will be creditably represented at St. Louis, was the sentiment at the meeting of the Los Angeles County World's Fair Commission held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. This commission, which is composed of A. B. Cass, chairman; G. H. Stewart, N. B. Blackstone, H. S. McKee, J. R. Newberry, W. C. Patterson and J. S. Slauson, listened to the report of State Commissioner Frank Wiggins, who recently returned from St. Louis, and grew enthusiastic in behalf of the coming exhibit.

The commission is anxious that every branch of Southern California's resources be fully represented, and the especial attention be paid to the mineral wealth of this section. It was the sense of the commission that the State Mining Bureau, which is to take charge of the collection of minerals, appoint a representative to gather the mineral, building stones, petroleums and other materials embraced under the head of mining.

Commissioner Wiggins will leave tomorrow evening to attend a meeting of the commission to be held in San Francisco Thursday. At this meeting the method of collecting the mineral exhibit and other features of this display will be decided upon.

On his return, Mr. Wiggins will organize a Southern California World's Fair Commission, which will be composed of representatives of all the southern counties. Yesterday Frank Cuttel of Riverside county, C. E.

WON AGAINST GERMAN BOATS.

American Men-of-Wars' Men Make Good Showing.

Design Steele Gets Silver Cup From the Emperor.

Three Track Records Broken at Chicago—Walsh Injured. Yachts, Golf, Ball.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

KIEL, June 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The American men-of-war's men won two firsts, a second and a third in today's races against the boats of the German fleet. The American had five boats entered in four events, while the Germans had thirty-seven, and the American crews were not familiar with the course and had not specially trained for the occasion.

More than one hundred sailing launches covered the lower bay this morning, for besides the boats against which the American crews raced, many German boats took part in some other events. The closest contest, and the one which attracted most attention from the Germans, was that between the large launches. Lieut. Austin led after the first quarter of a mile, and gradually increased his lead until, near the finish, he was one-eighth of a mile ahead of the San Francisco's launch. Then what was probably a civilian's yacht, which was coming obliquely, yelled something unintelligible to Lieut. Austin, and a few moments later the stranger's bowsprit ran through the sail of the Kearsarge's launch, tearing away part of it. Before the two boats could be disentangled, the San Francisco's launch passed, and a hundred yards behind her the launch of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. Lieut. Austin and Ensign Steele both outsailed the German boats in turning the mark buoys, gaining several seconds on each turn. The German crews cheered the American winners heartily.

The Emperor presented the prizes to the winners at the yacht club tonight, in the shape of personal gifts to the officers commanding the launches. Ensign Steele received a silver cup.

"I hope you will drink many a bumper out of it," said Emperor William, handing it to him.

Lieut. Austin and Midshipman Rowan, who sailed the Chicago's small cutter, received silver cigarette boxes.

In bidding the Emperor farewell on board the Hohenzollern, Rear-Admiral Cotton, on behalf of the captains and officers of his squadron, said they would carry away with them never-to-be-forgotten memories of the hospitality and courtesy that had been shown them during their stay here. The Emperor replied that the visit had charmed him personally, and he hoped it would be enduring in its impressions on the friendship between the two nations.

Admiral Cotton and the captains of the American warships tonight attended a dinner given by the yacht club in honor of the Emperor, and sat with His Majesty and United States Ambassador Tower in the garden for an hour, witnessing a display of rockets by the combined fleets and the playing of the fleets' searchlights.

The Emperor will leave, on board the Meteor, at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning for a long sail to Eckenford. The Hohenzollern will leave Kiel at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, flying the Emperor's flag, which will be saluted as though the Emperor were aboard. The American squadron will leave at 7 o'clock tomorrow evening.

The Jackies on the Kearsarge tonight gave a minstrel show and boxing exhibition. Twenty men and four officers from each of the German ships were present. It was the first time that many of the German sailors had been boxing.

RECEPTION AND RACES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KIEL (Germany) June 29.—The officers of the United States squadron today received about 1000 guests on board the flagship Kearsarge, principally German naval officers and visiting Americans. There will be a smoker on the Kearsarge tonight. Mr. Tower, the United States Ambassador to Italy, lunched with Emperor William on the Hohenzollern.

The Emperor today again sent to Alden V. Armour to inquire if he would let dock his yacht, which was damaged in a collision with the steamer Saratoga last Friday at the government yard, but Armour declined for the present, as the yacht is not seriously disabled. Armour tomorrow will accompany the Emperor on the latter's yacht Meteor to Eckernforde.

The Emperor was unable to be present at the reception on the Kearsarge, because he engaged long ahead to distribute prizes at a tennis match. The Princess of Pless intended to give a garden party this afternoon and invited the Emperor to be present, but he requested her not to have the party, as he wanted everybody to attend the Kearsarge reception.

The United States cruiser Chicago's small cutter, entered by Midshipman Stephen C. Rowan, today won Princess Henry's prize for warships' cutters, in competition with the cutters of the German ships Freya, Hohenzollern, Hussenich, Ariadne, Glitz and Hagen. The Chicago's small cutter competed in another race and came in second, being beaten by eight lengths by a boat owned by men from the Emperor's flat Hohenzollern.

The sailing launch of the United States cruiser San Francisco, entered by Ensign George W. Steele, won the prize in the race for warships' launches. The launch of the German turret ship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse was second and that of the United States flagship Kearsarge, entered by Lieut. Henry C. Austin, was third.

There were fourteen German entries. Lieut. Austin's boat would have won if an outrider, the Hodrit, had not fouled her when she was in the lead and near the finish. The course was twice around a seven-an-a-half-mile triangle.

The protest entered yesterday by Herr Guilleaume, owner of the Clara, against the British schooner Cicely having awarded the race for her class, because she carried only one anchor, whereas under German rules two are necessary, has been overruled and the prize awarded to the Cicely, which beat the Clara by 3 minutes. The British yachtsmen were angry over the protest, which they regarded as unsportsmanlike.

RELIANCE A DANDY.

FAST HEAVY-WEATHER BOAT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEWPORT (R. I.) June 29.—The new cup yacht Reliance proved today her worth as a heavy-weather boat when she defeated the Columbia and Constitution in stiff easterly breezes and lumpy seas over a thirty-mile course, fifteen miles of which was a beat to windward. The Reliance sailed the course in 4m. 9s. less time than did the Columbia, and 4m. 58s. less than did the Constitution. All the racing in which these boats have participated up to today has been in light airs and smooth water, but this afternoon there was a smashing good whole-sail breeze blowing, and much jump to the water, conditions that are exactly suited to the Columbia. With her owner, E. D. Morgan, at the helm, the old cup defender sailed a grand race, reaching the windward mark only 1m. 56s. astern of the Reliance, and 1m. 31s. ahead of the Constitution. On the run home, however, the Reliance pulled away steadily from both her opponents, while the Constitution gained considerably on the Columbia.

Capt. Barr sailed the new sloop for all there was in her, and gave her rigging and spars a thorough testing. Twice he wore ship when maneuvering for the start, and on each occasion a gust of wind heeled the craft down until the water was nearly up to the hatches.

The course was a beat of fifteen miles and a run to the finish. When the starting gun was fired at 12:15 o'clock, the Constitution was first over the line, the Reliance second, and the Columbia last. The official starting times were: Constitution, 12:15:20; Reliance, 12:15:24; Columbia, 12:15:26.

The Reliance went right ahead, and, although the Columbia had the right of way, Capt. Barr luffed his boat out across her bows and planted the Reliance to the windward of the older boat. It appeared as though the Columbia had been obliged to bear away a little in order to avoid a collision, but no protest flag was shown. The Constitution had held on her course, and at 12:20 o'clock all three boats were standing for Breton's Reef lightship on the starboard tack. Lee rails were well awash, and the yachts sent showers of spray flying from under their bows, as they drove into the chop.

The Reliance plainly outfooted and outpointed the Columbia while the latter was getting away from the Constitution. The new boat acted well in the choppy seas. The three big sloops drove along at a great speed until 1:25. Then the Reliance having worked her way out across the bow of the Columbia, tacked to starboard, and with the Columbia out ahead, but to leeward, steered up into the mouth of the Seakonnel River to take advantage of the smooth water and favorable tide. The Constitution trailed the other two, half a mile astern. By this time the windward mark was in sight. All three went tearing for the mark and rounded as follows:

Reliance, 2:09:35.
Columbia, 2:10:21.
Constitution, 2:12:02.

The run home showed that though the Columbia was a very fast craft down the wind, the Reliance is even better in conditions like today, for the latter gained steadily on both her rivals while the Belmont boat picked up some seconds on the Columbia.

Official summary:

Boats.	Start.	Finish.	Elapsed Time.
Reliance	12:15:24	3:25:17	3:09:53
Columbia	12:15:26	3:29:28	3:14:02
Constitution	12:15:20	3:30:11	3:14:51

MAGNATE AT TACOMA.

NO SMASH-UP OF LEAGUE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TACOMA (Wash.) June 29.—The Pacific National League will not drop Los Angeles and San Francisco. All rumors to this effect were set at rest today when representatives of all eight clubs gathered at the Hotel Tacoma, going into executive session at 2 o'clock, continuing until 6 o'clock, when adjournment was taken until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

A new schedule will be arranged covering the balance of the season, whereby the Los Angeles and San Francisco clubs, which are now in the North, will take a second tour of the northern cities before going home. After making the tour of the northern cities, the California clubs will return home and open first with Seattle and Spokane.

The Portland club was the subject of a great deal of discussion, but no action was taken concerning it. The other clubs do not favor retaining that city, if Salt Lake is able to make a satisfactory showing. No discord was apparent at the meeting, all agreeing that they would fight it out in California. There is no indication tonight of any inclination to drop the Helena club.

CORBETT AND JEFFRIES.

BUSY WITH THEIR TRAINING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Corbett went through his regular gymnasium and boxing work today, and seemed in good spirits. He could not improve in sparring, as he is quick as a cat on his feet, and can hit even clever and shifty Sam Berger where he pleases. As for Yank Kenney, who resembles Jeffries in his movements, Corbett makes a monkey of him with the gloves. The only thing that Kenney can do well is to wrestle, but Corbett is too quick for him at this exercise. Several experts who have seen Corbett at work on the rings and other gym. apparatus, declare he will get no good out of the exercise, as it will strain and stiffen him without giving him any strength, because he is too old to begin all-round gym work. Corbett, however, thinks it is giving him strength, and insists on keeping it up.

Champion Jeffries is still out in the hills near Harbin Springs, and is said to be rapidly reducing flesh, as it is excessively hot in Lake county this season, with little rain. Fitzsimmons is still here, and says there is no rush about going to Harbin Springs, as Jeffries will not begin active work until after the Fourth of July.

TONIGHT'S FIGHT.

YANGER CLAIMS HE'LL WIN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Bennie Yanger and Eddie Hanlon are both in perfect condition for the fight tomorrow night. The injury to Yanger's eye has entirely disappeared, and should not some unforeseen accident happen, the little Italian will enter the ring in perfect shape. When asked how long he expected the fight to go, Bennie said: "I never attempt to say just how long it will take me to beat a man; but I will win. It may take the whole twenty rounds. I will not be in any rush about it, as they say this fellow is dangerous. I will wear him down, though, and do it in a sure-footed manner."

Hanlon is equally confident, and says he will win, sure. Yanger is half an inch shorter than the local boy, but outmeasures him on almost every other point.

In the betting, Hanlon still rules favorite, at odds of 10 to 8, but some of his backers took 10 to 6 in their anxiety to get some money. Indications point to even-money betting by tomorrow. Eddie Smith of the Reliance Athletic Club, Oakland, will referee the battle.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Sixteen-year-old Eddie Walsh, favorite jockey of Horseman W. E. Daly, has been thrown from a racehorse which he was exercising near Sheepshead Bay, and sustained concussion of the brain.

The animal had been frightened by the sudden passing of a motor cycle, and when it shied and plunged, Walsh, who was sitting carelessly upon the saddle, was hurled over the horse's head. His head struck a telegraph pole, and had he not put out his hands to save himself he might have been killed.

MILE WAGON RECORDS BROKEN.

LOU DILLON'S GREAT FEAT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CLEVELAND (O.) June 29.—Lou Dillon this afternoon broke all records for a mile to wagon for trotters, going the distance in 2:04¾. The race was at a matinée of the Gentlemen's Driving Club at Glenville track. The horse was driven by her owner, C. K. G. Billings.

The race was made with the encouragement of a runner, which went ahead about five lengths, and which maintained that position until the three-quarters pole. The mare had been going like a veteran all the distance. At the three-quarters pole, the runner was pulled to allow Lou Dillon to come up alongside. The stretch was entered at great speed. The mile was made in 2:04¾, the horse finishing strong, and seemingly ready to cover the distance a second time.

The new record beats that made by the same horse two weeks ago, 2:06¼. The fractional time was 0:31¾, 1:03¼, 1:34, 2:04¾.

NEW TRACK RECORDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

Semper Vivum in the last race reduced the track record for seven and a half furlongs from 1:33 2-5 to 1:33. Summary:

Open Golf Championship.

Doings of the Boxers.

Butte is getting to be a great fighting town. Tonight Tommy Ryan is billed to pick off another mark—one Willie, a middleweight. Friday Joe Walcott has agreed to do 142 pounds for Mose La Fontise—ought to win at that, and Saturday Joe Gans is slated to box Buddy King, who should be to the negro lightweight champ as a fat chicken to Hank Griffin. Not many towns would stand for so much boxing in a week.

Jack Root and George Gardner are to meet in a highly-interesting contest Saturday. Few can pick the winner. Both are good men, well matched—they may go the distance. They box "clean break."

Notwithstanding the report from Corbett's that plenty of 10-to-8 Hanlon money could be had, a Spring-street bookmaker was unable to place $2000 at that price yesterday.

The Indian Joe Gregg-Queenan mill in the Northwest was a rainy night, open-air farce of the wildest sort.

Billy Roche of New York wants to put Willie Lewis against Aurelio Herrera in Butte, 12S at 3, for a big side bet. Bishop won't bet a cent on his man, depend on it.

Hanlon and Yanger meet in San Francisco Thursday night. Yanger is better than Young Corbett was when he met Hanlon, and little Eddie will have the battle of his life in beating the little Italian; there is no excuse for 10 to 8 on the San Franciscan other than Native Son friendship—a poor betting argument.

Dr. George S. Hikox of Salt Lake, chief of the inspector's force of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry west of the Missouri River, is taking vigorous measures to stamp out sheep scab, which is alarmingly prevalent in various parts of Wyoming

SACRAMENTO COMES NEXT.

Mique Fisher Expects to Win All Seven Games.

One of the Most Important Series in Whole Baseball Season.

Game Warden Arrests Illegal Dove Shooter—Pasadena Man's Auto Trip.

While at the opening of the present baseball season not many figured Mique Fisher and his band of Blues as probable contenders for the pennant, the steady upward rush of the Senatorial aggregation has been such a factor in California baseball that the Sacramento men, and not the Harrisites, are now the team the Looloos will have to beat. Just what the magnetic influence of the aforesaid Fisher may be ascribed to is truly hard to say; certainly his team is not awed by its fat, toupeed boss. Neither can it be greatly in love with Mique either, though they do say in Sacramento that the fans would go through fire to help him out of the mire of small attendance. Nor can experience be charged with the effect for until last year the name of Michael Angelo Fisher was not emblazoned on the book of baseball fame. Neither as a player nor as a magnate had Fisher become notorious until he ousted one Beebe from the Sacramento franchise, but since that time he appears to be a major part of the Coast League; all the small boys follow him when he strikes town, to acclaim in awe-struck tones: "That's Fisher—see his toupee—he's the Sacramento baseball manager with the trunkful of injunctions and the grasshopper trap for jumping ball-players."

At the present hour Mique and his braves are in town for the manifest purpose of beating the Looloos the necessary six games out of the seven billed, which would put Sacramento in the league lead. Two games are scheduled for July 4, one in the morning at 10:30, the other in the afternoon. Game will be called at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Fisher last night sent the following advance notice of his coming:

"Am on Morley's trail; will be there Tuesday with bells on. It's a shame to tell what I'll do with that bunch of his. I won't sell out for five games out of the six; that'll just tie us and I'm going to take the lead this week. Tell the fans to get their mourning out and buy crape for the pitchers because there won't be any Los Angeles team when I get through this week; they'll all have jumped into the Pacific League.

"MIQUE."

Fisher's luck with young pitchers has been a feature of the present season. Not a college amateur does Mique try but he makes good with a rush—beats all the Newtons, Corbetts, and Jay Hughes in the league and generally wallows in glory. Mique must either live in a hotbed of good pitchers—they do say its hot in Sacramento—or else he must be a good judge of twirlers in the bud. Mique himself admits he is a pretty fair baseball general, even sans toupee. Fitzgerald, Thomas, Cutter, Young and Brown were as green as Gardena grass in midwinter when Fisher fled a location on them; but not a one failed to deliver the goods from the start and at least two are stars of the first magnitude.

Even the usual run of baseball hard luck seems unable to keep the Senators decently near earth. Here in one week Hildebrand, McLaughlin, Doyle, Graham, Sheehan, Casey and Townsend are crippled and all ought to be out of the game. Is Mique against a hard proposition that week? No. His team, though patched manages to wallop the Oaklands or the Portlands with tiresome regularity and the next week or so the entire bunch, lusty as young colts, is ready to give the Looloos the fight of their lives. If it ever came to a show-down, Mique would go in and pitch himself, or perhaps umpire, rather than lose a game. He has promised to pitch a part of one game this week if the crowd desires him to do so. One fan especially desires to see him play third base. They say Fisher used to be a star there.

Without exception the Morleyite team is in first-class shape to render a good account of itself this week. The series is one of the most important that will be played this year; it is a case of baseball to the finish. A little hard luck, a pitcher or two gone wrong, may change the entire complexion of Coast baseball in the next six days. With Corbett, Newton, Hall, Drinkwater and Gray in good order, a compact, complete infield, and three outer gardeners sound in wind, eye and limb, the Looloos ought to win a majority, notwithstanding the uncalled for slump of last week against the Harrisites.

The crowds did not roast Rube Levy as much as usual last week and it is a good thing, for as The Times has said before, there is an army of worse umpires in the baseball business than Rube Levy, Esq. Not that Rube is another Silk O'Laughlin, or a Joe Cantillon, but if some of those who bumped him so hard occasionally would stand where he does and call a few over and away from a dusty plate, or would try to say when, and when not a first baseman touches the bag ahead of a runner on a close play there would be less said. In the East it has been found that no one man can call strikes and make base decisions unerringly in the same game; the double umpire system has been forced into working and this year has been a great success wherever tried.

Minor Baseball Game.

Sunday the M. A. Newmarks beat the Haas, Baruchs 19 to 4, and the losers got only 3 hits off Pitcher Schrider. Schrider and Barris for the winners; Clarke, Steadman and Black for the losers were the batteries.

The Eighteenth streets beat the St. Mary's at Washington and Main streets 16 to 7. Battery for winners, F. Cullens and F. Fichthaler.

THEATRICAL BALL.

THIS ONE ON THE DIAMOND.

Satisfied with their last venture of the sort the Orpheum and Burbank Theater employés, together with some of the talent performing at each house, have decided to play another game Friday afternoon at Prager Park. Play will be called at 2:30, and some ball player who is not working Friday can communicate with the management at either theater profitably to himself, as no umpire has been elected as yet, and both participants think one might be needed during the course of the game. As judging amateur ball is not entirely an unmixed pleasure the professional fraternity are not likely to all speak at once.

VIOLATED LAW.

MORGAN GETS A SHOOTER.

A. L. Paget wanted some doves Sunday, and made the mistake of going out toward Monrovia to get them; he also made the mistake of going hunting in the closed season. One of Game Warden Morgan's deputies, M. T. Tungat of Monrovia, arrested Paget with the goods on him, and haled him before the oracle who presides over the doings of the blind goddess at that burg, one J. B. Holloway. It being Sunday, the J.P. dug up an antediluvian statute, and refused to hold the man over the Sabbath, so Morgan, after obtaining his name from the deputy, arrested him in this city yesterday, took him before Justice Pierce, and the culprit pleaded guilty. He will come up for sentence this morning.

There was no excuse for any man's shooting doves before July 1, as the law is explicit enough. After that date there are some of the Southern California counties where the birds can be killed, but Los Angeles is not one of them. Morgan means to deal as severely as possible with all violators of the State law, not only on doves, but on all other game.

LONG AUTO TRIP.

PASADENA MAN'S VENTURE.

L. L. Whitman of Pasadena expects to begin tomorrow the longest automobile trip that was ever undertaken by a Southern Californian—the trip to New York. He will leave at noon for San Pedro, and there will put his machine on the boat for San Francisco, starting across country next Monday. Whitman will be accompanied by E. J. Hammond of Pasadena, and will make the trip in his new Oldsmobile—not a touring-car, but an ordinary stock runabout. Mr. Whitman means to follow the railroad to Ogden, thence proceeding east through Cheyenne and Omaha. Just how long the trip will take he cannot say, but he means to go through as rapidly as is consistent with the condition of the roads and the stability of the machine.

DEER IN PARK.

ELK WILL HAVE COMPANY.

Those elk that are to be put into Griffith Park will not be lonely, for there are already six California deer in the preserve that will no doubt do the honors and trot the newcomers around to the choicest browsing and coolest springs. For a place so near town the park is alive with game—quail and doves being very plenty on the river side of the Los Feliz hills. Mexican woodchoppers report encountering the deer frequently. The only fear is that they will wander out of the preserve some day after the open season, and be shot by those who are understood to have designs upon their lives.

SUMMER BOWLING.

TUXEDOS BEAT LA FIESTAS.

In a series of three rather easy games, the Tuxedos beat the La Fiesta Foresters in last night's bowling on the Monarch alleys, winning the third match of the summer tournament now in progress at that resort by 2433 pins to 2122. The Coliseums and Monarchs will roll a match tonight. Last night's scores:

Where is Harry Hewes?

The friends of Harry Hewes, proprietor of the Park View Hotel at Ballarat, are alarmed and are making inquiry for him in Los Angeles. Several of them state in a letter to The Times that he left Ballarat two weeks ago, intending to return the 19th inst., but is still absent and has not been heard from. He is said to be well known in this city.

Fruits in Season.

Donations are always thankfully received at the Chamber of Commerce, but more than the usual cordial welcome was accorded an excellent exhibit of ripe apricots sent in yesterday by Sam Gilmore from his ranch at Burbank. Mr. Bennett of the same place has on exhibit the finest plums that have been received this year, and the Pomona Chamber of Commerce has added a sample of what that district can do in the line of apricot culture.

Looted by Burglars.

During the absence of the members of the family Sunday evening, the residence of George Buck, No. 262½ West Pico street, was entered by burglars and a thorough search made for valuables. Closets were emptied, dresser drawers were overturned and even carpets were torn from the floors. The thieves secured a gold watch and several other articles of jewelry, and from the room of Miss Jeanette Richie $22.25. The residence of Ellis Cohn, No. 321 Georgia street, was entered by burglars yesterday afternoon while the members of the family were away from home and two gold watches and a small sum of money were stolen.

Farewell Dinner.

W. B. Cline, president of the Los Angeles Lighting Company, last night tendered a farewell dinner to S. W. Garrettson, the retiring general superintendent of the company, at the California Club. An excellent dinner was served, and at its conclusion a series of impromptu talks were given, the entire affair being informal. Those who feasted were: W. B. Cline, S. W. Garretson, W. H. Burns, R. M. Adams, W. H. Van Dyke, O. W. Childs, Judge W. A. Cheney, Frank J. Thomas, James W. Warren, M. Rice, C. A. Luckenbach, T. P. McCrae, H. L. Flash, H. M. Corlette, R. McKay, E. R. Northmore and W. J. Dorr.

Many Wheels Stolen.

Between 9 and 11 o'clock last night the police were notified of the theft of eight bicycles in various parts of the city, the circumstances being such that the officers believe the thieving was done by one man or an organized gang, and that a systematic raid is being made upon the bicycles, left unlocked on the streets. The bicycles are probably shipped to some other point and there sold. Nearly all the wheels reported stolen are new and only in a few cases were the owners able to give the officers the numbers. Before midnight three more bicycles were reported stolen. It has been a long time since there was any such general raid upon bicycles, the last being when an Oakland man stole wheels by wholesale and shipped them to San Francisco for sale. He is now serving ten years in San Quentin penitentiary.

CANNERIES A-WHIZZING.

Early Start and Rush of All Small Fruits.

Buyers Declare There Will be a Glut of Apricots.

Can Makers' Strike Making Trouble for Northern Packers—Prices Current.

"Bosh, bosh, bosh—that's what it is," ejaculated the proprietor of a large fruit cannery in East Los Angeles yesterday, speaking of children and the cry that is sometimes raised against the work they do here during the fruit season in canneries and drying establishments. Hundreds of tons of fruit waste every year because there are not enough children to help care for it.

"Why," continued the speaker, "it doesn't hurt children a bit to work in a cannery. It keeps them off the street during the summer vacation and does them good. They earn quite a lot of money. Lots of little tots make as much as a dollar a day. Of course, they don't loaf—nobody is paid to loaf. But the work is not confining; whenever a kid gets tired, he can easily lay off for a while, but you won't see him bumming around much, for he is as eager as anybody to keep the money rolling in. All canneries and driers are well ventilated, and on hot days a cooler place with plenty of fresh fruits could not be found."

The local canneries were a-whizzing yesterday. A week ago the managers thought that, if work could be begun by the Fourth of July, they would be fortunate. Then came the warm weather with its rich ripening power, and lo! the canneries hereabouts are now agoing full blast.

There are four big canneries in Los Angeles, to say nothing of several more dignified preserving concerns. The canneries handle pie and table fruits, while jams, jellies, marmalades and preserves are put on the market by the other establishments.

Thousands of boxes of blackberries are now being canned; also loganberries, while apricots from local sources are beginning to come in by the wagonload. The fruit is all of very fine quality. There is a good crop of blackberries this season, and just at this time the canneries are very busy with them.

These canneries are filled with a host of pretty girls, who, with their sleeves rolled high, peel, cut and pack the fruit with the deftness of experts.

In one of the East Side canneries yesterday there was one little tot of a blue-eyed girl with long golden hair who kept everybody laughing by her rendition of a strange limerick, in the following words:

"A canner, exceedingly canny,
One morning remarked to his granny:
"If a canner can can
All the cans that he can,
A canner can't can a can, can he?"

Within a few weeks the peach season will be on, and then the canneries and dry yards will be pushed to their fullest capacity. Some local buyers have gone to Hanford for thir clings.

"I want to complain," said a cannery man yesterday, "because all the fruit growers hereabouts have a false idea about the supply of apricots. Through various sources they have been led to believe that there is a tremendous shortage in crop, and consequently they are holding off for too high prices. Why, up around Lankershim, alone, there are enough apricots to supply every cannery in Los Angeles and Pasadena, and lots of peaches are going to go to waste. Of course, I would like to see every fruit grower realize $20 a ton for his fruit, but I believe that many ranchers are making a mistake in holding off, when they can get good prices."

About $16 is the price paid for apricots per ton now. Two or three weeks ago the price was $15.

With September begins the canning of tomatoes. Prices on new-pack tomatoes have not yet been made.

As to prices for 1903 pack of canned fruits the schedule was but lately announced. It will interest everybody. Reliable information is to the effect that sales from first hands (canneries) have been very heavy, with black cherries practically exhausted in the North, while pie gallon apricots will probably be short on account of the canmakers' strike, and advances in prices are likely. In carload lots at primary points the new quotations are as follows per dozen cans:

PLEASING READING.

First Local Appearance of Miss Thew With Dramatic Selections, Assisted by Los Angeles Singers and Orchestra.

Miss Bessie Belle Thew, a dramatic reader who recently came to Southern California from Grand Rapids, Mich., made her first appearance in this city last evening in the First Congregational Church and presented a programme of unusual excellence. She was assisted by Miss Zada Taylor, contralto; Elliot Beamer, basso; Miss Bertha Morris, accompanist, and the First Congregational Church Orchestra.

Miss Thew's chief charm lies in her natural manner, although the deep-cadenced tones, in which there was not a note of harshness, were very restful in this day and generation of voices pitched in high C. Her voice is at its best in narrative, and "The Rescue of Lygia," the great Arena scene from "Quo Vadis," was the gem of the evening. The recitative, "My Ain Countrie," for which Paul Brown played a low violin accompaniment, met with instant approval from the audience, and was a selection in which Miss Thew was entirely at home. Her work in every instance was letter perfect, and there was much to praise, while the fault of too rapid utterance and consequent slurring that was noticeable in some parts of the house was due to the poor acoustic properties of the room, and prevented satisfactory results from the efforts of the others.

Miss Taylor's vocal work was a delight, and so was also Elliot Beamer's bass solo, and each responded to demands for encores from the audience. The careful work of the orchestra is well known to music lovers of Los Angeles, and needs no praise here. The programme was concluded by electrical club swinging that was unique, and in which Miss Thew appeared to graceful advantage as mistress of the rather dangerous-looking fire balls that she whirled so fearlessly in the darkness.

The programme as a whole was very satisfactory, and was as follows: Selection from "The Runaway Girl," First Congregational Orchestra; reading, scene from "School for Scandal;" recitative, "My Ain Countrie," violin accompaniment; contralto solo, "Sunset," Miss Zada Taylor; reading, "The Rescue of Lygia," from Quo Vadis; "A Day in Venice," orchestra; reading, character sketches, "The Village Seamstress;" "The Bear Story;" overture, "Rising Star;" bass solo, "A Rose in Heaven," Elliott Beamer; electrical club swinging, Miss Thew.

WARM WEATHER SUITS POPE.

ROME, June 29.—This being St. Peter's Day, the Pope celebrated mass in the private chapel adjoining his bedroom, in the presence of his chamberlain and members of the pontiff's family. The temperature is 93 Fahr., but the Pope does not suffer, saying that the warm weather suits him.

BRIDESMAIDS' DEPOSITIONS.

Society's Flutter Over Gay Divorce Sensation.

Beautiful Girl's Husband is Accused of Cruelty.

Made One of Her Friends Cook Chocolate Creams at Unearthly Hour.

Beautiful Mrs. Lucille Daniels-Gay has given a sort of encore to her fashionable wedding by having her bridesmaids testify in her divorce proceedings now pending.

Out of the gallantry of his heart, the aged millionaire, John Gay, invited the bridal party to testify in his favor and against his beautiful young wife, but they turned the tables on him.

The deposition taking is now going on, to the intense sensation of society folk; for, although the Gays went to San Diego to live, all the witnesses, nearly, live in this city, where Miss Daniels was one of the belles.

"Bridesmaids' Day" in the deposition taking has just passed. Miss Kate Landt, Miss Genevieve Smith and other well-known society girls were solmnly summoned to be present in the office of Gay's lawyer, O. A. Trippet, Esq., and they went in a flutter of excitement.

ROSHING THE BLACKBERRY GROWLER IN THE STETSON CANNERY YESTERDAY.

The contrariness of sweet femininity was shown, for they were called to give depositions against Mrs. Gay and told such a story about the old millionaire's cruelty to her that Attorney Trippet has never called them back to sign their depositions.

The young wife charges Gay, you know, with cruelty of a very aggravated sort; and he charges her back with various unpleasant things; it's not a nice case in any way.

Miss Smith, it seemed, when the depositions came to be taken, had a wee bit of a grievance against Gay, herself.

All the bridesmaids had been invited down to San Diego to visit Mrs. Gay in her new life. One day they had driven out to Point Loma—curiously enough escorted by the gallant Lawyer Trippet.

When they came back they were very tired—oh, so tired!

The elderly Mr. Gay, who hadn't been along, proposed a game of whist when they came home that night. The girls gave one deep agonized groan—inwardly, of course. Outwardly they were delighted at the prospect. Mrs. Gay had given them one glance of appeal, as much as to beseech them to play if they loved her.

So they played. About 11:30, when they were getting ready to drop out of their seats from fatigue, Mr. Gay began to feel frolicsome and suggested that they should make candy. He wanted chocolate creams.

One of Miss Smith's most delightful accomplishments is the manufacture of chocolate creams of the texture that dreams are made of. She yielded to another glance of appeal from Mrs. Gay and wearily set to work to have a real jolly time mixing candy into the small hours of the night.

The chocolate creams were ready for the Gay palate at 1:20 a. m., and the young women almost had to be carried off to bed.

This testimony didn't look very bright for Attorney Trippet's side of the case; in his legal desperation he clean forgot where he had been that afternoon.

"Might not it have been your previous company that made you tired, instead of the tasks imposed by Mr. Gay?" Attorney Trippet asked, feverishly.

From the witness stand Miss Smith gave him a chilly stare. "I really can't say, Mr. Trippet; perhaps so; I remember that you spent the afternoon with us."

"Say, that's pretty rough on me," said Trippet, suddenly, forgetting all about his legal desperation. "Say, that was pretty rough."

To which Miss Smith rejoined: "Not so rough, Mr. Trippet, as your forgetting that you spent the day with us."

The Gay divorce suit will be tried in the near future in San Diego; in the meantime, Mrs. Gay is in Los Angeles, the center of interested attention.

Not long ago Mrs. Gay offered to go back to her husband on certain conditions, one of which was that he should allow her to go to bed as early as she pleased.

The deposition taking is not over yet, and other bridesmaids and society chums are to be summoned to testify.

WILL GO TO THE FIREWORKS IN SUITABLE STATE.

Now that This Feature of the Fourth is Arranged, the Eagle Will Proceed to Scream and the Band Will Play Yankee Doodle.

The committee will ride in chaises, The public may walk if it plaises.

In order to help out the street-car companies, in their stupendous task of handling a Fourth of July crowd, the committee last night decided upon hiring eleven carriages for the use of the ten members of the committee and the Mayor. There was great solicitude on the part of some of the committee for fear the members would not be able to reach Agricultural Park for the fireworks display, or to get back home after it was over, so they decided upon the eleven carriages, the bill for which is to be sent to the treasurer of the general fund.

When you get pinched up in two inches of space in the corner of a car with some inconsiderate bum standing on your toes, just feel thankful, and remember that if it had not been for the hiring of the eleven carriages, you might not have been able to get in your feet to be stood upon.

The fireworks display is to be a real old-fashioned stunner, and the man who has the contract has promised to show his jealous competitors what he can do. He has contracted to give a continuous display for as long a time as the people will want it, for the sum of $1000. It includes bombardments, and cannonades, and flower-pots, and bouquets, and a number of made pieces, among them George Washington with motto, the whole piece to be 20x25, and Niagara Falls, 100 feet long. There are to be a number of other large and attractive pieces. The display is scheduled to begin at about 7:30, in front of the grand stand; but it will be far enough out in the field so that everybody may see from almost anywhere.

AFTERNOON MEETING.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, a great patriotic meeting will be held in Hazard's Pavilion, for which an entertaining programme has been arranged by the subcommittee having that part in charge.

Fred M. Smith, chairman of the general committee, will act as president of the day, and as such will make the opening address. The orators are Lamar Harris, Esq., a young attorney of the city, and Rev. Dr. John L. Pitner, who saw service in the Civil War, and is one of the best-known patriotic orators in Southern California.

The music will be by the Los Angeles Military Band, and Prof. Chick will sing two solos. The last thing on the programme will be the singing of "America" by the audience, under the leadership of Prof. Chick, accompanied by the band.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Friends of Clifford N. Hand, Educational Director at the Y.M.C.A., Will Give Him a Final Send-off.

Tonight a farewell reception will be given at the Y.M.C.A. in honor of Clifford N. Hand, whose work in the association night school has been satisfactory, but who has resigned to become a temporary pastor at Oakland, while pursuing his theological studies. P. R. M. Bloomer, who is acting secretary during the absence of General Secretary Cleaver in the East, has arranged an attractive programme. The association orchestra and glee club will furnish the music, and speeches will be made by Oscar B. Smith, president of the Debating Club; John Ratherford of the Pi Alpha Lambda, Robert Harwood of the Congregational Society of Christian Endeavor, Charles Stanton of the Knights of Purity, Walter E. Connell of New York, and William Lusk, representing the old members.

A general invitation is extended to those who wish to bid Mr. Hand farewell, and ladies are especially invited. Refreshments will be served.

FOR FLOOD SUFFERERS.

Merchants Here Asked to Aid Kansas City Retailers Who Suffered from Water—Contributions Voted.

A communication was received by the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association yesterday from the Merchants' Mutual Association of Kansas City, Kan., containing a copy of resolutions passed by that body relative to the retail merchants of Armourdale, a part of Kansas City, 500 in number, who met such great loss in the recent floods that swept that town. In the appeal which the resolution contains a contribution of $1 each is asked from merchants here to aid the sufferers.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association held yesterday afternoon, resolutions were passed indorsing the appeal from the Armourdale merchants and requesting each member of the association to contribute $1. Contributions may be left at the rooms of the association in the Wilcox building.

Would Consider the Other Place.

In a small Missouri town there lives a good deacon who, despite his harsh, hoarse voice, always joins vociferously in the singing at church. In the same town is a little boy who has become the proud possessor of a gorgeous string of profanity, which he is very fond of displaying. His mother, finding her arguments had no appreciable effect in expurgating from the youthful vocabulary the objectionable words, sent him to the deacon, in whom she has all confidence, to see if the latter could not put a stop to the swearing habit. That dignitary pictured to the boy the beauties of heaven in vivid language, and then told him that those who take the Lord's name in vain can never enter there. The boy pondered a moment.

"What do folks do in heaven, deacon?" he asked.

"Oh, play harps and sing."

"Are you going there to play harps and sing when you die, deacon?"

"I hope so, son," replied the deacon, modestly.

"Then what's —— like?" asked the boy earnestly, after some thought.—[Kansas City Journal.

"DOBE" SALOON STILL DOBING.

No Attention Paid to that License Revocation.

Evil Doings in Other Joints in the Neighborhood.

Violations of Sunday-Closing Law and of "Box" Ordinance by Saloonists.

The old query, "does prohibition prohibit?" has grown moth-eaten and may now give place in Los Angeles to the more modern query, "When does revocation revoke?" The license of the Adobe saloon at the northwest corner of Bellevue avenue and San Fernando street, conducted by Marchesi & Ferruchia, was revoked a week ago; but no evidence is visible that the order of revocation has been heeded, as the saloon and "Grande Giuochi di Boccie" are open, as if nothing had happened, and probably as much liquor was sold last Sunday as on any previous Sunday. Last night the saloon was doing a good business. Just why this state of affairs exists is not clear.

There are other dives in the vicinity that are as bad violators of the law in many respects as the Adobe saloon, and should get a shake-up.

One of the toughest of these is in the building at No. 611 Buena Vista street, bearing the sign of "San Gottardo House, G. Degiorgis," a low, one-story building, in which a typical Italian restaurant with thin drinks and cigars is supposed to be doing business. In the front room are three long tables, back of which is the kitchen, and at the side of the latter, in what might be called a "hole in the wall," is one of the rankest bar-rooms in the city. Sunday is the best day of the week at the "San Gottardo," as then it is filled pretty well with drunken Italians and Mexicans, who have no trouble in getting any kind of liquor they are pleased to call for; and when they become too noisy, why, there is a roomy back yard to which they are assisted, and here many a "scrap" is scrapped, and many a "jag" slept off. In the extreme rear of the lot is perhaps one of the filthiest outhouses in the city, which should receive the attention of the health authorities. At times the resort is filled with drunken peons, and amid it all a woman and little girl, presumably the wife and daughter of the proprietor, are assisting in waiting on the tables or tending the bar as the case may be.

At No. 679 San Fernando street is the "Progress" saloon, conducted by A. Ferrario, while adjoining and forming part thereof is the "Giuochi di Boccie," which, it may be explained, is a crude establishment for bowling, but in the game, instead of balls placed against pins, the balls, made of round stones, are rolled toward a "dog" set at the further end of the alleys. This exciting game brings a large attendance, especially on Sunday, and to the uninitiated, it would seem that it was all the men were there for; but men get dry, and while the bar of the saloon is closed to all comers on Sunday, by going to the back door and passing through the living rooms one may be ushered into a middle room, where all he has to do is to "name his poison," and two bartenders are there to bring it, while the waiting customer sits on a cold cook stove and drinks it. Nor is this all. A convenient entrance to the yard exists at the rear of the lot, where the Mexican and colored prostitutes merrily "rush the can" to and from the place without limit. In this atmosphere, also, children are being brought up.

But the saloons of Sonoratown are not the only violators of the city ordinances. Not so very long ago the City Council in a spasm of virtue passed an ordinance prohibiting the maintaining of boxes and back rooms in saloons, and for a time the ordinance was quite generally regarded; but either the authorities have grown lax, or the saloonists bolder, for back rooms where women of evil character can sojourn with their "pick ups" and enact the usual bunco games are nearly as numerous as of yore. Among the worst of these places may be mentioned the saloon at the northeast corner of Third and Los Angeles streets, which has very convenient back rooms with a handy entrance from Third street, which is frequented without stint by the loose characters from the rooming-houses in that vicinity, and forms a convenient route for luring their chance acquaintances to their rooms. Another place of like character is the Capital saloon at the southwest corner of Third and Main streets, with a side entrance on Third street.

One of the quietest places of this character is the Eureka saloon at No. 244 South Main street, with an entrance to the back rooms through the hallway of the Eureka House at No. 242½. Paul Kerkow's saloon on South Spring street is of a similar nature as to the Eureka, with an entrance to the back rooms at the side of the saloon.

The Unique saloon, at the northwest corner of Los Angeles and Second streets, has a small, but cosy "retreat" for the use of the "ladies" in that vicinity, with an entrance on the former street.

Perhaps the most respectable appearing and best patronized place for the "fair sex" in the city is the side room of the Oak saloon, No. 252 New High street, where women may be seen going in and out at nearly all hours of the day and night.

The Golden Eagle saloon at No. 229 North Main street still keeps up its reputation for being one of the most notorious hang-outs for women of the street. The entrance to the back rooms is through an alley at the side of the saloon proper.

COLORADAN DIES HERE.

Joseph W. Anderson, a Wholesale Grocer of Pueblo, Colo., Passes Away from Dropsy Surrounded by Relatives.

Joseph W. Anderson of Pueblo, Colo., died at the California Hospital Sunday, after having been in the city for two weeks. He came here to visit relatives, among whom is a brother, Horace P. Anderson, but he was taken ill immediately thereafter, and his complaint developed into an aggravated case of dropsy.

Mr. Anderson was a prominent wholesale grocerman of Colorado. At the bedside at the time of death were his wife and daughter and sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Anderson, and his brother, Horace P. Anderson, and wife. Deceased, who was 62 years of age, was born in Clay county, Mo. The body will be shipped to Pueblo for interment.

AT THE CITY HALL.

DRUG CONTRACT GOES TO OFF & VAUGHN.

BATTLE OF THE MEDICINE MEN ENDS AT LAST.

Stormy Debate Over the Specifications and Alleged Sayings of the Supply Committee—Sun Company Saves Its Deposit by a Very Narrow Margin.

Councilman Davenport had to swallow a very bitter pill yesterday when the Council awarded the drug contract to Off & Vaughn. Davenport was very angry about it. He got so hot during the discussion that he was speechless for a full minute.

But it didn't do a bit of good. Off & Vaughn not only got the contract, but the Sun Drug Company came near losing its $100 certified check as a forfeit.

President Frank C. Wolfe alleged that after the bids were rejected the second time a member of the Supply Committee told him that the contract was to be awarded in a lump to the bidder who was low on the greatest number of items. Therefore the Sun Drug Company prepared a bid which was low on 930 out of 1129 items. On these items the company was often 500 per cent. lower than Off & Vaughn, but they were invariably drugs little used by the city. On a few items, covering drugs used in quantities by the city, the Sun company was as much as 200 per cent. higher than Off & Vaughn.

The latter company was able to show that on the goods actually purchased by the city their bid was by far the lowest.

Wolfe, however, addressed the Council at length, urging the rejection of all bids because of the assurance that the contract would go to the bidder lowest on the greatest number of items.

Finally Todd got mad. He rose in his seat, and pointing one finger at Wolfe, told him he knew he was not telling the truth when he said the Supply Committee said any such thing. For an instant all was commotion. Todd, Wolfe, and two or three other Councilmen all tried to talk at the same time, and President Bowen pounded vainly for order.

Wolfe was finally allowed to say that he did not mean to include Todd in his remarks.

"I'm your huckleberry," declared Summerland. "I did say that the contract would be awarded in that manner, but I couldn't foresee that the Sun Drug Company would put up its prices on articles we use to several times the market value. I meant to qualify my statement by saying that we would accept what was best for the city. I can't vote to pay 50 cents for 'formaldehyde,' when it can be bought elsewhere for 14 cents."

Bowen said that the drug contract should be divided among the bidders giving each one the items on which they were the lowest. He said the Board of Supervisors had adopted the plan to escape the vicissitudes through which the Council was passing.

Davenport had a resolution written out, which he was anxious to have passed, rejecting all bids and providing that on readvertisement the bidders must put up a certified check of $300 to guarantee that they would furnish the city those drugs on which their bid was the lowest. McAleer seconded the motion. It was lost by a vote of 6 to 3, Nofziger voting with Davenport and McAleer.

Attention was then given to the report of the Supply Committee, signed by Todd and Summerland, in part as follows:

"We have given the bids submitted (one from the Sun Drug Company, the other from Off & Vaughn,) careful consideration. We find that the Sun Drug Company is the lowest bidder on more than 900 articles, while Off & Vaughn are the lowest on about 200. An examination of drug demands in the Auditor's office, and also information from the health department, furnished at our request by Dr. Powers, leads your committee to the opinion, however, that in considering these bids, something besides the number of articles should determine which is the lowest and best proposal for the city.

"From these reliable sources, it is learned that the articles most used—that go to make up about 90 per cent. of the drug bills for the health department—are formaldehyde, vaccine, prescriptions, antitoxine and gauze. The hundreds of other articles on the blanket schedule are seldom used. A little figuring will show readily which is the best bid. Take, for instance, formaldehyde, furnished the city the last six months. At Off & Vaughn's bid of 14½ cents per pound, the cost would be $388.17. At the Sun Drug Company's bid of 50 cents per pound, it would be $1338.50, a difference of $950.33 on one article alone, which amount itself would more than half pay the total drug bill for the last six months of the health department. Off & Vaughn would also be lower on the four remaining items, as follows: Vaccine, $114.02; prescriptions, $100.50; antitoxine, $47.76, and gauze, $179.63, making a total of the five articles of about $1522. Bills of Off & Vaughn for the last six months for drugs supplied the health department amount to about $1745. These figures speak for themselves.

"At the meeting of your committee Friday, a proposition was made to divide the contract, giving articles to the lowest bidder. This proposition was agreeable to Off & Vaughn, and would not be considered for a moment by the Sun Drug Company.

"Further, we would respectfully call your attention to the fact that this is the third time in the last few weeks that bids have been received for supplying drugs, medicines, etc. Each time the city has been put to expense of advertising for proposals, under the terrible strain the druggists are fast going beyond repair, and the members of the Supply Committee are getting farther and farther away from the little chance they ever had of an everlasting public office in the great hereafter, where formaldehyde and antitoxine are unknown. A continued delay in this matter would not be fair to the bidders, and it certainly would not be fair to your committee.

"We, therefore, respectfully recommend: First, that the contract be divided; the articles to be awarded the lowest bidders; or second, that the contract be awarded to Off & Vaughn."

Kern moved that the first recommendation of the committee that the contract be divided, be adopted.

Wolfe declared the Sun Drug Company would not sign up for the articles on which their bid was the lowest. He asked that the Council throw out all the bids or give the entire contract to Off & Vaughn. He said if the Council wanted the $100 check they would have to take it, as he would not sign the contract on such conditions.

"You observe that the specifications say that the bid on each item shall be considered a separate bid," said Kern.

Wolfe said he did, but that he had been misled by the statemnet of the committee to believe that the specifications would not be followed.

Nevertheless Kern's motion passed without division.

Later the Council relented, however, reconsidered its action, awarded the entire contract to Off & Vaughn in accordance with the second recommendation of the Supply Committee, and returned to Wolfe his $100 certified check. Davenport, Kern and McAleer voted against the reconsideration, and the other six members for it.

Now that the drug contract is settled, peace may reign at the City Hall for a few days.

Off & Vaughn were confident yesterday, and did not say a word in their own behalf, although two representatives and Attorney George Adams watched the proceedings closely. The Council thereby escaped a flood of statistics on drugs which would have been equal to taking a potion of all the 1100 items listed in the specifications.

PUBLIC MAY BUY.

SCHOOL BOND ISSUE.

The people may buy school bonds after all. Yesterday the Council voted to open the polytechnic high school issue of $200,000 to popular subscription for thirty days.

Bids will be received at the office of the City Clerk. The bonds are in the denominations of $500 and $1000. It is expected that they will be quickly taken. The issue is what is known as a forty-year serial, one-fortieth of the bonds maturing each year. The rate of interest is 3½ per cent. In making their recommendation to the Council yesterday, the special committee, comprising President Bowen of the Council and City Attorney Mathews, reported as follows:

"In the matter of the application for a sixty-day option to purchase the polytechnic high school, storm sewer, and outfall sewer bonds, which was referred to you by the undersigned as a committee to consider and report thereon, we beg to recommend, in view of the general interest manifested by our citizens in the disposal of the school bonds, and the provision of additional school facilities, that the issue of $200,000 of high school bonds be offered for public subscription among the citizens of the city for a period of thirty days."

Negotiations are pending for the sale of the other issues, and it is not probable that anyone will be given an option on the issues.

FOX WANTS BONDS.

E. R. Fox, a local speculator living at No. 951 Orange street, made application for a thirty-day option on the remaining bond issues, amounting to $1,600,000, yesterday morning. Fox offered to pay par and accrued interest for the bonds and to put up a $10,000 bond guaranteeing the purchase. His offer was referred to a special committee composed of President Bowen and City Attorney Mathews.

Fox recently tried to secure the sale of a trolley franchise on West Tenth street, and offered to buy it in if necessary. He is not rated a rich man, and is not known to have wealthy financial backers.

GRANITE WANTED.

MATERIAL FOR STREETS.

Councilman Nofziger has been making an investigation of all the quarries near Los Angeles where good material for surfacing streets can be obtained. As a result there are samples of almost every kind of surfacing rock on exhibition in the Council committee room. Flinty rock, shale rock, soft rock, hard rock and decomposed granite are offered the Council. But it seems to be more a question of freight rates than of rock.

Since the Council instructed Chairman Nofziger of the Board of Public Works to ascertain the cost of a rock crusher and freight rates on rock from neighboring quarries, a great many propositions have been advanced. However, the plan to buy a rock crusher has practically been abandoned, as the city can not well spend the money, and other means seem likely to afford better results.

N. C. Carter, owner of the "Cartertia" ranch at Sierra Madre, exhibited a large sackful of decomposed granite at the City Hall yesterday. The material comes from a quarry near Sierra Madre. Nofziger has inspected the quarry, and he believes the granite will make good roads. The electric line is now within a mile and one-half of the granite bed, and is soon to be extended. Three years ago the same quarry was inspected by the Council, but lack of transportation facilities prevented the adoption of specifications at that time calling for the use of the material in street building.

Mr. Carter thinks he can put the material down at some central point in Los Angeles at less than 50 cents a yard. Good gravel costs about 35 cents a yard.

Other quarries of decomposed granite will be investigated by the committee. Clark & Sherman have a deposit near Hollywood, and there is another just north of Pasadena. The decomposed granite makes a hard, lasting road, but it is disintegrated to the extent that no crusher is needed. It is thought that by the use of hot crude oil and a heavy roller roads as lasting as the old Roman highways can be built of this material. Much less sprinkling is required and a saving is effected in this way.

If the decomposed granite is not chosen private capital will be enlisted to furnish a rock crusher and supply contractors with whatever grade of material is finally selected. Councilman Nofziger has communications from firms offering to furnish rock crushers at from $16,000 to $24,000.

STREET LAMPS.

COUNCIL'S MISCELLANY.

Specifications for the new street lighting contract will be prepared at once. The Lighting Committee directed the City Electrician to make provision for 150 more street lamps in the contract, which will not become effective until January 1, 1904. There are 1034 lamps now in use, for which the city pays $4.75 apiece each month. Many petitions for street lamps are now on file, and the Councilmen will make up their lists this week.

Messrs. Ellis and Bullfinch, of the Board of Education, appeared before the Council yesterday to request that the department receive the full amount allowed in the appropriation. It is stated that about $1400 of the school money has been transferred to other funds. The apparent discrepancy is attributed by the city officials, to taxes uncollected and other minor reasons. The school department was allowed 14 cents of the $1 tax rate last year. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee and the City Auditor.

An appropriation of $7300 was authorized by the Council yesterday to repair the outfall sewer. The by-pass needs repairs amounting to $200, and it is estimated that the rebanding of the sewer will cost $7000. Damage suits have been brought against the city because of the breaks and more are threatened. Action was taken in accordance with a recommendation of the City Engineer, who said: "During the past month there have been four breaks in the wooden section of the outfall sewer, near Western and Slauson avenues. At this point the banks are almost entirely gone, and it is absolutely necessary that some steps be taken to reband a portion of this pipe immediately. The present sewer will have to give service for two more winters, and unless this rebanding is done immediately, we will have no sewer. The cost of this work will be about $7000."

On recommendation of the Board of Health, the Council directed the City Attorney to present an ordinance repealing the bounty of 2½ cents apiece on rats.

Chief Strohm of the Fire Department appeared before the Council and asked that action be taken to force the Morris-Jones Oil Company to supply the department with suitable kindling and good bran. He said the kindling supplied was too large and that pitch pine was needed. He said that the bran had been sent back because it was unfit to use. The matter was referred to the Supply Committee with power to act.

The Third-street tunnel was a fruitful source of protests. Allison Barlow and other property owners complained to the Council yesterday that the hand sweeping of the tunnel was an absolute failure. They allege that the sweeping is kept up all day and that ladies cannot go through without ruining their dresses. They ask that the tunnel be sprinkled and swept at night by machine. The Board of Public Works will investigate.

A petition to pave Flower street from Third to Sixth street was referred to the Board of Public Works.

A message was received from the Mayor announcing the appointment of George C. Sutton as Assistant Building Inspector. The appointment was confirmed. Sutton, who is also Assistant Fire Marshal, is paid by the fire underwriters.

To the Board of Public Works was referred the application of the Los Angeles and Glendale Railway Company for a railroad franchise across a number of streets between Sunset Boulevard and the north city limits. This franchise is asked as an extension of the franchise on Lake Shore avenue, Figueroa, Sixth and other streets sold for $20,000 last week. A bond of $30,000 with L. C. Brand and E. W. Sargeant as sureties was approved to bind the franchise and the ordinance of award passed. It is said that Mayor Snyder has decided to sign the franchise ordinance despite the protests of Sixth street property owners.

Dr. John R. Haynes of the Civil Service Commission was granted a thirty-day leave of absence. Dr. Haynes is about to leave for a tour of Europe.

Plans and specifications for the following school buildings were approved yesterday, and the City Clerk was instructed to advertise for bids to construct them: West Vernon school, Highland Park School, Eighth street school, Boyd street school, Harmony and Union avenue schools.

F. J. Malone of the Board of Examining Engineers was granted a leave of absence for thirty days.

The Street Superintendent was instructed to notify C. S. Campbell-Johnston to put the tracks on the Marmion Way between Pasadena avenue and the city limits in good condition and on grade under penalty of having the work done by the city and charged to him.

On motion of Bowen the City Engineer was instructed to have all connections between the zanja and the sewer system disconnected. The motion was made to keep oil out of the sewer.

The protest of Fred L. Alles against paying a sewer assessment on Pico street was denied on technical grounds.

STANSBURY WINS.

STREET-SPRINKLING CONTRACT.

There was a long executive session of the Council after 5 o'clock last night, to consider the street-sprinkling contract. At the morning session the bid of Charles Stansbury was accepted by unanimous vote, which led Summerland to remark, "Now that's perfectly lovely."

But all was not so "perfectly lovely" at the executive session, where the question of the rainy-day schedule was thrashed out. Stansbury offered to furnish teams and wagons at the rate of $1.71 apiece per day for the first year, and $1.69 a day for the second year, but nothing was said about rainy days in the bid. The specifications said that teams and wagons should be furnished in such number as the Council might designate, but did not cover the point in dispute.

The question to be decided was whether the city should pay $1.71 a day for each team and wagon, whether working or not, or should merely pay the amount stated for those days when the teams were actually employed. Stansbury insisted that he could not perform the contract unless he was paid for every day, while members of the Council thought that deductions should be made for spells of wet weather, when the teams were not working. The contractor argued that his horses and mules ate just the same on rainy days, and that he was compelled to keep them at the service of the city, no matter what the weather.

After a stormy session a compromise was effected, and when the Council reassembled in public session, Nofziger offered a motion "that the contract to furnish teams and sprinkling wagons ordered to be drawn by the City Attorney, be so framed as not to prohibit advertising on said wagons, and so as to give to the City Council the power upon ten days' notice in writing to reduce for a period of not less than thirty days the number of teams and wagons to be furnished for sprinkling and so as to provide that payment shall be made monthly for the number of teams required to be furnished during the preceding month."

This motion was adopted unanimously, and it was decided to hold another session of the Council this morning at 10 o'clock to pass upon the contract, which will be prepared in the mean time by the City Attorney.

In the specifications it was provided that the contractor must paint his name on the sprinkling wagons in large letters, and must put no advertisements on the wagons. When it was decided to place the Street Superintendent in charge of the sprinkling, and to rent the teams and wagons from the contractor, the futility of having the name of a contractor in no way responsible for the quality of the street sprinkling on the wagons occurred to the Council. The contractor will therefore be spared the pleasure of seeing his name on all the sprinkling wagons in the city, while "Jim Dumps" and the "Komel Highball Girl" will retain their proud ascendency.

A humorous incident occurred just before the Council adjourned. The vote on Nofziger's motion had just been announced, when Summerland exclaimed:

"I must get that driver placed right away; I've got his name right here," and Summerland pulled a card out of his case and went in search of the contractor.

Congratulate Silver.

Members of the City Council, irrespective of party, were highly gratified by the announcement that Hon. Herman Silver had been appointed State Bank Commissioner by Gov. Pardee. On motion of Councilman Todd, the clerk was instructed to forward the congratulations of the Council to Mr. Silver, who for two terms was president of that body.

AT CROSS PURPOSES.

COUNCIL AND CIVIL SERVICE.

That considerable feeling exists between the Councilmen and the Civil Service Commissioners was evident yesterday when a bill for $180 to pay the salary of an assistant secretary of the commission came before the Council.

"What is that for?" demanded Nofziger, as the Clerk read the amount.

"For an assistant secretary," he was informed.

"Well, what do they need of an assistant secretary?" continued the Ninth Warder. "They stand up and abuse the Council all the time because it is spending money when as a matter of fact they are the archspenders of money and get more than their shares at the public crib.

"They have a secretary that gets $150 a month and a fee for registrations besides that amounts to about as much more. He's got a fine thing out of it and now they want an assistant secretary."

"Do the applicants have to pay a notary fee?" demanded Todd, incredulously. "The commission ought to provide a way whereby the applicants could be sworn before the City Clerk. They take as much of a chance when they go against that game as they do when they try to play the races at Black's poolroom. I don't think they should have to pay for such a desperate chance."

"Why, they've got a little Monte Carlo over there," said Nofziger.

"The secretary ought not to charge a fee when he gets $150 a month," said Bowen.

"But I understand that he gets $300 a month," said Todd.

"I've got plenty of clerks at $75 a month," said Nofziger, "and I don't see any need of paying such wages. I think $90 is too much."

"Well, we ordered it and we have got to pay it," put in Davenport, who had signed the requisition.

"The case should be investigated in order to find out whether they need an assistant secretary or not," offered Parish. "No one in this Council seems to know much about it."

"The secretary might pay the assistant out of his own pocket if he gets $300 a month," suggested Kern.

"Indeed, and I should like to investigate this myself," said Summerland suddenly awakening from a reverie.

Accordingly the requisition was referred back to the Supply Committee for investigation. It is stated that the revenue from notary fees has been greatly overestimated and that it amounts to only a few dollars every month.

W. A. Spalding is the secretary of the Civil Service Commission and J. H. McMasters has been employed as an assistant during the rush of examinations. Last Saturday 237 persons were examined for positions in the public service and the work of the secretary has been unusually heavy.

AT THE COURT HOUSE

GIRL BETRAYED BY MULTI-MILLIONAIRE.

SHE CLAIMS HIS HIRELINGS GOT HER CHILD AWAY.

Sensation Sprung in Judge Wilbur's Court When Little Arvilla Bell Was Brought up on Habeas Corpus Proceedings—Case Will Take New Form.

Throwing shame to the winds, Cora Bell Davis, a Pittsburgh girl, now living in Los Angeles, created a sensation yesterday by appealing to Judge Wilbur for the possession of her illegitimate child, now in a convent on Pico Heights.

She claims that the father of the child is Multi-millionaire T. N. Barnsdall of Pittsburgh. She tells a wildly dramatic story of how her rich betrayer has used the power of his enormous wealth to wrest the child away from her.

She claims that she was put in a maniac's cell by the millionaire's hirelings, and there forced by terrible threats and duress and fraud, to give up the child. Not only that, but the promise to let her see the child has been broken, and the Sisters of the Pico Heights convent, where the child is being educated, have shut the doors upon her.

The attorneys for the convent deny that the insanity charge was the result of a long dark deep-dyed conspiracy. They say that Mrs. Davis went on a lurid spree to Monrovia, but Monrovia being a temperance town, the natives mistook the symptoms, and thought she was crazy and sent her in. The version of the affair that Attorney Warner, who appears for Mrs. Davis, gave yesterday, when the child was brought up on habeas corpus proceedings, would make your hair stand on end.

He made this formal statement of the case to Judge Wilbur:

"About February 1," he said, "certain men went and instigated a discord between this woman and her husband, and advised her to leave him. Rooms were rented for her. She was taken sick, and was found in the Pacific Hospital under the influence of drugs, and then taken to other quarters. All the time she was being poisoned against her husband.

"She was sent to Monrovia, and taken from there to the County Hospital, charged as crazy. A man came there to see her, and pretended that he had a warrant for her, when he had none. She was kept a prisoner in the detention ward. She was told that if she didn't give up the child, the father would no longer support it or her either.

"At last she had to yield. She was brought to the Courthouse in a carriage. She had to consent to letters of guardianship being issued."

Letters of guardianship were accordingly issued to one A. A. Hopkins, who represents Mr. Barnsdall. Mrs. Davis claims that she was to be allowed to see the child whenever she chose, and that she has been denied this boon. Hence the habeas corpus.

The attorneys for the Sisters stated to the court yesterday that they were perfectly willing to let the mother see the child. It developed that Mrs. Davis came out to the convent and wanted them to get the child out of bed and visit with her.

On Mrs. Davis's petition, the Sisters had to bring the child into court yesterday.

In spite of the baby's clouded family tree, she is one of the most beautiful children that you ever saw. It seems as though Providence has tried to atone to her by giving her a most exquisite face. And perhaps it is her mother, or possibly the millionaire father, who has also tried a little to atone by dressing her like a princess of the blood royal.

Her name is Arvilla. Her mother held her tightly in her arms until Miss Arvilla began to fear that the Sisters might feel hurt, and went over to sit with them.

Attorney Warner swore to the court that in all the years of his criminal practice, this is the foulest conspiracy he ever saw.

The lawyers for the other side claim that there is nothing in the story about weaning away Davis from his wife. They assert that the multi-millionaire brought about her marriage in order to get the woman out of the way, and then packed the pair off to California.

The whole proceeding ended in a puff of smoke and talk. Judge Wilbur held that a new bond should be given by Hopkins; he ruled, however, that the matter of the alleged fraud must be taken up on a new application, for letters of guardianship—not on habeas corpus proceedings; so the present case was dismissed.

Attorneys against the woman claim that all she wants is an increase in her allowance. The multi-millionaire, it is alleged, now allows her $40 per month, and she wants $200 or $300.

Mr. Warner, speaking in behalf of his client, does not deny this feature of it. "Why shouldn't a man of his wealth give her more? How can she maintain herself in her proper station on $40 a month?"

Mrs. Davis claims, however, to have a $5,000,000 mother.

Mrs. Davis has retained the firm of Works, Lee & Works to assist Warner in the case.

DOCTOR SUED.

ALLEGED MALPRACTICE.

Dr. I. N. Hughey of Monrovia is being sued in Judge Conrey's court for $5000 for alleged malpractice. H. S. Foote, the plaintiff, claims that he lost one eye and another was seriously damaged as a result of Dr. Hughey's poor doctoring.

Foote's complaint was gonorrhoeal opthalmia. First one eye was afflicted and then the other caught it. He is now blind in one eye.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

CLASSICAL CONFUSION OVER TWO GREEKS.

PSILOS AND ZAFIRIS MET, TESTIMONY WAS SNARLED.

Court Untangled Roots by Separating Principals and Interpreter Into Four Corners of Room—Boy Surprised Because He Stole Copies of "Hurled."

It's always a question what will happen when Greek meets Greek. In the case of Jim Zafiris and Jim Psilos, two noble Athenians, descended probably from Pericles, an arrest happened. The two Jims were in the Police Court yesterday jabbering expostulations in the language of Socrates to a charge of disturbing the peace.

It seems that Psilos owed Zafiris $1.50, which the latter attempted to collect on the night of June 27 in Ferguson alley. Psilos for a moment forgot his Greek, which is a courteous language, and had recourse to an American epithet. Instead of walling for Zafiris to say "You're another," he shot out a hard bunch of digits, and then Greek met Greek.

Each appeared in court with his own interpreter. Judge Austin became so exasperated at the confusion that resulted from trying to take testimony that he shouted: "This is Greek to me." Then he made each one of the four stand in a separate corner of the room so that the Greek roots might become disentangled.

This hard lesson in Greek, when translated, was: "Zafiris discharged," "Psilos fined $15."

BARROSA'S REVENGE.

NIPPED IN THE BUD.

The murder that might have been done by a great butcher knife caused the shivers to run down the spine of Mike Carroll, a seventeen-year-old boy, in the Police Court yesterday. He said that he was at a dance on Main Vista street Saturday night when Thomas Barrosa, a Mexican, tried to make him give up his seat. He wouldn't, of course, but a little later he left his seat and Barrosa dropped his long body into it and assumed insolent airs. Through the aid of a policeman Mike got his chair.

Barrosa, drunk and cursing, went from the dance hall and caromed into his house a few doors away. From the kitchen he got a butcher knife with a blade a foot long, hid it under his coat and slunk back among the dancers. Mike was still triumphantly holding the chair. Barrosa's brown countenance became yellow with fury. Patrolman Leon saw him; he knows Mexicans, and divined the knife.

Barrosa's brother was greatly surprised because Thomas had been arrested. He was on the witness stand and he said only one thing: "Somebody in Mexico carries a knife." He thought that would explain everything. Barrosa will appear this morning for sentence.

WHY DID HE DO IT?

BOY STOLE THREE "HURLEDS."

Three unsold copies of the "Hurled" were stolen from in front of a drug store yesterday morning. Edgar Tucker, an eleven-year-old boy, stole them. He was seen stealing them, he was apprehended, he was hauled into Police Court. It was a peculiar case. The wonder is, why did he do it? Edgar was given into the custody of Humane Officer Oliver, the court having resolved itself into a juvenile court. As probation officer Maj. Oliver will keep an eye on the boy until July 27. Edgar couldn't tell why he stole the "Hurleds," and was surprised at his action afterward.

Policelets.

Steve Dawson, who stole two bridles last week, when there was against his record a prior conviction for petty larceny, had his preliminary examination in the Police Court yesterday and was held to answer in the sum of $500.

Thomas McGowan, who attempted to burglarize the store of W. P. Fuller & Co. Saturday night, and was held up by Special Officer Ford, was in police Court yesterday. His bail was fixed at $1000 and examination set for July 1.

Thirty-five drunks, who were in Justice Austin's court for trial yesterday, testified by their number to the holiday thirst which affected the community.

Annie Murphy, a pretty girl of 17, who might be taken for an Epworth Leaguer by one not knowing her, answered to a charge of being a common prostitute in the Police Court yesterday. More hardened-looking women sometimes resent the appellation for shame and make indignant denial of the charge. Some interpose objections to the term "common," and inform the court that they are far above the ordinary. But Annie Murphy said "guilty" without chagrin or expression.

EVENTS IN SOCIETY.

One of the many June nuptials will take place this evening at No. 22 Glen Park avenue, San Francisco, when Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gibbs will give in marriage their daughter, Rose, to Prof. Jean Bart Balcomb. The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock in the presence of relatives and intimate friends, the distinguished Rev. Dr. Hofmeyr of Cape Colony, South Africa, officiating. College colors will prevail in the decoration scheme, blue and gold of the University of California being used in the reception hall, and the well-known Stanford crimson in the parlors.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Laura Lake will sing "Oh Promise Me." The bride will enter to the strains of the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus," rendered by Mrs. Hattie Thompson, and will be unattended save by the man of her choice. She will be daintily attired in a gown of white silk mull over satin cut en traine, and trimmed with silk applique roses. She will wear orange blossoms and carry a shower bouquet of Bride's roses and maidenhair ferns. Her only ornament will be a pearl brooch, the gift of the groom. Her long tulle veil will be held in place by means of a bridal wreath, which the mother of the bride wore at her own wedding, nearly forty years ago. The mother will be gowned in an imported silk of golden brown, worn by her upon the former occasion. Following the ceremony a wedding supper will be served.

Prof. Balcomb is thrice an alumnus, having been graduated from the Kansas State Normal School, the engineering department of the Colorado State Agricultural College, and Stanford University, and is at present the technical head of Heald's School of Mines and Engineering in San Francisco. He is a prominent mining expert of the metropolis city, and interested in several of the important mines of the State. His bride, who is a graduate from the Los Angeles High School and the University of Southern California, and who has for the past year been pursuing a special course in the university at Berkeley, has many warm friends in this city, who wish her every possible happiness.

The young couple have been the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts. Their going away has been kept a secret. The bride's traveling costume is of clinging brown broadcloth. Prof. and Mrs. Balcomb will reside in Palo Alto, where they will be at home after September 1.

Programme Reception.

One of the prettiest of the larger affairs of the week was given last evening by the Students' Music Club at the Woman's Club House, on Figueroa street, when that association entertained over 200 guests with a choice programme and dancing. Full dress is always the rule at a formal gathering of this club, and the assemblage presented a brilliant picture last evening as the dainty toilettes of the ladies were thrown into sharp relief by the sober attire of their escorts. The receiving party included Mrs. H. L. Graham, Mrs. W. J. Wren, Miss Graham, Miss Plumstead and Miss Thomson.

The programme was exceedingly well rendered, and the audience manifested its approval by repeated applause. The numbers consisted of a quartette by Miss Ethel Graham, Miss Celia Heller, Mrs. Wren and Miss Blanch Brown; trios by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wren and Miss Graham, and solos by Miss Lottie Dolsen, Miss Alma Bradley, Miss Brown and Miss Nina Sanborn.

Garwood-Kelly.

The home of Dr. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of Emanuel Presbyterian Church, was the scene of a wedding Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Bessie M. Kelly and Roy J. Garwood. The ceremony was witnessed only by a few friends and relatives of the young couple, Miss Hubbard and Mr. Wilson being the attendants. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Garwood repaired to their home on Ingraham street.

Mr. Garwood, a native of Georgia, is a young man of sterling qualities. Miss Kelly is the eldest daughter of C. C. Kelly of Ohio, and possesses those charms of grace and beauty that make her admired and loved by all who know her. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends.

—o—

For Miss Morton.

Mrs. Ira Phelps presided over a pretty luncheon given at her home on Ingraham street, Saturday, for Miss Mabel Morton. Other guests were Miss Grace H. Farnsworth, Miss Helen E. Matthewson, Miss Antoinette Ganahl, Miss Julia A. Garey, Miss Edith Phillips, Miss Mabel Dooner, Miss Bennie Green, Miss Adelaide Jones, Miss Jessie Lewis, Miss Carmelita Toconis, Miss Anna Griffith.

Notes and Personals.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage in Fort Wayne, Ind., of Miss Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dalman, and Jesse Claud Marquardt. The ceremony took place June 24. Mr. and Mrs. Marquardt will reside in this city, where they will be at home after September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Barker, with their daughter, Miss Arreen Barker, left yesterday for a two months' eastern trip. After visiting the exposition at Chicago and Grand Rapids, Mr. Barker intends to join his family for an outing, visiting many lake resorts.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Bloomer and Mr. and Mrs. A. Adams returned Saturday from a week's outing in San Gabriel Cañon. They went to Fish Ford, several miles beyond the Narrows, which was crossed on burros. The party report a catch of 200 trout.

The marriage of Miss Mary E. Donaldson and William H. Perry will take place July 1.

The faculty of the Woodbury Business College will entertain, in honor of the graduates, at the Woman's Club House this evening, from 8 to 11. Exercise in the auditorium will be followed by a reception.

Mrs. Jennie Donahue, who closed a term of service at the Casco-street school last week, was presented with a handsome pearl brooch, and a written testimonial by the mothers of the school.

Miss Harriet A. Nichols of State College, Pa., has returned to Los Angeles, after an absence of two years, a portion of the time having been spent in study and travel abroad. Her vacation will be spent with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. Nichols, at Hotel Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gilbert have just returned from the East, and are located at the Gray Gables.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Swanfeldt left yesterday for Coronado Tent City.

Mrs. J. K. Symonds of Douglas, Ariz., is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Sheasby, of No. 1052 East Twenty-second street. The ladies will be at home Thursdays.

—o—

Lamb-Morris.

Miss Lizzie Morris and James Lamb were united in marriage June 24, at 8 p.m., the ceremony being solemnized by Rev. Father Fahey at the Plaza church, where the bride was baptized and confirmed, and where she received her first communion. Immediately after the ceremony, the wedding party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Gibbons, No. 154 West Twenty-third street. Here supper was served under a large tent on the lawn, amid a profusion of foliage and flowers.

The bride and Mrs. Gibbons are sisters, and after the repast, the guests prepared to spring the old joshes and jokes on the newly-married couple, but Mr. and Mrs. Lamb escaped in the carriage that was awaiting to convey them to their home at No. 123 West Pico street.

For her marriage the bride wore white organdie and carried white carnations, and her veil was fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms.

—o—

Alumni Annual.

The High School alumni gave the annual dancing party at Kramer's last night, and when the first number of the waltz and two-step programme was called, there were nearly 100 couples on the floor. Among those present was a large representation from the class organization of "S. '02," and from both summer and winter classes of '03. Miss Dunham and Miss Hanow were the teachers who chaperoned the occasion.

Dancing continued from 9 till 12, and the perfection of arrangement is credited to John Haas, Adolph Young, Aleck Hamilton and Alfred Salisbury.

Over 1000 immigrants were landed at Ellis Island on Sunday. They came on the Patria and Furnessia, and were mostly from Italy and near-by countries.

The Workingman's back is a very important part of him.

Simply an impossibility for a man to attend to his work properly if he is always suffering with lame back or back ache.

That means of course if his kidneys aren't doing their duty.

Many a man has lost his position because of his inability to endure the tortures of backache, and to keep up with his work at the same time.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

make lame, weak backs well and strong; help men to do better and harder work, make them better more competent men. They're doing it right here in Los Angeles.

There's no need for a man to suffer with backache or lame back, or any of the results of kidney trouble—not while Doan's Kidney Pills are so easily obtained, and so sure to bring renewed health and strength.

LOS ANGELES PROOF

John S. Burtless of 610½ South Spring street, starcher in the American Steam Laundry, says: "I knew about Doan's Kidney Pills six years ago when I lived in Rochester, N. Y., and probably if I had taken a course of the treatment at that time it might have prevented a considerable amount of annoyance. I noticed then and at different times since that the action of the kidney secretions was irregular, also they were off-color and contained a sediment. For the last two years backache existed, at times very painful, and the irregularities caused considerable anxiety, and finally forced me to be on the outlook for some means to check it. An advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills brought to my recollection the fact that that preparation was well known in the East, and I went to Doan's Drug Store for a box which helped me, and I bought a second. It did not require a third, for the backache stopped and the kidney secretions became normal."

All druggists sell DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Where Sold.

Los Angeles Brewing Co.'s Draught and Bottled Beer is dispensed under almost every liquor license in the city and at this time the city has authorized 200 bars. In addition, it may be obtained in bottles from many grocers and dealers.

Los Angeles Brewing Co.'s Beer has won its way into the minds of the people through true merit, therefore obliging the dealers to handle it; however, many of them have personally visited the brewery, noted the absolute cleanliness that abounds here, have noted the processes of brewing and know that germs can not exist in this beer.

It is a perfect beer.

Outside of Los Angeles it is sold principally in five states, the Hawaiian Islands and the Philippines, many special trainloads being shipped on various occasions. A branch house is now established in San Francisco for bottling it for her citizens.

The pride of the company is in the demand that is made for this beer by the society people on the Pacific Coast, and it is the principal beer served in such leading resorts as Levy's, Palace, Beaumont, Potter, Coronado, Van Nuys, Angelus, Raymond and the many beach resorts.

Los Angeles Brewing Co.'s Beer contains but 3½ per cent of alcohol, making it a mild but delightful beverage, equally pleasing and acceptable to all classes of users.

Little excuse for serving a less satisfactory beer when East Side beer may be obtained at same price.

FREE BODY SWINGING.

EXERCISES WHICH GIVE DIRECT STIMULUS TO ORGANS WITHIN THE TRUNK. LIKE ANIMAL MOVEMENTS—PRODUCE ENERGY MORE ADVANTAGEOUSLY THAN ORDINARY MUSCLE CONTRACTION WORK.

By W. R. C. Latson, M. D.
(Editor Health Culture Magazine, New York.)

AS EXPLAINED in previous articles of this series, the exercises constituting the system here presented are all merely modifications of exercises practiced by animals when fatigued, cramped or playful. The exercises of animals may be divided into four classes, viz., stretches, yawnings or deep breaths, shaking of the body and limbs, and various free movements. These free movements of animals are of wide variety, from the swaying of the elephant to the rolling over and over of the dog or the gamboling of the lamb. This play of animals forms a most interesting and suggestive chapter in natural history. Sometimes the movements are made merely as a relief after a period of standing or lying still; sometimes they seem to be merely an exhibition of exuberant vitality, and in some instances are executed as a part of some definite game. For there are perhaps some who need to be told that not only do animals exercise, but that animals play many games, all of which are interesting and many of which are intricate.

FREE ANIMAL MOVEMENTS.

When we say that animals exercise we do not mean to imply that animals like dogs, cats or even the remarkably intelligent elephant have any conception of such ideas as health, disease or the need of physical exercise. Their impulse to make certain movements, like their impulse to eat, drink, breathe and defend their young, is entirely instinctive; that is, the result of the action upon the individual animal of the influences conducing to natural selection. Natural selection may be defined as the process by which the animal best fit to live survives, and others less strong, active, voracious and crafty are destroyed. The stretching, shakings, yawnings and rollings of the dog are instinctive movements which have undoubtedly had an important influence in making the wolflike animal from which our dog sprang a stronger, quicker animal than the animal that did not happen to feel the impulse to such movements. In other words, the mere fact that the surviving types of animals take exercises such as just mentioned is of itself a proof of the value of those movements as a means of increasing strength, endurance, quickness and skill. If these movements had not been best—had they weakened the animal—that animal would have been destroyed. Natural selection is a process of sifting. It does not create, it destroys—destroys the weak ones and thus insures "the survival of the fittest."

Aside from the greater size and complexity of the nervous system of man there is but little physiologic difference between his body and those of the higher brute mammals. All this leads us to the thought that those various bodily movements, stretching, yawnings, shakings and gambols which we find practiced by the animals which have a place among the surviving life forms, are adapted not only to their requirements, but to our own. Another line of argument converging to the same point is that, quite aside from their origin, all our knowledge of the human body would lead us to believe these animal exercises supremely valuable in the development of all the characteristics of a perfect physique—of a straight spine, an expanded, uplifted trunk, large, active lungs, ease, grace and certainty of movement and the highest degree of muscular control.

Previous articles in this series have dealt with stretching movements, both longitudinal and transverse to the body (rotation exercises.) The breathing exercises and the exercises for flexibility have also been described. We now come to the free movements, which constitute so large a part of the exercise of animals, of children and of those races yet in their childhood—the savage peoples whose religious and social dances are merely modifications of the animal gambols.

Physiologically, a muscular movement has two directly opposite effects upon the animal functions. First, the muscular activity occasions the depletion of a certain amount of nervous vitality. The second effect is to so accelerate the action of the vital organs as to increase the amount of energy produced by the system. The amount of this acceleration depends less upon the severity and the duration of the movement than upon its location.

DUMB-BELLS OF LITTLE VALUE.

A vigorous contraction of the arm, for instance, such as in the ordinary dumb-bell, or "tension" exercises, requires a large outlay of nervous vitality. At the same time there is but little stimulation of the vital activities, and therefore but little increase of vitality. Movements of this kind use up a great deal of energy, and make very little.

If, however, the movement is one involving an extensive movement of the trunk there is a direct mechanical stimulus applied to the organs contained therein. If the movement is made under slight resistance the expenditure of energy is comparatively slight, while the increase of energy is large. Such movements, therefore, are best from the standpoint of commonsense physical culture.

A fundamental rule governing the selection of the exercises used in the system presented in this series of papers is that each movement shall be a movement of the entire body. How true this is to natural and mechanical law anyone can verify by watching the movements of a healthy child at play. It will be noticed that in these cases every movement is a movement of the whole body, and that what artists call "the law of succession" and "the law of opposition" are perfectly observed.

Free movement exercises are infinite in number. All the games of children are full of them. So are some of the games of adults, as dancing, tennis, ping-pong, grace hoops, etc. Many other games, such as basket ball, baseball, football, cricket, etc., also provide opportunity for free movement. Unfortunately, however, in these latter games the element of competition is usually so strong as to lead to excessive and injurious effort, which quite disqualifies the exercise as a physiologic good.

As to the time to be given to the following exercises there is no limit beyond the inclination of the student. They are so gentle that they cannot be overdone. The first sign of fatigue should, however, always be the sign to stop.

SWINGING EXERCISES.

Exercise No. 1—Stand at ease, feet slightly apart, arms hanging at the sides. Raise arms slowly up in front until they are extended straight above the head, palms forward. Then, without bending the knees, sweep the body and arms together forward and downward toward the floor. When the arms have swung behind the knees, sweep them up again with an easy motion until you are in position as at the start of the swing, arms extended up over head. Repeat from five to ten times.

This exercise has an immediate effect upon all the internal organs, especially the bowels and liver. It is particularly valuable in constipation and that condition commonly called biliousness.

Exercise No. 2—Stand easily, feet slightly apart, arms hanging. Now begin to swing the arms easily from side to side, at the same time turning the body slightly and swaying it in the direction in which the arms are moving. Increase the movement until the arms are swung far up, first on one and then on the other side, the body being turned and swayed in the same direction. This movement may be kept up as long as desired.

In this and in all these free movement exercises the exact manner of performance is immaterial. The one essential is that the movement is an easy swing of the whole body. Use the least possible effort. You will feel after a time that you have arrived at the maximum of ease. And then, with further practice you will discover that you are doing it still more easily.

Exercise No. 3—Stand with feet slightly apart. Now, swing the arms gently back and forth from the shoulders. Gradually allow the head and body to participate in the movement, and then also the legs, bending the knees slightly as you sway forward. (See figure 1.)

In this exercise, as in the others here described, the only point to remember is ease.

Exercise No. 4—Stand easily with right foot slightly in advance. Now give a slight leap, and change position of the feet, springing so that the left foot comes in front and the right behind. (See figure 2.)

Be careful not to leap too high, and make the entire movement as easily as possible.

This exercise is particularly valuable for the relief of constipation and for the development of the leg muscles.

Next to these movements the best of these free exercises are the games of children, such as "tag," etc., and the singing games. Such adults as are prevented from joining these games by lack of opportunity or excess of dignity may practice tennis or dancing, although the latter as practiced today is a very poor imitation of real dancing.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

HEINOUS CRIME CHARGED.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, June 29.—H. E. Proctor has been taken to the County Jail from the Imperial country to await trial in the Superior Court for alleged criminal assault on the ten-year-old daughter of Louis Kratz. Proctor was in the employ of Kratz, who is a farmer. The story is that the father allowed the child and the hired man to sleep in the same tent.

A. Blockman, the French Consul, who was injured in yesterday's tallyho accident, was able to be at the bank today on crutches, but his son, L. A. Blockman, whose right leg was fractured, must remain in bed for at least seven weeks. In the tip-over several of the French officers were caught under the carriage. If the horses had run away the results would have been serious.

How many mothers realize that when the baby's advent is expected they need strength for two instead of one. Women, weak, nervous, "just able to drag around," find themselves confronted with coming maternity. They have not strength enough for themselves, how can they have strength to give a child? We don't look for the birth of strong ideas from a weak mind. Why should we expect the birth of strong children from weak mothers?

The way to ensure health and strength to mother and child is to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a preparative for motherhood. It brings the mother's strength up to the requirements of nature, so that she has strength to give her child. It nourishes the nerves and so quiets them. It encourages a natural appetite and induces refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I wish to let you know the great benefit my wife derived through taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mr. Robert Harden, of Brandon, Manitoba, Box 435. "It was when her baby came. We had heard so much of your medicine that my wife decided to try it (I may say my wife's age was thirty-three and this was her first child). She commenced to take 'Favorite Prescription' five months before her child was born. We have a fine healthy girl, and we believe that this was mainly owing to the 'Favorite Prescription,' taken faithfully according to directions. We shall certainly recommend it wherever we can."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

COVINA.

CLEW TO LONGTIN?

COVINA, June 29.—The first tangible information as to the possible whereabouts of the old man Murry, who is supposed to have kidnaped the boy Longtin, was received this morning from E. Johnson of Fullerton. Johnson writes Mrs. Longtin that Murry worked around Fullerton and Anaheim some time before he left, a few weeks ago for Covina or Azusa. Before leaving Fullerton he told a number of acquaintances that he expected to leave shortly with a young friend for Yellowstone Park. At Fullerton Murry is known as a Mason and an Odd Fellow, and appeared to have good references from his former home in the East.

NOTELETS.

An outbuilding and two shacks at the rear of the Harthorn billiard saloon, the property of Horace Bemis, were scorched last night a few minutes after midnight. Prompt work by the fire brigade prevented a serious conflagration. The damaged property is situated in an alley in the very center of the business section, and surrounded on all sides by frame buildings. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the lighted stub of a cigar or cigarette.

L. D. Houser of the firm of Houser Bros., orange growers and shippers, narrowly escaped instant death at the Commercial-street depot, Los Angeles, last evening. In alighting from the Covina train, east bound, to assist his father, who is an aged gentleman, he failed to see an incoming freight heavily loaded with rock for the San Pedro breakwater, coming slowly in on the inside track. The engine struck him, but fortunately threw him clear of the track, severely bruising his thigh and arm. Those who saw the accident said his escape from fatal injuries is remarkable. Some criticism was expressed at the crew of the freight train for pulling in on the inside track when passengers were boarding the Covina train.

BANK CLEARINGS. The credits exchanged at the Los Angeles clearing-house today were $841,621.89, as compared with $1,059,713.25 for the corresponding period of last year.

INSURANCE FIGURES. Twenty years ago the sum paid for life insurance in England was only $70,715,000, while now the annual provision amounts to the large sum of $140,-36,899, a growth of 217 per cent. In other words, whereas twenty years ago the sum set aside for life assurance was only $2.02 per annum, now it is $2.60 per annum, and the rate of growth has been greatest in the past decade. The very great expansion in insurance in the United States is, of comparatively recent growth. In 1881 the total income of American assurance companies amounted to only $83,140,000, but in 1901 their total income reached $487,965,000, a growth in twenty years of $372,865,000, or 435 per cent. In other words, in 1881 the income of assurance companies was $1.38 per capita; in 1901 it was 5.73.—[Bradstreet's.

COMMERCIAL.

FOREIGN TRADE. Foreign trade is remarkably well maintained, considering the numerous factors that operate against it. Artificial stimulation to the importation of iron and steel and kindred products through abnormally high prices has been removed, and the summer season also militates against activity in many lines of imported goods. Exports are also adversely affected by the violent rise in cotton, in addition to the persistently firm position of meats and the unsatisfactory port receipts of grain, both as to quantity and quality. Nevertheless, imports during May were valued at $78,935,143, which surpasses the corresponding month in any other year except 1897, when peculiar conditions swelled the movement and rendered intelligent comparison impossible. Exports in May were valued at $100,508,051, which is only about $2,000,000 less than in the same month last year, while the total of both exports and imports exceeded the foreign trade in May, 1902. On merchandise account alone this nation's favorable balance in May was $21,572,-968, or about $5,000,000 less than a year ago, but including specie movement there was a net balance of $35,122,560, over $4,000,000 more than in May, 1902.—[Dun's Review.

GENERAL BUSINESS TOPICS.

CITRUS-FRUIT SHIPMENTS. Shipments of citrus fruits from Southern California on Friday, Saturday and Sunday were 128 carloads of oranges and 3 of lemons. The total shipments for the season, from November 1, 1902, to date, are 19,850 carloads, of which number 284 carloads are lemons.

BIG FRUIT COMBINE. From the New York Commercial of June 24 is clipped the following report of a combination to control the California fruit trade: "It was pointed out in the Commercial some time ago that an organization was being perfected to enable the representatives of the Southern California Fruit Exchange to handle deciduous as well as other fruits. Information comes from California that this organization has been formed, and that the plans will be put into effect shortly.

"The Southern California Fruit Exchange and the California Fruit Distributors have joined forces and the combination now controls 96 per cent. of the fresh fruit of California. Further than this, the distributors will work with the California Fruit Agency, the citrus combine, and in most cities the latter's agents will handle both citrus and deciduous fruits, thus centralizing the control of California fruits.

"The auction feature is to be developed and in cities of sufficient size to warrant it, auction rooms are to be established. An example is the one recently established in St. Louis. It is said, too, that the eastern headquarters will be located at St. Louis, and that all shipments and sales will be handled there.

"The Distributors' agencies are to be discontinued as rapidly as can be done in most cities. It is reported that this will be accomplished by July 1, but that is uncertain.

"Some see in the establishment of a London house by the Earl Fruit Company a move to invade foreign markets and meet competitors from Australia, South Africa and Tasmania, the three principal sources of supply for fresh fruits in the English markets."

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

The week opened today (Monday) with business reported dull, on account of the end of the month. The markets are all generally steady. Butter, eggs and cheese are unchanged. Potatoes and onions move slowly. Vegetables are of good quality, and demand is excellent.

The feature of the market today was the continued glut in currants. Over a hundred boxes were condemned, and one dealer squeezed the juice out of his mouldy stock for jelly-making. Northern shippers have been positively advised to ship no more currants, for the demand, even for good stock, seems to be nil.

The demand for fresh fruits is strong. Cataloupes sell for 1.50@1.75 per dozen; grapes, 1.15@1.25 per crate; figs, 50@65 per box; watermelons, Chilean, 2.00@2.50 per dozen; commoner kinds, 75@1.00 per dozen; peaches are scarce and will be the 10th of July probably before many more come in; at that time the Crawfords appear; those now on the market sell for 75@1.00 per box. Apricots are somewhat scarce; northern receipts are very light and local are hardly ready for the market.

Tragedy and Gamoni prunes have appeared.

The first Bartlett pears of the season are being offered at 4@5 a pound.

Fish plentiful, except halibut.

Hams, bacon and lard bear new quotations, beginning today.

Other commodities steady at jobbing prices heretofore quoted.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 29.—Today's stock market showed more animation on a strongly rising scale than has been seen for many weeks. Business for the first two hours was considerably in excess of the average for the daily trading of last week. The market closed very active and strong with the top level of the day well maintained. Net gains of 1 to 2¾ points were general among the leaders and active stocks. Reading was really the leader of the day, and it advanced 2¾ on the purchase of enormous blocks on a constantly-rising scale. The Pennsylvania group of coolers was conspicuous throughout, and Pennsylvania itself broke through the opposition which held it for a time at 125, and rose to the best in the late dealings. The grain carriers were late to respond, but they came forward vigorously in the final dealings, with the Pacifics leading. The action of the new Pennsylvania stock was a reassuring factor upon sentiment. The apprehension that with the completion of the stock subscription, the motive for support of the stock by the underwriting syndicate having passed, the price would give way, was seen to be without ground. The brilliant success of the subscription was a stimulating influence upon the whole market. The official announcement that the total issue was subscribed for stockholders, and that 90 per cent. of subscriptions were paid in in full, indicates a money requirement of upward of $85,000,000. That this requirement could have been met with practically no disturbance in the money market has greatly strengthened the confidence in the money situation, the more so as it is now understood that the subscription payments have not yet been disbursed for repayment of the Pennsylvania $40,000,000 loan negotiated in June, although it is said on authority that this loan would be paid at its maturity on the second and third weeks of July. The Pennsylvania subscriptions seem to have operated for the benefit of the New York money market by the diversions of the payments to this center, both from Philadelphia and from foreign stockholders. The ability of the money market to carry through this great operation has detracted from the fears of a money squeeze in meeting the July 1 requirements, which, however, are unprecedented in amount. It is estimated that the total interest and dividend disbursements for July will amount to $195,956,000. Call money ruled at a higher rate today, however, and the time money market was perceptibly firmer. Discounts rose in Paris and Berlin, and the price of money in London was higher, but sterling exchange here was easier. The condition of the national banks throughout the country in June shows a percentage of legal reserve deposits of 22.88 per cent., compared with 21.62 per cent. April 9, and 22.12 per cent. July 16 of last year. The increase in loans and discounts since July 16 of last year has been $194,186,100. This does not constitute a favorable showing, on its face, as to the ability of the banks to meet the coming demand to move the crops, but this showing was lost sight of today in face of the more immediate situation. The special strength of Reading was connected with rumors of a coming increase in the dividend disbursements on the stock of the company. The reports of rains in the Northwest and the reaction resulting in the wreck of many helped stocks. The weekly railway traffic statistics show the general merchandise movement well sustained, and this was used to point the argument that the agricultural communities would not keep up their demand for merchandise if the crops were really in danger. Speculative sentiment among professional traders became very bullish as a result of the turn in the market. United States Steel second 5s were dropped down near 82 by persistent selling. The bond market, otherwise, was firm. Total sales, par value, $1,620,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKETS.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, June 29.—Weakness characterized the early trading in wheat today, due to reports of general rains in the Northwest, lower cables, large world's shipments, and a bearish Canadian crop report. September opened ¾ to ⅞ lower at 77⅝@77⅞, with July off ⅛ to 1⅛ at 79@80 cents. Many of the longs had wheat for sale and the early selling pressure was very urgent, and good long stuff was sold out. A decrease of over a million bushels in the visible supply brought out a better demand toward the noon hour, and prices started in an upward direction. September closed unchanged at 78⅛@78¼, but July was 1 cent lower at 79¾. Conditions favored the bears in the corn pit, and opening prices were weak. The close, however, was strong, with September ⅝ higher, at 56¾, and July ⅜ higher, at 56¾. The feature in the trading in oats was the decline in the July delivery, and the apparent abandonment of the deal which had been in progress for some time. September closed ¼ higher, at 34¼; July closed at 32¾, a loss of 1¼. Provisions were weak early in sympathy with grains, and on liberal receipts with lower prices at the yards. Free and active buyers at the decline, and a rapid advance followed. The close was at the top, with September pork up 60 cents; September lard was 17½c higher, and ribs 17½c up.

The leading futures closed as follows:

[NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.]

ONE IN PENITENTIARY, OTHER IN MATRIMONY.

Harry Walker Taken to San Quentin for Shooting David Tharp, His Rival for Mrs. Jones' Affections and Latter Two Married.

SANTA ANA, June 29.—With Harry Walker taken to San Quentin yesterday morning to serve a five-year sentence for the attempted murder of David Tharp in a struggle for the affections of Mrs. Laura Jones, and Tharp and Mrs. Jones married last night, comes the probable end of a case which has been of much interest during the past few weeks. Just before he was taken away, Walker wrote to Tharp, asking to see him and Mrs. Jones in his cell before leaving, whether to pronounce his benediction or malediction upon them is not known. They did not go, but visited instead the home of Rev. D. D. Cheney, where they were married last night in the presence of friends. They will live in Tustin for a short time in the home where the shooting took place, and later will move to Los Angeles.

FOUND DEAD.

Alex. Rule, a young veterinary employed for some time at the Maybury stock farm west of the city, was found dead in a toilet room at the Rossmore Hotel this morning. There was evidence that he had been dead three or four hours. A Coroner's jury this afternoon found that death was due to natural causes, pericarditis, following a severe malarial attack contracted in Texas, being the immediate cause. Before retiring last night the young man complained of headache and fever, and drank ice water. Rule had been here only a short time. He was a native of Scotland, aged 39, and all his relatives and close friends so far as known are across the sea. He had considerable skill as a veterinary and had studied pharmacy. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

MME. MODJESKA HOME.

Mme. Modjeska, the noted actress, arrived today to spend the summer months at her mountain home, Arden, in Santiago Cañon, fifteen miles east of this place. Her husband, Count Bozenta, accompanied her, and for a few days they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Rice at Tustin, where they went today. Mme. Modjeska is in good spirits and excellent health, with the exception of a slight cold. Her plans for the future, she says, are entirely unsettled at present, and she has nothing definite to announce with the exception that she expects to go upon the stage again next season, provided her health permits. She anticipates a pleasant and refreshing summer at her ranch, and will devote her time to study and rest.

LITTLE LOCALS.

Mrs. J. H. Howland, who is staying at the home of H. A. Allen of Tustin, went to Los Angeles this morning to have a plaster cast removed from the leg of her little daughter, who was one of the children treated for hip disease by Dr. Lorenz on his visit to Los Angeles.

Pedro Granio and Salverado Higuera, arrested for suspected complicity in inflicting injuries upon P. Esnandes, the Mexican found beaten almost to death by the Talbert roadside Friday, were examined in the Township Court today and released for lack of convicting evidence. Jesus Higuera, another peon in jail for the same grounds, will have his hearing Wednesday morning.

Owing to delays in the shipment of furniture for the library, it will be at least a week before the new building is thrown open to the public.

A delegation of Y.M.C.A. boys from Riverside will go into camp at Laguna Beach tomorrow for ten days. They will come to El Toro by special car.

H. K. Snow has struck an artesian well, flowing about thirty miner's inches from a seven-inch casing, on his ranch near the Newport mesa at Fairview. The well was drilled 475 feet, the deepest in that region.

The final W.C.T.U. meeting of the season will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Deardorf on Santa Clara avenue.

The Newport Beach Company announces sales of beach property today aggregating $5000, nearly all single lots to parties intending to build cottages this summer.

The Columbia Club has declined the invitation to participate in the Fourth of July celebration at Anaheim.

Word was received today of the death in Los Angeles this morning of Mrs. Cordelia Humphreys, formerly of this city. Funeral services will be held in this city Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Chilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dinkelspiel were here yesterday on their wedding tour as guests of Judge and Mrs. J. W. Ballard. Mr. Dinkelspiel is editor of the Solano County Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Parker, who have been here from the East as guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Curtis, left yesterday for a trip to the Yosemite.

Long and short-felt wants, or any old wants promptly filled by putting a "Liner" in The Times. Rate 1 cent a word, each insertion. Telephone your wants to Main 28, and our Santa Ana agency will take your ad. and send it to the main office.

SAN BERNARDINO.

HAPPENINGS OF A DAY.

SAN BERNARDINO, June 29.—There were two candidates today before the Board of Supervisors for positions on the County Board of Education, to succeed L. B. Avery of Redlands, and Dr. John A. Colliver of this city. The Supervisors appointed W. R. Murphy of Chino to fill one of the vacancies, and Prof. Avery was appointed to succeed himself. The proposed free road up and over the mountains was discussed at length. No action was taken, but it was stated that such a road will be either bought or built during the coming year.

Coroner Pitman left tonight for Dale to hold an inquest over the remains of Charles Thomas, who attempted to hold up the little mining camp last week, and was shot and killed by Constable Wagner. The inquest will be held on account of Thomas's father, who protests against his son being styled a desperado. The elder Thomas believes his son was demented, and denies the report that the young man was dishonorably discharged from the army at San Francisco.

A young fellow giving the name of John McMullen was arrested today, charged with burglarizing Mettler's hardware store.

"A soft answer turneth away wrath," and a judicious advertisement in The Times inviteth business. Telephone your wants to Red 414, and our San Bernardino agency will take your ad. and send it to the main office.

HIGHLAND.

INDEPENDENT FRUIT MEN.

HIGHLAND, June 29.—A large number of orange growers in the vicinity of Highland are not in favor of the new fruit agency, but are greatly opposed to it. These men, who control about five hundred acres of fruit, are planning to build a packing-house independent of the combine, and have leased property from the Santa Fé company as a site. The house will have all modern improvements and will cost about $3000. The promoters claim that, with the proper machinery, they can afford to pack oranges for 35 cents a box, whereas the agency asks 39½ cents a box.

GOOD HOBO REMEDY.

Two rough-looking Mexicans called at the home of Mrs. Fred Akers, who resides at the mouth of the cañon, near Highland, and ordered a lunch put up for them. Mrs. Akers refused, but the men threatened violence if the hand-out were not forthcoming. Mrs. Akers told them to wait a minute and she would get them something. Stepping into the next room she procured a shotgun and with a determined look told the toughs if they did not leave at once she would fill them with lead. They left in haste.

MINOR MENTION.

Miss Helen Frazer and Miss Carolyn Thompson gave a "tin" shower" Saturday in honor of Miss Cora Wallace, who is to be married to H. H. Lurville tomorrow. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frazer was beautifully decorated with flowers for the affair. The bride-to-be received many useful presents from the guests. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostesses.

The date of the annual public dance to be given by the employés of the State Hospital for the patients' amusement fund has been set for Thursday evening. The dance had to be postponed several times on account of numerous quarantines on the institution this spring.

REDLANDS.

HURT BY GLASS.

REDLANDS, June 29.—Several weeks ago a small boy threw a stone at a Chinese vegetable man, and the missile went through one of the large plate-glass windows in the Fisher block. The new glass to take its place arrived Saturday. In taking out the old glass today it was allowed to lean too far, and as it could not sustain its own weight it broke, falling on the men. John Swan sustained severe cuts on the head and shoulders, and Mr. Parkin's hand was severely cut.

DOGS BUT NO CATCHER.

Marshal Wallace is experiencing not a little trouble in finding some person to accept the responsible and remunerative office of dog-catcher. It was advertised that after June 22 all dogs fund running at large without license tags would be immediately taken up, but the office is still seeking a man, and until that man appears to take the office the untagged curs will continue to enjoy life as usual. The job might be made to pay.

"If you want a thing well done, do it yourself," is an old-time motto, but the latest is "Try The Times" when it comes to advertising. Telephone your wants to Red 1025, and our Redlands agency will take your ad. and send it to the main office.

SAN JACINTO.

FARMERS AS THRASHERS.

SAN JACINTO, June 29.—Many of the smaller farmers in the valley are planning to own and run a thrasher. So unreliable and uncertain is the harvesting of their crops when intrusted to large harvester owners, and so greatly do they suffer in consequence, that the farmers are importing a small harvester which has been declared a great success by men in the valley. Only three horses are required to furnish power for heading, thrashing and pulling the harvester," and one man does all the work. In a day the machine will cut, thrash and sack ten acres of grain, or 100 sacks. The cost of this harvester is about $800.

JOHN HENRY BOTTERELL DEAD.

John Henry Botterell, a wealthy Englishman, owning the "Pendennis" ranch near here, died Saturday after a long illness. Mr. Botterell came to San Jacinto more than eight years ago, and being wealthy, built for himself and family a handsome residence on Park Hill overlooking the valley. In the time of his residence in the valley he had won the good will of all who knew him. Aside from his large interest in fruit ranches and residence property he held controlling interests in a number of promising gold mines. He had served as a director of the Bank of Hemet, Hemet, since its organization. Mr. Botterell was aged 67 years, and leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters.

ON THE SIDE.

Authentic reports coming from responsible apiarists in the valley and neighboring foothill towns indicate that the honey crop will be only 50 per cent. of the estimate given six weeks ago. Although the flowers are numerous and have a healthy appearance, they are almost devoid of honey.

It has been arranged that a ball game will be played on the city grounds the Fourth of July between the Redlands team and the team of this city. Managers Stanley and Ryan of the San Jacinto baseball club have made arrangements to build a large bleacher, and otherwise improve the ball grounds.

The government Indian day school at Soboba will close this week for a two months' summer vacation. This vacation will afford the Indian children an opportunity to make from $25 to $50 each pitting fruit at the near-by dryers, where they are needed.

Miss Beatrice Clark has returned from Los Angeles to pass the summer vacation with her parents.

Mrs. A. C. Kleth is visiting relatives in Riverside.

RIVERSIDE.

LITTLE GIRL TAKES BIKE.

RIVERSIDE, June 29.—One of the parties who has been making away with so many bicycles of late has been apprehended. She is a twelve-year-old girl, Ella Koch, daughter of Emil Koch, a laborer, who lives on Orange street, north of First, in which vicinity some of the stolen wheels have been found. The girl confessed to the officers that she rode several wheels from town to near her home, but expressed no regret concerning her actions. She will not be prosecuted, if her parents correct her and keep her off the streets.

ARLINGTON SCRAP.

There was a shooting affray at Arlington yesterday. The principals were Mexicans, Jesus Castillo, the alleged shooter, and Pete Garcia, who narrowly escaped being shot, after a lively chase through an orange orchard, with Castillo in hot pursuit, brandishing a big gun, which he is alleged to have fired once at the fleeing Pete. The hearing is set for Wednesday afternoon.

ONE IN PENITENTIARY, OTHER IN MATRIMONY.

Harry Walker Taken to San Quentin for Shooting David Tharp, His Rival for Mrs. Jones' Affections and Latter Two Married.

SANTA ANA, June 29.—With Harry Walker taken to San Quentin yesterday morning to serve a five-year sentence for the attempted murder of David Tharp in a struggle for the affections of Mrs. Laura Jones, and Tharp and Mrs. Jones married last night, comes the probable end of a case which has been of much interest during the past few weeks. Just before he was taken away, Walker wrote to Tharp, asking to see him and Mrs. Jones in his cell before leaving, whether to pronounce his benediction or malediction upon them is not known. They did not go, but visited instead the home of Rev. D. D. Cheney, where they were married last night in the presence of friends. They will live in Tustin for a short time in the home where the shooting took place, and later will move to Los Angeles.

FOUND DEAD.

Alex. Rule, a young veterinary employed for some time at the Maybury stock farm west of the city, was found dead in a toilet room at the Rossmore Hotel this morning. There was evidence that he had been dead three or four hours. A Coroner's jury this afternoon found that death was due to natural causes, pericarditis, following a severe malarial attack contracted in Texas, being the immediate cause. Before retiring last night the young man complained of headache and fever, and drank ice water. Rule had been here only a short time. He was a native of Scotland, aged 33, and all his relatives and close friends so far as known are across the sea. He had considerable skill as a veterinary and had studied pharmacy. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Modjeska is in good spirits and excellent health, with the exception of a slight cold. Her plans for the future, she says, are entirely unsettled at present, and she has nothing definite to announce with the exception that she expects to go upon the stage again next season, provided her health permits. She anticipates a pleasant and refreshing summer at her ranch, and will devote her time to study and rest.

Pedro Granio and Salverado Higuera, arrested for suspected complicity in inflicting injuries upon P. Esnandes, the Mexican found beaten almost to death by the Talbert roadside Friday, were examined in the Township Court today and released for lack of convicting evidence. Jesus Higuera, another peon in jail for the same grounds, will have his hearing Wednesday morning.

Owing to delays in the shipment of furniture for the library, it will be at least a week before the new building is thrown open to the public.

SAN BERNARDINO.

HAPPENINGS OF A DAY.

SAN BERNARDINO, June 29.—There were two candidates today before the Board of Supervisors for positions on the County Board of Education, to succeed L. B. Avery of Redlands, and Dr. John A. Colliver of this city. The Supervisors appointed W. R. Murphy of Chino to fill one of the vacancies, and Prof. Avery was appointed to succeed himself. The proposed free road up and over the mountains was discussed at length. No action was taken, but it was stated that such a road will be either bought or built during the coming year.

Coroner Pitman left tonight for Dale to hold an inquest over the remains of Charles Thomas, who attempted to hold up the little mining camp last week, and was shot and killed by Constable Wagner. The inquest will be held on account of Thomas's father, who protests against his son being styled a desperado. The elder Thomas believes his son was demented, and denies the report that the young man was dishonorably discharged from the army at San Francisco.

A young fellow giving the name of John McMullen was arrested today, charged with burglarizing Mettler's hardware store.

"A soft answer turneth away wrath," and a judicious advertisement in The Times inviteth business. Telephone your wants to Red 414, and our San Bernardino agency will take your ad, and send it to the main office.

HIGHLAND.

INDEPENDENT FRUIT MEN.

HIGHLAND, June 29.—A large number of orange growers in the vicinity of Highland are not in favor of the new fruit agency, but are greatly opposed to it. These men, who control about five hundred acres of fruit, are planning to build a packing-house independent of the combine, and have leased property from the Santa Fé company as a site. The house will have all modern improvements and will cost about $3000. The promoters claim that, with the proper machinery, they can afford to pack oranges for 25 cents a box, whereas the agency asks 39½ cents a box.

GOOD HOBO REMEDY.

Two rough-looking Mexicans called at the home of Mrs. Fred Akers, who resides at the mouth of the cañon, near Highland, and ordered a lunch put up for them. Mrs. Akers refused, but the men threatened violence if the hand-out were not forthcoming. Mrs. Akers told them to wait a minute and she would get them something. Stepping into the next room she procured a shotgun and with a determined look told the toughs if they did not leave at once she would fill them with lead. They left in haste.

MINOR MENTION.

Miss Helen Frazer and Miss Carolyn Thompson gave a "tin shower" Saturday in honor of Miss Cora Wallace, who is to be married to H. H. Lurville tomorrow. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frazer was beautifully decorated with flowers for the affair. The bride-to-be received many useful presents from the guests. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostesses.

The date of the annual public dance to be given by the employés of the State Hospital for the patients' amusement fund has been set for Thursday evening. The dance had to be postponed several times on account of numerous quarantines on the institution this spring.

REDLANDS.

HURT BY GLASS.

REDLANDS, June 29.—Several weeks ago a small boy threw a stone at a Chinese vegetable man, and the missile went through one of the large plate-glass windows in the Fisher block. The new glass to take its place arrived Saturday. In taking out the old glass today it was allowed to lean too far, and as it could not sustain its own weight it broke, falling on the men. John Swan sustained severe cuts on the head and shoulders, and Mr. Parkin's hand was severely cut.

DOGS BUT NO CATCHER.

Marshal Wallace is experiencing not a little trouble in finding some person to accept the responsible and remunerative office of dog-catcher. It was advertised that after June 22 all dogs found running at large without license tags would be immediately taken up, but the office is still seeking a man, and until that man appears to take the office the untagged curs will continue to enjoy life as usual. The job might be made to pay.

"If you want a thing well done, do it yourself," is an old-time motto, but the latest is "Try The Times" when it comes to advertising. Telephone your wants to Red 1025, and our Redlands agency will take your ad. and send it to the main office.

SAN JACINTO.

FARMERS AS THRASHERS.

SAN JACINTO, June 29.—Many of the smaller farmers in the valley are planning to own and run a thrasher. So unreliable and uncertain is the harvesting of their crops when intrusted to large harvester owners, and so greatly do they suffer in consequence, that the farmers are importing a small harvester which has been declared a great success by men in the valley. Only three horses are required to furnish power for heading, thrashing and pulling the harvester, and one man does all the work. In a day the machine will cut, thrash and sack ten acres of grain, or 100 sacks. The cost of this harvester is about $800.

JOHN HENRY BOTTERELL DEAD.

John Henry Botterell, a wealthy Englishman, owning the "Pendennis" ranch near here, died Saturday after a long illness. Mr. Botterell came to San Jacinto more than eight years ago, and being wealthy, built for himself and family a handsome residence on Park Hill overlooking the valley. In the time of his residence in the valley he had won the good will of all who knew him. Aside from his large interest in fruit ranches and residence property he held controlling interests in a number of promising gold mines. He had served as a director of the Bank of Hemet, Hemet, since its organization. Mr. Botterell was aged 67 years, and leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters.

ON THE SIDE.

Authentic reports coming from responsible apiarists in the valley and neighboring foothill towns indicate that the honey crop will be only 50 per cent. of the estimate given six weeks ago. Although the flowers are numerous and have a healthy appearance, they are almost devoid of honey.

It has been arranged that a ball game will be played on the city grounds the Fourth of July between the Redlands team and the team of this city. Managers Stanley and Ryan of the San Jacinto baseball club have made arrangements to build a large bleacher, and otherwise improve the ball grounds.

RIVERSIDE.

LITTLE GIRL TAKES BIKE.

RIVERSIDE, June 29.—One of the parties who has been making away with so many bicycles of late has been apprehended. She is a twelve-year-old girl, Ella Koch, daughter of Emil Koch, a laborer, who lives on Orange street, north of First, in which vicinity some of the stolen wheels have been found. The girl confessed to the officers that she rode several wheels from town to near her home, but expressed no regret concerning her actions. She will not be prosecuted, if her parents correct her and keep her off the streets.

ARLINGTON SCRAP.

There was a shooting affray at Arlington yesterday. The principals were Mexicans, Jesus Castillo, the alleged shooter, and Pete Garcia, who narrowly escaped being shot, after a lively chase through an orange orchard, with Castillo in hot pursuit, brandishing a big gun, which he is alleged to have fired once at the fleeing Pete. The hearing is set for Wednesday afternoon.

[NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.]

SLUGGED AND ROBBED PASADENA CITIZEN.

E. A. PEARCE ROUGHLY HANDLED BY FOUR THUGS.

Victimized Saturday Night and Police Informed Forty-eight Hours Afterward—Live Humane Society Starts Well—Mrs. Burdette's Hospital Gift.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 48 South Raymond Avenue, June 30.—E. A. Pearce, a young painter living at No. 709 Earlham street, was slugged on the head Saturday night and robbed of his valuables. The hold-up was not reported to the police until last night, and Chief Freeman says: "Anyone so unfortunate as to have this happen to him should aid us in our work by informing us sooner."

This was a genuine hold-up, and the thugs went at it in a business-like manner. Pearce had been down town for the evening, and was walking home by way of Moline avenue and Villa street. As he turned from Moline to Villa he noticed four men sitting on a bench there. Their hats were pulled down over their eyes, but he did not suspect them, and passed directly in front of the quartette. The next thing he knew he awoke to find himself lying on the ground with a large lump on the side of his head and his pockets turned inside out. He could not tell how long he had been unconscious. The robbers were poorly rewarded for their work, as far as cash was concerned, getting but $2 and some small change, but a gold, Elgin watch was missing, which he valued very highly.

Pearce had a bag of sugar under his arm when struck, and he found himself over twenty feet from the place where the broken bag lay, and he thinks he must have staggered before he fell. He did not see the faces of the four men, but was able to give a fair description of the clothes they wore and their general appearance. He believes that they did not have any firearms, taking the other method to be safer, and using a leaden slug. The place was especially favorable for the crime, as there is a high hedge behind the bench, which extends on down the street.

HUMANE SOCIETY MEETS.

The large attendance present at the second meeting of the Pasadena Humane Society held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon was favored with a most interesting address by Dr. F. A. Seymour, president of the Los Angeles County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. His remarks were encouraging to the promoters of the local organization, which is to become auxiliary to the county society. Forty-two people were present, and the names of 148 men and women were taken who have signified their intention of becoming members at a fee of $1 a year.

Dr. Seymour began by speaking of the Los Angeles county society, saying in part: "Branches of the country organization are most necessary and the junior societies formed in the schools of Los Angeles have demonstrated what may be done in the line of education and the success of branches. This work is for the purpose of reformation, not revenue; for prosecution, not persecution.

"Two and one-half years ago, in a suit where a man was fined $200 for cruelty, Senator White brought out the point that the bylaws of our society were not in accordance with the statute. Since then a revision has been made by Mr. Shaw, son of Judge Shaw, and we stand proof against any attack from this quarter. Until 1901 we were not recognized by the County Supervisors, but the way was paved for us by the Police Commissioners, who appointed a humane officer as a special officer on half pay. Section 14 of the statute provides that the supervisors can allow up to $150 a month for work of this kind, and after many applications were awarded $25 per month to go toward our support. Last month the grant was raised to $100 per month, and the first payment has just been received.

"This $100 a month is for the county and not for the city of Los Angeles alone, and Pasadena will get her share of its benefit. The officers of the Los Angeles County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals are also the officers of the Los Angeles Humane Society, for the reason that the humane society does not come under the statute. They are distinct in their work, the latter paying more attention to the treatment of children. The county society has just removed from its old quarters over the City Jail to new rooms, and big plans are being made for the year."

Dr. Seymour assured the meeting that the warmest coöperation would be extended the Pasadena society, and stated that one of its officers would be asked to become a member of the board of directors of the Los Angeles society. Although the two societies will be auxiliary, the local one can make its own rules and regulations.

Dr. E. L. Conger was appointed chairman of a committee to draw up a constitution and set of bylaws. The other members of this committee are Mrs. H. G. Peets and Judge Klamroth. A vote of thanks to Dr. Seymour for his able remarks, to and for this society," was carried by a rising vote. A committee on membership was appointed, and it was decided a fee of $1 a year be made the fee of membership. The meeting then adjourned to meet at the same place next Monday at 4 o'clock.

COLOR LINE DRAWN.

Five white women employed at the People's French laundry went on a strike yesterday, because of the employment of six colored women. The proprietor had a little more business than usual, and had to engage the only available help he could find. By this uncalled-for action of the white workers, he has been put in a tight place, but says he would shut up rather than take the hot-headed women back again. The feeling caused at the time of the murder of Conductor Carlton by Juliato Hill has not died out, and it is thought by the proprietor that the strike would not have occurred except for the feeling engendered by this affair.

BRAINARD RESIGNS.

The resignation of Commissioner Brainard was tendered at the meeting of that body yesterday afternoon. He gave as a reason for his withdrawal, "lack of time to perform the duties."

W. S. McIntyre was made a regular member of the police force, to succeed Officer Compton, resigned. J. T. Doherty was made a special policeman without pay. Loughery & Stone were awarded the contract for furnishing the fire department with harness, and several applications were received for appointments on the fire staff.

HOSPITAL ADDITIONS.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette backs the addition of a maternity ward for the Pasadena Hospital with $10,000, and plans for the wing are being completed. A benevolent man—who objects to the mention of his name—has informed Secretary H. H. Klamroth that he will give money for the erection of a tuberculosis ward, which is to be built upon a portion of the property apart from the hospital building.

TRAILERS.

Mrs. G. W. Stimson, accompanied by her daughter, Cordelia, left for Boston last night. Miss Cordelia is to spend a year abroad and Mrs. Stimson expects to return to Pasadena with her son, George, by way of the Panama canal.

A. K. Macomber is touring Europe in an automobile and will be at the Gordon-Bennett international cup race which is to be held over a 300-mile course in Ireland on July 2.

The foreman of the construction gang will appear before Judge Congdon this morning to answer to the charge of leaving an unlighted obstruction in the street on South Fair Oaks. Contractor Orr's horse fell over the pile of rails, spike kegs and what-not Sunday night.

President Boynton of the Board of Trade has sent twenty-five copies of the handsome Pasadena souvenir book to T. D. McKay, general passenger agent at Yokohama, Japan, to be discreetly distributed to foreign travelers headed this way.

H. T. Kendall and son of South Orange Grove will leave today in Mr. Kendalls' automobile for Santa Barbara. The rest of the family will follow by rail to visit at the Potter for two months.

SOCIETY DOINGS.

Mrs. H. J. Macomber gave a delightful little afternoon linen shower at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Ruth Gardner. Those assisting were: Mrs. Lloyd Macy, Miss Gardner and Misses Masters and Poley. Many dainty gifts were given to Miss Ruth, most of them being for her trousseau.

Among those present were: The Misses Lutz, the Misses Norton and Misses Merwin, Cloud, Bragdon, Coleman, Morhous, Holmes, McGilvray, Horton, Andrus, Behr, and Alice Markham.

SAN PEDRO.

NEW POLICE FORCE NEEDED.

SAN PEDRO, June 29.—This city is sorely in need of a new police force. The present administration of affairs is unsatisfactory, and has been so for months. Many vile places have been put out of business within the last year, but the San Pedro Police Department, Marshal and Constable included, played a very small part in bringing about the desired result. The unwarranted shortcomings have been pointed out heretofore, and corruption has been shown to exist openly, but to no purpose. There are plenty of persons who will talk to you all day about reform in the city, but when it comes to a show-down they are not to be found.

It is a fact and cannot be denied, that arrests are made here who they should not be, while parties [illegible] saloons and house [illegible] name in the principal streets, in violation of city ordinances and State laws, are permitted to do so openly and without fear of being placed behind the bars. An instance of how the San Pedro police authorities are keeping in strict conformity to their sworn duties may be shown right here. One day last week, in the forenoon, and on the most central business corner in town, a drunken sot, who was so filled up with whisky and beer that he couldn't stand, was permitted to lie down and go to sleep, in plain view of all who passed, men and women alike. He remained there, sound asleep and stretched out over the sidewalk as if dead, several hours. All this time there was not a single policeman to be found, and the passersby, especially strangers in town, formed ideas of San Pedro that are not of the choicest character. This one case is a mild example; there are many others like it, and worse. It has been suggested that with such conditions confronting them it would seem that the City Trustees would at least spare a little time in looking after the Police Department; it certainly cannot look after itself.

GLENDALE.

PROPERTY SELLING.

GLENDALE, June 29.—Since Brand secured the franchise for an electric road and insured its early completion, many properties have changed ownership. Mr. Stubblefield sold twelve acres, a portion of which is in bearing oranges, for $6000. This property is near the foothills and was purchased by F. W. McIntyre for an investment. Eastern parties have purchased the home place of John Clark, containing five acres, improved, for $2500. The buyers will occupy it as a permanent home. The Glendale Realty Company sold twelve lots in the block bounded by M, L, Fifth and Sixth street, for $2000; purchased for home by Dr. R. C. Hollowell and J. W. French. The same parties also purchased four lots, Fourth street and Glendale avenue, for $1500.

Prof. Moyse and his father are each building an eight-room modern cottage near the High School at a cost of $2000 each.

The fine hotel and grounds have been much improved and Messrs. Merrill and Harris of the Glendale Realty Company will furnish and open it as a first-class tourist hotel November 1.

E. W. Pack has completed an elegant cottage on Second street.

CLAREMONT.

WATER ENTERPRISE.

CLAREMONT, June 29.—The Citizens' Water Company is establishing its new system with energy and efficiency. Ten thousand of the 20,000 feet of ditch is already dug and the excavation for the $50,000 reservoir is completed, together with the outlet. Contractor Albert Simmons of Pomona is scheduled to have the reservoir complete by July 15, while the contract for the manufacture of the steel pipe has been let to J. D. Hooker of Los Angeles. The first carload of the finished material is to arrive shortly after July 1, with other cars to follow in rapid succession. The contract for the installation of the motor and pump is to be awarded this week. A recent survey to test the pressure of the system showed that at Holmes Hall it would be 201 feet, while at the postoffice, 300 feet north of the Santa Fé depot, it would reach the 250-foot mark. This will mean a splendid equipment for fire fighting. The company has made thorough work of its enterprise. It has purchased the entire system of the Consolidated Water Company—25,000 feet or more—and of this only 2500 feet of the best pipe will be taken up, remodeled and used as part of the new system.

The company officials believe that all the improvements now in course of construction will be finished early in August.

L. T. Gillette, secretary of the Citizens' Water Company, is building a handsome residence on Third street. The house and lot will cost $10,000.

Furstenfeld has been arrested again for selling liquor without a license, and this time about $250 worth of liquor was taken from the premises and is now in the Justice Court at San Gabriel. The complaint was sworn to by Bert Beatty, a warrant for arrest and a search warrant issued by Justice W. M. Northrup and the raid made by Constable E. W. Stanton, assisted by Deputies De la Osa and Franklin. Furstenfeld was taken before Justice Northrup, who released him on $100 cash bail to appear Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock for preliminary trial. Only a short time ago Furstenfeld was arrested and fined $175 for a similar infraction of the license law, having had his application for restaurant license denied.

GREAT TIME PROMISED.

MONROVIA, June 29.—The forthcoming Fourth of July celebration in Monrovia is going to be "the best ever," if present arrangements are carried out. The day will open with a salute at sunrise. At 10 o'clock the procession will move on Myrtle avenue. Besides several interesting floats, the Calithumpians will occupy a prominent position. The procession will be headed by Stanton Post, G.A.R., and the Woman's Relief Corps, besides members from the other posts of Los Angeles, and sixteen members of the Fife and Drum Corps. Teddy's Terrors' Band, with twenty-six members, will furnish music throughout the day, as well as give a concert in the evening.

After the procession the people will congregate at the grand stand, opposite the operahouse, where J. M. Guinn will deliver an address and give the history of the flag. The Apollo Club will sing the national anthem.

Immediately following this will come the sports, for which large cash prizes are offered.

The veterans will leave Los Angeles at 8:40 a.m., arriving here at 9:30. They will be entertained at La Grande Vista Pavilion by the veterans of Monrovia and their wives, with a basket picnic. Everybody is invited to come to Monrovia on the Fourth and participate.

In the evening there will be a band concert and a splendid display of fireworks from Pierson's Hill, which will afford everyone a splendid view.

PROSPECT PARK.

SCHOOL RECEPTION.

PROSPECT PARK, June 29.—The Spanish Girls' Industrial School gave a reception to the Methodists of Los Angeles and other towns. A number of Methodist clergymen and mission workers were present. This was on the occasion of the closing of the first year's work of the school. The school was opened for the admission of Spanish girls. December last a large number from Los Angeles and vicinity entered. The school has been very successful under the supervision of the matron, Miss M. J. Tripp. The work of the girls was on exhibition, and would measure up to that of the public school. A table was spread with eatables, the product of the cooking department, all prepared by the girls. In the evening a cantata, entitled, "The Rainbow," was well rendered by eight of the larger girls.

A number of homes are to be built this summer, and Prospect Park is evidently on the verge of prosperity.

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND.

NEW GLASS-BOTTOM BOAT.

AVALON, June 29.—The launching of vessels at the Avalon shipyards is becoming frequent. Today witnessed the completion and launching of the big side-wheel glass-bottom boat, built for the Avalon Glass Boat Company, composed of E. M. Mathson, O. P. Smith, R. S. Compton and I. L. Newberry, all of them having been engaged in the boating business here for many years. The boat is the largest of its kind ever built here, and is fitted up sumptuously for the accommodation of its patrons. It is 45 feet in length, 17½ feet beam, has a 20-horse-power Union engine of the latest pattern, which occupies the center, and is housed in; has toilet and lavatory, and is adapted for long or short trips about the island. The glasses are six in number, each 20x38 inches, and the glass is ¾ inch thick, each weighing 100 pounds. The side wheels are eight feet in diameter. The carrying capacity is 100 persons. The boat is resting on the beach, and will be slid into the water at high tide tonight.

WORLD'S FAIR FISH.

Frank Wiggins yesterday began the preliminary arrangements for transporting a lot of live fish, peculiar to the island waters, as well as pictures and mounted specimens for the St. Louis World's Fair. Ocean water will have to be supplied to them in a constant running stream, and the transportation will be attended with considerable difficulty; but Wiggins is always equal to the occasion.

SANTA MONICA.

WOMAN ASSAILER ESCAPED.

SANTA MONICA, June 29.—A man and woman, who had evidently been having a severe struggle, were seen early this afternoon on the rugged field lying north of Front street, between the beach and Ocean avenue. The woman's clothing was torn, and she was screaming. A. B. Bynon of Ocean Park, who happened to be in the neighborhood, inquired what was the trouble, and the woman said the man had been beating her. Bynon started to approach the man, and the woman said that he had a revolver. Bynon stepped into an automobile with Louis Hostetter, and the vehicle was steamed with speed to the City Marshal's office. As soon as a further pursuit could be made of the man, it was learned that he had made a detour so as to strike the beach again, and that from there he had disappeared. Efforts to find the woman also proved fruitless.

THE OIL INDUSTRY

NEW PROCESS FOUND FOR REFINING OILS.

BAKERSFIELD INVESTORS EXPECT TO REVOLUTIONIZE BUSINESS.

Stills for Southwestern Refinery on Way to Plant—Imperial and Thirty-three Companies Declare Nineteenth Dividend—Stock Market.

Considerable interest is aroused among oil men in the process of refining and purifying crude oils recently discovered by O. S. Hickey and Tom Madison of Bakersfield. It is small wonder that the find is causing a stir, as the inventors claim, that by their method the process of refining oil will be revolutionized and greatly cheapened.

Several bottles treated by this process are exhibited at the office of the National Supply Company in this city, and in many respects the oil seems to be up to the standard.

The inventors state that by their method they can produce from any oil above 40 gravity a fine water-white kerosene; from oil of 19 gravity, a fine engine oil; from 12 to 14 distillate, a good cylinder and lubricating oil, and from 25 to 32 a distillate for furnace use. The cheapness of the process is one of the greatest advantages, and it is believed that the process will enable the producer to realize $4 a barrel on all oil treated, while the asphaltum alone will pay the cost.

A dry wash process is used, and on this the owners have applied for patent, but the chemical combination being secret, it needs no protection. The inventors claim that they have worked for several months on the new process, and that there is no doubt that they have discovered a process for mixing the chemicals that will be of far-reaching importance to the petroleum industry.

STILLS FOR REFINING.

Stills for the Southwestern Refinery Company's new plant, to be located in the Kern River field have been shipped from this city, where they arrived from New Orleans several days ago. The new plant is all completed, with the exception of installing the stills. It is understood that the company has for the present abandoned its pipe line scheme and will draw its supply of oil from the Standard's tanks.

DIVIDENDS THAT TALK.

The Monte Cristo Company, one of the large operators in the northern field, has paid its dividend for June. The amount was 1 per cent.

The Home Oil Company, operating in the Coalinga field, has also paid a dividend. Its stockholders have been given 5 per cent.

On July 1 the Pittsburgh Company will pay a dividend of 2½ per cent, a share.

HOW OIL PAYS.

ANOTHER BIG DIVIDEND.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD (Cal.) June 28.—The Imperial and Thirty-three companies, known as the J. M. Keith and J. J. Mack companies, have declared another $30,000 dividend, payable Monday, July 6. The Imperial owns 1121 acres of land on sections 33, 34, 28 and 1, 29, 28 at Kern River, and the Thirty-three owns the southeast quarter of section 33, 29, 28. These companies made large long-time contracts with the Southern Pacific Railroad Company when oil was bringing $1 a barrel at the field. This is the nineteenth dividend paid by these companies, which totals $570,000, and all paid within one year and seven months. The companies have fifty-two producing wells.

It is estimated here that John A. Bunting will realize between $300,000 and $400,000 out of his interest in the San Joaquin Oil Company, sold to the Southern Pacific people. This does not end all his holdings in the Kern River field. It is said he holds a big block of Associated stock besides receiving a royalty from the same concern on more than a quarter-section of land in 31, 28, 28 at the Kern River.

The Associated is running five strings of tools at the river field and is preparing to start five more. The company commenced not long since the task of sinking fifty more wells.

FIELD DEVELOPMENT.

The Illinois Crude, on 32, 28, 28, Kern River, has one string of tools at work on No. 7.

The Western Union Oil Company in the Cariza district has shut down work for the time being. It is believed they have reached oil, which was the object of the drilling, to test the land.

The Monarch Oil Company has started work on its No. 4.

The Fulton is working on No. 4.

Activity slackened down a little at Sunset during the past week.

The Alameda Oil Company at the above field has shut down indefinitely, and L. Aubert, who has been representing the French capital interested, has returned to France.

The St. Paul laid off its force last Thursday.

The American Boy Company, which suspended operations on its well on 7, 12, 23 several months ago, has pulled out its casing and abandoned the property.

The Elk, on 19, 32, 24, is reported as permanently abandoned.

SANTA MARIA GUSHER.

RIVAL COMPANY LANDS IT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A telephone message from Santa Maria states that the third well of the Final Oil Company operating on territory near the Western Union Company, came in shortly before dark, and has since been spouting at the rate of 2400 barrels an hour, oil being forced fifty feet above the top of the derrick. The company has been sinking the well the past month, and today began removing the slag from the bottom. As it was expected that the oil vein would soon be reached, many of those holding stock in the company, and a number of experts were upon the ground when the gusher came in. A high embankment was thrown up in the vicinity of the well to retain the oil that was flooding the district. In anticipation of a heavy flow of oil from the wells in its district, the Final company began the construction of several large tanks, and it is expected most of the oil now flowing about can be stored. The Final company entered the northern Santa Barbara field only a few months ago upon territory secured by H. McKay, president of the Commercial Bank. Stockholders are Los Angeles and San Francisco capitalists.
